Dear Ms. Giroux and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

Thank you so much for being willing to join the effort to distribute and post my articles:
Open each of my emails one at a time and click "Reply All" and "Send".
Even if my emails have the same text in the Subject box, each has a different set of email addresses in its "To:" and "cc:" boxes.

There is something else you can do: read and reread them until you understand the workings of the proposed:

out-of-court inform and outrage strategy for judicial abuse of power exposure, abusees' collective demand for compensation, and the progressive formation of a national civic Me-Too!-like movement for transformative reform of the justice system and public accountability that forces principled and opportunistic politicians running in the primaries and the next mid-term elections to incorporate this issue in their programmatic platforms, townhall meetings, press conferences, and interviews.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER. The more you understand the purpose of my articles, the more effectively and imaginatively you can share them.

For instance, you can explain to your friends and family the purpose of the articles and the joint effort to distribute them. Then you can encourage them to join you in the distribution and posting effort.

We want the articles to go viral and attract ever more people and cause journalists to become interested in investigating the purpose of the articles and their statements of facts and legal issues.

Journalists are indispensable to the holding together with academic institutions of the proposed unprecedented citizens hearings: Held at media stations and university auditoriums, and monitored by journalists, professors, multidisciplinary experts, and students, the hearings will give the opportunity to tell the live and Internet audiences the story of the abuse that they have suffered and witnessed.

To learn how to write in up to 500 words your story of the abuse of power that you have suffered or witnessed read the article at http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL2/DrRCordero_method_for_writing_your_story.pdf.

One of the articles and links that you can read and distribute is this:

Thank you so much!

Dear Ms. Giroux and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

I am grateful to you for posting links to my articles on You Tube.

If you are willing to post other links, I will be equally thankful to you. To that end, I will send you the most current articles. These are their links:

1. On exposing a Commission on Judicial Conduct that covers up the fabrication of indictments on false and insufficient evidence by judges, prosecutors, and police officers, see http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/IAB/25-5-27DrRCordero-Commission_Judicial_Conduct.pdf

2. On exposing healthcare insurers' and a conniving Medicare's abusive claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics, see:

Cordero
v.
Secretary of Health and Human Services, Medicare, EmblemHealth [healthcare insurer], Maximus Federal Services [reviewer of insurance claims denials], et al.
[including many of the top officers of the Medicare Appeals Council and the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals (OMHA)]; docket no. 24-cv-09778-JAV;
filed in U.S. District Court, SDNY, on 16 December 2024
http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/ALJ/24-12-15DrRCordero-v-Medicare_EmblemHealth_et_al.pdf

3. On holding unprecedented citizens hearings for people to tell their story of the abuse of power that they have suffered or witnessed, see: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero_proposal_expose_abuse_power.pdf

Just as I tell other Advocates who post my articles and/or their links, do not state or imply that I endorse your own contents. Encourage your readers to read my articles in their own interest of exposing abusers of power, obtaining compensation, and promoting transformative change in holding power holders accountable and liable.

In the same vein, you may join the effort to expose abusers of power by sharing the articles that you receive from me: Open each of my emails one at a time and click on it "Reply All" and "Send". Even if my emails have the same text in the Subject line, each has a different set of email addresses in its "To:" and "cc:" boxes.

Sharing those articles that way takes less than eight seconds per email, but you can reach hundreds of email addressees. Thank you in advance.

Recipients will appreciate your effort. In fact, so many recipients of my articles on unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse of power have visited my website at http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org and have been so positively impressed by similar articles found there that as of 27 August 2025, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 58,442.

The objective of the distribution effort is to reach so many people who have suffered or witnessed abuse of power as to cause academic institutions and media outlets to hold in their own financial and reputational interest the proposed UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.

The citizens hearings will be held at university auditoriums and media stations; and monitored by professors, journalists, multidisciplinary experts, and students to give people the opportunity to tell in five minutes their stories of abuse to the audience on site and on the Internet.

To learn how to write in up to 500 words your story of the abuse of power that you have suffered or witnessed read the article at http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL2/DrRCordero_method_for_writing_your_story.pdf.

Their stories will inform and outrage their city, state, and national public by exposing the abusers and a system that holds them unaccountable: Unaccountability breeds abuse. The stories will lend substantial impact to the abusees' collective demand for compensation.

The citizens hearings and their stories of abuse will set off transformative change in our system of justice by forcing principled and opportunistic politicians running in the primaries and the mid-term elections to take them into account in their platforms, townhall meetings, press conferences, and interviews.

So, join the effort to let informed and outraged people give rise to a national civic Me Too!-like movement that shouts an ever louder rallying cry of a self-assertive We the People:

Enough is enough!
We won't take any abuse from anybody anymore.

Sincerely,

Dr. Cordero,

I have called and left a message for you and your organization. Please read my website Justice4JusticeCCCcorruption.org as there is a criminal organization in a probate court in Cook County Illinois which is led by a criminal Judge, criminal law firm, a third party company that was hired by Cook County and a criminal GAL.

This organization is killing my 33 year old Down's Syndrome daughter. This criminal organization has and is doing this to multiple individuals.

Are you willing to help save these many lives? This is not just a single situation as it is going on throughout America!

Wed, 16july25; to Tom Farrell at (847)525 0155

I called Mr. Farrell and recorded a mes stating that I do not have a license to practice in Illinois; cannot be expected to pay myself for traveling there; and have a strategy, namely, the holding of unprecedented citizens hearings and demonstrations among the national and international journalists that will cover the trial of Luigi Mangione, who killed the UnitedHealthcare CEO, when it is held here in NYC most likely in August. I provided my phone number.

When a bully enters a neighborhood to abuse its people, the bully only gets the people to band together and teach him a lesson: There is always a bully bigger, stronger, and meaner than you. We are it! and the people vote him out with egg on his face.

Re: Proposal to join forces to prosecute cases as class actions, supported by a website with 53,661 subscribers, all guided by the principle Making Money While Doing Justice"

Dear editors-in-Chief, journalists, lawyers, professors, and

Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

The article below and referenced articles concern federal judges, their unaccountability, and riskless abuse of power; how they affect you; and how you can join forces to expose them on behalf of your audience, clients, and We the People, the masters of all public servants, including judges.

The Fairness in Apartment Rental Expenses (FARE) Act, slated to go into effect on June 11, 2025, mandates that broker fees be paid by whoever hired the broker - most often, the landlord or property management company, not the prospective tenant.

"Anyone who has paid 15% of their annual rent in brokers fees for someone to let you in an apartment for 10 minutes knows the practice is nothing more than legalized theft," said Bradley Tusk, founder of Tusk Philanthropies.

Rob Solano of Churches United for Fair Housing called the new law "a historic victory for tenants across New York City."

StreetEasy, a real estate search engine, projects that with the broker fee burden lifted, renters can expect the average upfront cost of signing a new lease to decrease 41.8%, from $12,942 to $7,537.

New York City Council Member Chi Ossé, who created the FARE Act, cited rising housing costs as his motivation to create the bill.

Jeff Bezos, the owner of The Washington Post, cancelled the publication of the presidential endorsement that the editors had worked on for weeks, as announced on Friday, 25oct24 (when Sewell Chan appeared on the PBS Newshour show to comment on it). Mr. Chan said that Bezos has many commercial interest that could be negatively impacted by the regulatory agencies that would be under the control of Trump if he won the presidential election. Hence, it appears as if Bezos caved in to the criticism of The Washington Post has levelled against Trump for years. By abstaining from issuing an endorsement, Bezos avoided provoking Trump into retaliating against his commercial interests, such as Amazon, space exploration, and AI.

25. Help distribute

Dear Ms. Card and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

Thank you for acknowledging receipt.

Can you help distribute my articles by opening each email that you receive from me and clickingReply All" andSend"?

Each email has a different set of email addresses in its To: box even if it has the same text in the Subject: or Re: box.

The more times an email with even the same article is sent, the higher the chance of the addressees receiving, opening, reading it, and becoming so informed about, and outraged at, judges' abuse of power and cover-up as to demand that journalists and politicians investigate judges and expose them, which may lead to holding judges accountable and liable to compensate the victims of their abuse, including you.

That is the inform and outrage strategy for judicial abuse exposure, compensation, and reform.

Hence, it is in your own interest to help distribute my emails as widely as possible by emailing them as well as posting them to social media, such as Facebook, Youtube, WhatsApp, LinkedIn, Instagram, Google plus, Pinterest, Reddit, Snapchat, etc.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

1) deny and uphold the denial of as many of their insureds' claims as possible;
2) disregard their legal duty to accept as total payment the amounts stated in Medicare's and HMOs' tables of medical services and equipment costs; and
3) condone the billing of insureds for the unpaid balance, which constitutes the illegal practice of 'balance billing'.
    i. Section 1902(n)(3)(B) of the Social Security Act, found in Title 42 of the U.S. Code of federal laws, as modified by Section 4714 of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, P.L. 105-33, prohibits services and equipment providers from balance billing Medicaid QMBs (Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries) for Medicare cost-sharing.
    ii. The provider is duty-bound statutorily and contractually to submit its bill to Medicaid and accept as full payment what Medicaid pays, as set forth in its tables of services and equipment costs. See also Overview of Medicaid Provisions in the Balanced Budget Act.
    iii. Knowledge of the prohibition on balance billing insureds is imputed to the provider because by law and contract it was informed of it: There is no need to prove that it had actual knowledge.
    iv. The provider has 'superior knowledge' relative to the knowledge that insureds can reasonably be expected to have. Consequently, the provider and the insureds do not deal at arm's length. When the provider takes advantage of this knowledge differential to balance bill an insured, it abuses its power.

My website Judicial Discipline Reform at http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org, has attracted with my articles posted there so many webvisitors that 37,336+ have become subscribers; see http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL2/DrRCordero-CLEs_lawyers_media.pdf >Appendix 3. How many law firms, let alone lawyers, do you know have a website with so many subscribers? Hence my pitch to you contains a proposal for a multidisciplinary academic and business joint venture.

On the contrary, current events render this the most opportune time for holding these webinars and publishing my articles.

Indeed, President Joe Biden is forming the bipartisan commission to reform the system of justice. He announced his intention to form it in an interview with CBS newsanchor Norah O'Donnell on October 22, 2020.

He nominated for attorney general Judge Merrick Garland. If confirmed and if named as direct or indirect member of the commission, Judge Garland will be the protector of himself and his fellow judges, their unaccountability-inducing abuse of power and consequent harm to complaining abusees, litigants, andEqual Justice Under Law" notwithstanding; see http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL2/DrRCordero_media_exposing_judges.pdf .

We have the opportunity to launch a generalized media investigation into Judge Garland, his fellow judges, and the Federal Judiciary. It can have graver institutional consequences than the Watergate scandal investigation, for it can expose abuse of power as the Federal Judiciary and its unaccountable judges as their institutionalized modus operandi.

NYCBar can make a name for itself, as the Washington Post did thanks to the courageous support of publisher Katharine Graham and editor Benjamin Bradlee: You can be instrumental in bringing down a whole branch and ushering in a new form of government where We the People, the masters of all public servants, can exercise their right to hold also judicial public servants accountable and liable to compensate the victims of their abuse.

President Biden's commission and nomination makes this the most opportune time to expose judges' abuse of power. Seize the opportunity!...and you may enter history.

Stop whining and take action!
Dear Mr. Pellerin,

Thank you for your email.

The first step to overcoming the harm caused by abusive judges is by reading the article below.

If you do, you will find out what to do.

If you don't, then the harm was not so bad as to determine you to make the effort to find out what to do about it.

Whining is so much easier than taking action:

a. read the article
b. share it with your friends and family and everybody else in the same situation as you
c. follow the two-step method for writing your story in up to 500 words
d. send your story to the commissioners using the bloc of their email addresses provided hereunder
e. encourage everybody else to do likewise by posting this article to social media, such as:
Facebook, Youtube, WhatsApp, LinkedIn, Instagram, Google plus, Pinterest, Reddit, Snapchat, and Twitter: Join the petition that the Biden Commission on Supreme Court reform hear publicly all stories of abuse by judges and report on how to hold them & judiciaries accountable & liable to compensation;

Dear Ms. .,

18. To learn more about the law and judges', read as much as you can in my three-volume study of judges and their judiciaries, the product of my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking. The study is titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting* † ♣

♣ Volume 3: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Honest_Jud_Advocates3.pdf >from OL3:1144-1688+

a. The study collects and discusses abundant evidence(OL:194§E) showing that judges ensure each other's unaccountability, which is also protected connivingly by the politicians who put them in office, and for whom they are 'our men and women on the bench'. As a result, judges engage in abuse of power risklessly for their gain and convenience individually and as a coordinated class.

b. Some of my articles have been posted to my website Judicial Discipline Reform at http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org. That site has attracted countless webvisitors and turned into subscribers 51,573 of them as of 19 June 2024.

36. With the skin of his hands

He caught the baseball with the skin of his hands! After he almost stumbled while running toward the ball and his baseball glove fell off his hand to the ground, but he managed to win back his footing, keeps running, and he hits the ball with his hands and it jumps up…but he manages to catch it…only to fall to the ground…he rolls on his back with his arms up and the ball in his hands. While the ball was still in play, he brings it to a stop by catching it with the skin of his hands.

In the stadium, the fans of both teams explode in amazement, cheering for him with wild abandon. They jump to the field and run toward him while he walks toward the pitcher's mound in disbelief, with his legs moving jerkily and his arms stretched out, holding the ball as if he could not realize that he just caught the ball with the skin of his hands.

With the wings of our imagination we fly
To worlds that are not in existence...yet
Those are the worlds that we will cause to be Because we flew up, and high, and far
Thanks to our persistence in beating all the time
The wings of our imagination

In this meeting, we shine the disinfecting light of the sun on one single issue:
judges' abuse of power.
Leave all your other issues here:

37. Figures of speech and technical terms

Steganography

Catachresis: use of the wrong word for the context; use of a forced and especially paradoxical figure of speech (such as blind mouths)

Aposiopesis: the leaving of a thought incomplete usually by a sudden breaking off (as in *his behavior was*but I blush to mention that*);

Apophasis =preterition= pretermission=paraleipsis; Apophasis is that occasion when a person indirectly asserts something that they profess to ignore or pass over—that is, the raising of an issue by claiming not to mention it. It is a rhetorical stunt;

Pretermit= to suspend indefinitely, sine dei; to leave undone; to let pass without mention or notice
Paronomasia: a play on words; pun

Paromologia: concede a weak point to gain credibility for intellectual honesty and thereby advance a stronger point

Pareidolia refers to the tendency to perceive a specific and often meaningful image in a random or ambiguous visual pattern.

do it in the plainest way;

circumambages= instances of indirectness or deviousness in speaking or writing; CIRCUMLOCUTIONS, circumambagious interlineations and parenthetical remarks; paromologia; sophisms; equivocation; tergiversation;

Wall Street Journal - 131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest

ABSTRACT
The judges failed to recuse themselves from 685 lawsuits from 2010 to 2018 involving firms in which they or their family held shares, a Wall Street Journal investigation found...Alerted to the violations by the Journal, 56 of the judges have directed court clerks to notify parties in 329 lawsuits that they should have recused themselves. That means new judges might be assigned, potentially upending rulings.

Re: A proposal to Thomson Reuters reporters for an investigation based onIf a former president can be held accountable, so can the members of a justice system because Nobody is above the law
Dear Thomson Reuters reporters Hassan Kanu, Jenna Greene, Blake Brittain, Alison Frankel, Mike Scarcella, Diana Novak, Karen Sloan, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

Using your story of abuse of power by judges to expose the refusal of the Biden Commission on Supreme Court reform to hear abusees; and to encourage students & journalists to hold UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS
Thanks for your email. I will be away and unplugged until Monday, Aug. 9.

Re: Proposal to support NBC's "the Cost of Denial" with a case in court that has persevered through 4 costly levels of administrative appeal that insurers abuse to kill claims

Proposal to support NBC's Nightly News segment
"the Cost of Denial of Healthcare Insurance Claims"
with a case that has persevered through the costly, legally too complex, and protracted four levels of healthcare insurance administrative appeal and is now on judicial appeal in the federal SDNY court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 2nd Circuit:

the opportunity for NBC
-in addition to dealing with one single insurance claim denial at a time
once every several weeks,
the reversal of which denial does not bind the insurer
with regard to any other claims, not even similar ones-
to help set a national judicial precedent for the benefit of the scores of millions of insureds abused by Medicare and other healthcare insurers,
who run a coordinated insurance fraud scheme
by committing upon medically needy, emotionally overwhelmed, and law-ignorant insureds claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.

Cordero v Medicare, et al: a test case in U.S. District Court to expose claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics

Re: Still pending since filed on 28oct22: M-23-3216 re e-filing and faxing the Supplemental brief M-23-2791 of Dr Richard Cordero, Esq, in his appeal to the Medicare Appeals Council M-23-386

See the excerpt thereof below.
http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/ALJ/23-8-28DrRCordero_class_action_v_Medicare.pdf

A call to Medicare Appeals Council to decide appeal M-23-386, filed on 28 October 20*22;*
and
to people who have been denied their rights by Medicare and related entities, to class action law firms, and to investigative journalists, to join forces to expose the abuse of power and cover-up affecting so many people who assert their rights as single party to their stand-alone case and even do so pro se (without a lawyer), and as a result, have barely any chance against the coordinated abuse of power of hospitals, medical practitioners, equipment and laboratory services providers, health insurance companies and health management organizations (HMOs) and their networks of services and equipment providers, the medical decisions reviewers, the administrative law judges, Medicare, Medicaid, and the Medicare Appeals Council, and their lawyers, all of whom coordinate their pursuit of their common interest in enlarging their network; denying claims of people to save money; and/or billing them for the balance of bills in excess of what the tables of medical costs allow, which constitutes the illegal practice of balance billing because it defeats the purpose of costs limited by health insurance♦; (OL3:1611) thus prompting the recent adoption by Congress of the No Surprise Bill Act, which so many entities with Medicare's condonation blatantly disregard in their interest and to the detriment of their patients and their insureds.

Proposal to support NBC's Nightly News segment
"the Cost of Denial of Healthcare Insurance Claims"
with a case that has persevered through
the costly, legally too complex, and protracted four levels of healthcare insurance administrative appeal and is now seeking judicial review in the federal SDNY court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 2nd Circuit:

the opportunity for NBC
-in addition to dealing with one single insurance claim denial at a time
once every several weeks,
the reversal of which denial does not bind the insurer
with regard to any other claims, not even similar ones-
to help set a national judicial precedent
for the benefit of the scores of millions of insureds abused by Medicare and other healthcare insurers,
who run a coordinated insurance fraud scheme
by committing upon
medically needy, emotionally overwhelmed, and law-ignorant insureds claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.

and

Proposal to Thomson Reuters, journalists, lawyers, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries for the business development of a law website that has 60,664 subscribers;
and
a joint venture to support a federal case in the interest of 67.3 million Medicare insureds abused by claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics at a time when the case of Luigi Mangione and the end of subsidies for healthcare insurance premiums have focused public attention on Medicare and other healthcare insurers due to the ever-growing unaffordability of their coverage and the inaccessibility of services denied as the modus operandi of the healthcare insurance fraud scheme of a racketeering organization

Sam Beard, the spokesperson for the December 4th Legal Committee responsible for the fundraiser for Luigi Mangione, made the comments during an upcoming series on the "Law & Crime" podcast, which is set to air Monday, according to reporting from The Guardian.

The fatal shooting took place outside the Hilton Midtown hotel where UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson was set to attend an annual investors meeting. For the walk Mangione was dressed in an orange prison jumpsuit

TR addresses:
Ricardo. Panlilio, Jr, Business Development Representative

Thu, 25dec25. In a survey sent by Aaron Rademacher:

> I hold a Ph.D. in law and am a former researcher-writer for Thomson's Lawyers Cooperative Publishing. I have sent Mr. Rademacher and more that 30 of his colleagues -e.g., Antoniette.Tuazon@thomsonreuters.com, Ricardo.PanlilioJr@thomsonreuters.com, Aaron.rademacher@thomsonreuters.com, my proposal for the further business development of my law website at www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org, which had 60,586+. The proposal is at http://judicial-discipline-reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Reuters_business_development_proposal.pdf. I have not heard from any of them.
> How is it possible that the Business Development Department is not interested in a business development proposal with a proven track record?

Moreover, my case on the very topical issue of Medicare unaffordability and services arbitrarily denied is being prosecuted at the federal district court for the Southern District of NY (SDNY), dkt. no. 24-0978-JAV, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, dkt. no, 25-1621. I am positioning it as a test case in the public interest of the 67.3 million Medicare insureds, who are abused by claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.
We can jointly attract national attention with this case simultaneously with the trial of Luigi Mangione in SDNY for allegedly killing the CEO, Brian Thompson, of UnitedHealthcare, which is estimated to deny 1/3 of all claims of its insureds. See my proposal to Mangione's lawyer, Karen Friedman Agnifilo, Esq, http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/25-11-28DrRCordero-KAgnifiloEsq_ProfMGardner.pdf http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/25-11-28DrRCordero-KAgnifiloEsq_ProfMGardner.pdf.

Former NYPD Interim Commissioner Thomas Donlon filed a $10 million notice of intent to sue the city, alleging Mayor Adams and former NYPD spokesman Tarik Sheppard slandered him when they claimed without providing evidence Donlon was removed from the post because he was "mentally not fit," a copy of the claim shows.

Donlon was appointed interim police commissioner Sept. 13 after Edward Caban's phones were seized and he was forced to resign in the midst of the then-mushrooming federal investigation into corruption in the Adams administration.

Dear Drop Site News Sharif Abdel Kouddous and journalist Kavitha Chekuru and

I read with interest your article "Columbia students just sued the university for attacks on pro-Palestine activism" in a Drop Site News email of 3 February 2025.
The students are represented by James Carlson, Esq.
"Following a months-long convoluted, and often intimidating, disciplinary process, the university suspended two of the students, Aidan Parisi and Brandon Murphy, for one year, and the third student, Catherine Curran-Groome, for two years."

Curran-Groome came to Columbia's prestigious School of International and Public Affairs (SIPA)
"If they were actually truly committed to a good faith investigation, then they wouldn't have threatened us with our lives and our livelihoods."

Dear Professor Bertrand Lemennicier and Professor Nikolai G. Wenzel,

Thank you for your article posted to Academia The Judge and His Hangman: Judicial Selection and the Accountability of Judges".

Kindly find below an article written by me as part of my three-volume study* † ♣ of judges and their judiciaries, which is titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and

Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy* † ♣

♣ http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Honest_Jud_Advocates3.pdf

Some of my articles are posted to my website at http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org. They have attracted so many webvisitor and impressed them so positively that as of 5 December 2024, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 52,669.

Those subscribers are the initial base for articles like your, others posted to Academia, and mine to have a practical impact on our judicial systems. How that is possible is laid out in the article hereunder.

I respectfully submit it to your consideration so that we can join forces in order to expose unaccountable judges' riskless abuse of power; demand collective compensation for abusees; and launch a process of transformative judicial reform that holds judges to be public servants accountable and liable to their masters in a democracy: We the People.

The article may be truncated by this inline email form if it exceeds its size limit. Consequently, I make it downloadable through its link below. You can share and post both the article and its link to attract others to join us:
http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-blurbs_abstracts_class_action_cases.pdf

I offer to make a presentation on this proposal to you and your guests via video conference.

Therefore, I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Democratic National Committee officers,

I have written and sent many emails to you to show what I have to offer you. The latest was titled and downloadable thus:

Responding to Candidate Trump's profanity, vulgarity, and violence by resorting to objective talking points and strategy capable of disturbing him so much as to become the Democrats' October Surprise
http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Democrats_October_Surprise.pdf

I respectfully suggest that you consider the email below and realize how much you would be praised by the national public if you were to pursue with me any of the cases described below and thereby benefit so many people who have suffered or are suffering abuse of power by public officers.

I bring something of value to you...and me too. Let's meet either via video conference or in person so that I can make a presentation on how we can work together on behalf of the party, the national public, and each other.

125. School deans:

[6] a. Representative journalism is a proposed new form of journalism. It begins with the investigation of a story -such as those abstracted in endnote [3] supra- by one or more journalists. They may bring in a multidisciplinary team of experts as needed, e.g., FFA, IT/AI, statisticians([3]d). When they realize that the story affects a large number of people who individually cannot protect their own interests, thus falling prey to big unaccountable abusive entities, they form ad hoc teams of experienced attorneys to represent them in and out of court.
b. Proceeding jointly, for instance, as 'a partnership limited to a specific case', they will file class and non-class aggregate actions and, if strategically advisable, engage in multidistrict litigation. They may file civil RICO and enterprise corruption counts([3]d.4 supra); and lobby on the abusees' behalf in Congress, and state and local law-making bodies for official investigations, legislation, and law enforcement to hold abusers accountable and liable.
c. Representative journalists will grow their readership and revenue by informing the public and taking practical actions, e.g., on information gained from citizens hearings and academic and other experts. They may come to do business as an established entity; develop a team formation and management consulting service; and even a franchise by location or specialty.

Her husband, Dean Sallas, filed a motion to dismiss alleging that the Bank violated 755 ILCS 5/11a-22 by leading his wife Amy to enter into a loan contract where their home was the collateral although the Bank knew that Amy was mentally disable and as such incompetent to enter into a binding contract. Thereby, the contract is void and unenforceable against her and her estate. He also moved to refer the case to law enforcement.

Byline Bank filed a motion for summary judgment.

(755 ILCS 5/11a-22) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 11a-22)
Sec. 11a-22. Trade and contracts with a person with a disability.
(a) Anyone who by trading with, bartering, gaming or any other device, wrongfully possesses himself of any property of a person known to be a person with a disability commits a Class A misdemeanor.

(b) Every note, bill, bond or other contract by any person for whom a plenary guardian has been appointed or who is adjudged to be unable to so contract is void as against that person and his estate, but a person making a contract with the person so adjudged is bound thereby.

NOTE: The text and format of this email were checked painstakingly until they were correct before sending it. Yet, I have learned that the email received was garbled. If what you received is garbled too, please let me know and download through the link below, and read without being confused, its pdf version.

Everybody who receives a garbled email has an interest in finding out how it came to be garbled. Recipients of an intentionally garbled email as well as those who do not receive it at all have a cause of action as individuals and as members of a class against the garbling person or entity for interception of an electronic communication, illegal under Title 18 of the U.S. Code, section 2511 (18 U.S.C. §2511), and the First Amendment to the Constitution, which guarantees 'freedom of speech, of the press, and of assembly [on the Internet and social media too] to petition the government for a redress of grievances [which includes redress by compensation, i.e., compensatory and punitive damages].

How you can benefit by exposing attorney general designate Judge Merrick Garland's cover-up of judges' interception of people's emails and mail; financial fraud; dismissal of 100% of complaints against him and his fellow judges; etc.; and demanding from President Biden the release of the FBI's secret judicial vetting reports as he forms his bipartisan commission to reform the system of justice

Setting in motion a generalized media investigation into the judiciary as the prerequisite to any reform

What you get for free and can drop at no cost is not appreciated…and I am unceremoniously left standing on the cold sidewalk holding the bags of upaid bills for my effort, expertise, and time. I will not expose myself to be taken in once more.

You can consult with me or have me do law research and writing and strategic thinking by paying in advance a retainer of between $5,000 to $7,500, depending on the nature and complexity of the work, from which I deduct my attorney's fee at the rate of $350 per hour as well as all necessary and incidental expenses.

Abstract: This is a short article. It is intended for the largest number of recipients to read it…and then take action collectively: It proposes the holding of the first national conference on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse of power so that it turns the issue into a key one of the primaries and the general elections campaigns at the federal and state levels in 2024. That is how change in the judicial system can be brought about.

Re: A proposal for advocates of public accountability, compensation, and reform to join forces to expose abuse of power

NOTE: I would be grateful if you would acknowledge receipt of this email.
You are encouraged to share and post it to social media as widely as possible in your own interest and that of the rest of We the People; e.g., just open each email one at a time and click "Reply All" and "Send". Each email has a different set of email addresses in its To: and cc: boxes.

Dear Ms. Kerrigan and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

Thank you for your kind words.

Join the effort to expose the abuse of power by sharing the articles that you receive from me: Open each one separately, and click "Reply All" and "Send". Even if my emails have the same text in the Subject line, each has a different set of email addresses in its "To;" and "cc:" boxes.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Ms. Patton, Ms. Bennett, Ms. Martino, Ms. Clari, Att. Pate, Mr. Dan, Ms. Davinci, Att. Vickers, Mr. Bernacchi, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

1. Thank you for your emails acknowledging receipt of my article and for your messages recorded on my answering machine.

2. I welcome all your comments and suggestions.

3. That is especially the case when they point to concrete, realistic, and feasible action that we can take by joining forces to expose abuse of power by:

    a. judges' participating in the fabrication of indictments based on false and insufficient evidence; and

    b. Medicare and its healthcare insurers' coordinating their practice or condonation of claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.

4. I have developed a proposal for joining forces. Its salient points are the following:

    a. the distribution of my articles, which have proven to appeal to readers so that as of 16 June 2025 those webvisitors to my website Judicial Discipline Reform who read them there were so positively impressed that the number of those who subscribed was 56,861;

    b. the development of those subscribers and like-minded people into a civic, apolitical, non-denominational, inclusive, national movement that becomes so vocal and active as to cause principled and opportunistic politicians to endorse our work and use our evidence in the fast-approaching primary campaign for the next mid-term elections.;

    c. the holding of the proposed UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.

They are aimed at convincing universities, such as Harvard, and media outlets, such as NBC, to hold them in their auditoriums and media stations, as described below;

d. a determined effort to join forces with entities that have shown their capacity and know-how to mobilize an outraged public, such as:

1) the "Fifty protests. Fifty state. One movement" at https://www.fiftyfifty.one/ and organizers@fiftyfifty.one, press@fiftyfifty.one; and

2) the No Kings Protest, one of whose key organizers is Ms. Lisa Gilbert of Public Citizen.

5. Politicians cannot arrest judges, just as they cannot arrest anybody else. Only law enforcement officers, such as district and U.S. attorneys, that is, prosecutors, can arrest people; and judges are the ones to sign off on arrest warrants. Before any arrest is executed, prosecutors need to investigate judges to find probable cause to believe that they have committed an offense. Thereafter they must present it to a grand jury and obtain an indictment.

a. But prosecutors are most reluctant to even investigate judges, for the moment other judges learn that one of their own is being investigated, they close ranks and retaliate. They:

1) deny every motion from anybody in the prosecutor's office;
2) cause court clerks to alter key dates on the docket;

3) tissue evidentiary rulings that exclude the prosecutors' evidence and admit any evidence introduced by defendants; etc.

b. Prosecutors are elected officers. If they can show voters nothing but a string of cases dismissed or lost, they know that they are doomed to be voted out of office for being ineffectual or incompetent. Their survival in office is their top priority.

6. Consequently, the proposed strategy is to proceed in a realistic and indirect way: We want as many people as possible to tell in person or via video conference a national public their story of abuse by judges, prosecutors, healthcare insurers, and other public officers who are derelict in their duty to supervise and control the conduct of the powerful. Those stories will reveal patterns, schemes, and trends of coordinated abuse of power among public officers.

7. The purpose is to let those stories inform and outrage the national public. Only an informed and outraged public can force politicians to take action against the abusers. The public is at its strongest when the politicians need its donations, volunteer work, and word of mouth support to run their election or reelection campaigns.

8. There is a lot of work to do. It begins with informing ourselves and strategizing. Therefore, I respectfully encourage you to read the sample below of articles that I have written in an effort to join forces with others. After you have read them, you will be in a much better position to comment on them and further our own effort to join forces. Download them through the following embedded links:

    a. Fabricated indictments:

    b. Healthcare insurers' claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics

    c. My pending case in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York; docket no. 24-civ-09778-JAV

I look forward to hearing from you.

I suggest that you join us in trying to create a movement of Advocates of Honest Judiciaries so that we can persuade academe and the media to hold the proposed unprecedented citizens hearings, described below.

House Judiciary Committee ranking member Jerry Nadler is protected by congressional discretion, the equivalent of prosecutorial discretion. Moreover, even a successful suit against him will do absolutely nothing to change the judicial system as a whole. What is more, he has announced that he will step down from his position.

I keep sending you my emails, but do you ever actually read them? Do you understand the strategic thinking behind them?

At least, you could join the effort to distribute my articles with its concrete, realistic, and feasible proposals. Just open each of my emails one at a time, click "Reply All" and "Send". It takes less than eight seconds per email. Each email has a different set of email addresses in its To: and cc: boxes.

Thank you for acknowledging receipt of my email.

We need to inform the public about, and outrage it at, judges' abuse of power. So, we need the email and article to go viral.

To that end, I encourage you to forward it to the blocs of email addressees provided hereunder, for those addressees can multiply our effort by forwarding it too or publishing the accompanying article.

Encourage others to do likewise.

I offer to present to you and your guests my Medicare case, the indictment fabrication and its cover-up; and the strategy for abuse of power exposure that can lead to a scoop.

Only those who take action are the ones who bring about change.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

"From a mobile home, to Yale University, to Georgetown Law, Jaime never forgot who he was or where he came from.

It's why he's running for U.S. Senate -- to be a fearless advocate for the American people, to unflinchingly hold special interests accountable, and to prove that America's best days are ahead of us."

Dear Ms. Pressley and WFP Officers,

Thank you for your email.

I encourage you and your colleagues to read and discuss the below article so that you realize how it ties in with Sen. Warren's courageousplan" to hold judges accountable for failing to declare their financial conflicts of interests when they own shares in parties before them and instead resolving those conflicts in their own interest, regardless of the harm to the other parties and the rest of the public at large.

As discussed below, there are other causes for so many people to be dissatisfied with, and even outraged at, judges' riskless abuse of power. These causes have given rise to the emergence of the huge leaderless untapped voting bloc of The Dissatisfied with the Judicial and Legal System.

The following article explains how Sen. Warren can be the first to tap that bloc, earn their support, and become their leader. The Dissatisfied can make the difference in her favor when votes are tallied in the Iowa caucus, the New Hampshire primary, and the rest of the campaign.

Thus, you and your colleagues can help Sen. Warren decisively by bringing the article to her attention. To show the concrete, reasonable, and feasible ways in which you and she can benefit from it, I offer to present it via video conference or in person, followed by a Q&A session.

Therefore, I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

1026.How judges are the most powerful officers

Donald (Don) McGahn served as White House Counsel for President Trump from the day of Trump's inauguration. Congress asked him to come in to testify on matters concerning the President. But he refused.

In fact, Mr. McGahn held Congress at bay for two years. It was only at the beginning of June 2021, that he agreed to testify before the Senate Judicial Committee, and that only behind closed doors.

By contrast, when a single judge issues an order for a person to appear in court and testify, disregarding the order would amount to contempt of court and could cause the judge to issue a bench warrant for the marshalls to apprehend that person and hold him in custody until he is brought before the judge to answer her questions as well as those of counsel.

If that person refused to answer them other than by invoking the protection against self-incrimination guaranteed by the 5th Amendment, the judge could hold him again in contempt of court and remand him to custody until such time as he signified his willingness to answer the questions. It would be the judge who would determine the validity of the person's invocation of the 5th Amendment, which is not available when a witness simply wants to protect a friend.

If Congress had issued a subpoena ordering Mr. McGahn to appear and testify, he could have challenged it in district court, whose decision could be in turn appealed to the court of appeal, from whose decision an appeal could be taken to the Supreme Court. Meantime, Congress would have been kept waiting, possibly for years, for a final decision and the appearance of Mr. McGahn to testify.

This illustrates how a single judge is more powerful than the whole of Congress. If this is what a single judge can do, can you imagine what a Judiciary can, whose judges close ranks whenever any one of them is alleged to have been attacked?

Indeed, judges and their judiciary are the most powerful officers and branch in our country. This explains why they abuse their power: Their abuse is riskless since they are the ones who decide how to deal with any attack against a fellow judge. So, they hold themselves unaccountable.

1045. Comments on Ashampoo PDF 3

1. It is not backward compatible: Word documents converted into pdf files with Ashampoo will not be opened with Adobe Acrobat 9, because a window appears statingThere was an error opening this document. An updated version of Acrobat is needed in order to open this document".
2. There is no drag and drop of pages from one document to another
3. There is no dragging over more than one thumbnail to select to select the corresponding page. An operation has to be executed on each page individually or…
4. Moving, copying, and deleting pages by reference to their page numbers is exceedingly cumbersome, especially by comparison to Adobe Acrobat drag and do function
5. JPG files cannot be inserted in an Ashampoo file. Creating a Portfolio is by no means the same as simply adding a JPG file to the current file.
6. Files in a folder cannot be combined into a single file -known as a 'binder' in Adobe Acrobat- by simply dragging over them or selecting the select box and dragging into the box representing the new single file.
7. The labels of thumbnails cannot be change
8. The numbering of pages is automatic and cannot be set as needed.
9. The destination of a bookmark cannot be changed. Hence, clicking on a bookmark does not call up a corresponding page.
10. Thumbnails cannot be arranged in more than one column.
11. Clicking on the link contained in a bookmark does not open the corresponding file.
12. A word cannot be selected to turn it into a link to another place within the same file, let alone to download the corresponding file from the Internet.
13. The Bates numbering is very cumbersome, especially compared to that of Adobe Acrobat.
14. The Page labels function is anything but intuitive; it does not work.
15. Long in straight bookmarks cannot be wrapped into a bloc to make them easily visible

16. There are no contextual menus, which appear with a mouse click to provide a collection of commands that facilitate considerably taking action at the point where the cursor is;
17. Ashampoo is by no means as intuitive as Adobe Acrobat.
18. After converting a Word document to an Ashampoo pdf, a message window states 'that a program could not be found to open the file'.
19. Worse yet: One is reasonably allowed to expect that if a program B is described as 100% compatible with program A, the former will duplicate very closely the features of the latter, thereby sparing the user the need to find out by trial and error a new set of commands and their location to perform the actions that one is accustomed to performing in program A. That is not the case of Ashampoo relative to Adobe Acrobat. As a result, the learning curve is steep and climbing it is frustrating.
20. Etc., etc., etc.

It follows that the statement that 'Ashampoo is 100% compatible with Adobe Acrobat' is grossly misleading.

Therefore, I am hereby claiming on your offer of a 100% refund if one is not satisfied with Ashampoo. I am certainly not.

Sincerely,

A trial judge hasalmost unfettered discretion" on how to manage the trial courtroom, per Politico. This operative authority includes setting the trial date and determining how quickly it proceeds, scheduling deadlines, hearing arguments and entering rulings.

The date that matters is the deadline for pre-trial motions and motions in limine (to exclude arguments/evidence at trial).

A document should be turned over to the opposing party during reciprocal discovery; otherwise, its introduction at trial is unethical and constitutes unfair surprise. But the judge may admit the document if such introduction does not have a prejudicial effect on the opposing party.

Congress has eliminated courts in the past. In 1913, for example, Congress abolished the Commerce Court and its judges were redistributed to the federal appeals court, according to Congress.gov. 1050. Defamation

"Defendants concocted this story to malign President Trump's character and integrity and deceptively portray him in a false light,"

11th Circuit judges jointly stated, "We agree that Trump did not adequately plead falsity." They added, "Trump has not adequately alleged the falsity of CNN's statements. Therefore, he has failed to state a defamation claim."

U.S. District Judge Raag Singhal ruled CNN's "Big Lie" description was rhetorical, not factual, and did not imply criminal conduct.

The appellate panel agreed, finding Trump did not show falsity or actual malice needed for defamation. Trump has argued that CNN's "Big Lie" phrasing likened him to Hitler and Nazi propaganda.

Trump legal team stated, "As a part of its concerted effort to tilt the political balance to the Left, CNN has tried to taint the Plaintiff with a series of evermore scandalous, false, and defamatory labels of 'racist,' 'Russian lackey,' 'insurrectionist,' and ultimately 'Hitler'."

Trump legal team added, "These labels are neither hyperbolic nor opinion: these are repeatedly reported as true fact, with purported factual support, by allegedly 'reputable' newscasters, acting not merely with reckless disregard for the truth of their statements (sufficient to meet the definition of the legal standard for 'actual malice') but acting with real animosity for the Plaintiff and seeking to cause him true harm (the way 'actual malice' commonly is understood)."

Did the briefer read the Federal Rules of Procedure and/or their state counterparts, or the Rules of the Supreme Court, never mind the rules of the court where he filed his briefs(e.g., a federal court; a state court) and even the rules of the state chief administrative judge(e.g.), before writing them, let alone giving his briefs those names? The latter reveal to the court even before opening those files that the briefs were written by a pro se lacking knowledge of the law. That revelation makes it most unlikely that any judge will ever read those briefs. This is all the more so in light of the mathematical demonstration that judges do not read the overwhelming majority of briefs submitted to them, even those written by lawyers(OL2:457§D). Most briefs are disposed of by the clerks, who do so perfunctorily for the whole point of judges having cases disposed of by their clerks is to get rid of cases that the judges do not deem worthy of their attention. Consequently, judges do not care if the clerks dispose of cases in disregard of the facts and the law so long as the clerks free the judges of those cases. This allows the clerks to get rid of cases by rubberstamping the name of the clerk of court on forms that do not discuss either the law or the facts of the cases. They dumping forms.

a clause has its own subject and verb, while a phrase does not
A colon can also introduce something that acts as an appositive.
(Reminder: An appositive is a noun or noun phrase that refers to the same thing as another noun or noun phrase in the same sentence, and is usually right next to that other noun or noun phrase, like in my neighbor the doctor." The two nouns/noun phrases—in this case my neighbor" and the doctor"—are said to stand in grammatical apposition," which means that they have the same syntactical relation to the rest of the sentence.) The appositive that follows the colon can be an amplifying word, phrase, or clause.

Her response is unknown, which is just as well: the fact is that we've got nothing more to say about colon use in prose.
Comma splice:
A comma splice is the joining of two independent clauses with a comma, e.g. The hat does not fit, it's too tight." Comma splices are a subspecies of run-on sentence; a run-on sentence is when two independent clauses are joined without the correct conjunction or punctuation.

Series remains singular in this construction, but just like with other group nouns (such as gang or family), any verb that comes after the phrase a series of" will sometimes be conjugated to agree with the plural noun that follows of, rather than series, due to notional agreement; the plural form of series is what is known to grammarians as a zero plural. He so advised the court by letter;

Attributive nouns do not have comparative forms as adjective do. They cannot be used in a predicative position after a copulative or linking verb such as be or seem.
The attributive noun functions as a modifier.
If a noun+noun have a secondary meaning, it is not entered as a separate entry.
The attributive noun comes closest to the noun that it modifies. It is not separated from the modified noun by a comma.
Functional label: attributive noun

Nominalized adjectives behave like nouns. They are preceded by the definite article or by the possessive adjective; give me your tired. It can govern a verb: The old need assistance. Bring your crazy to the stage. It can have a plural form: The crazies came around. a fiery speech live in bomb shelters and basements; enigma machine= the cipher device employed by Nazi Germany during World War II to mask the Third Reich's secret communications, a code ultimately unraveled by the Allies, constituting a major intelligence advantage; officials have been reticent in speaking publicly; innocuous; hesitance to do that;

Fast and loose - in a reckless or irresponsible manner (or in a craftily deceitful way); The word awhile is an adverb meaning for a while." worth your while; 'Awhile' is typically used to modify a verb: I'm going to sit and read awhile."; to wait awhile; adverbial noun phrases: Can you stay a week? Can you stay a few minutes longer? Can you stay a little while longer? you can use a rule of thumb based on the consensus of the handbooks: use a while after a preposition and before ago or back, and use awhile in other places. You can also substitute the phrasefor a while" for the one-word form in your context to help you decide.
Everyday, one word, is an adjective meaningused or seen daily," or ordinary."The phone calls were an everyday occurrence." Every day, two words, is an adverb phrase meaningdaily" orevery weekday. "They go to the coffee shop every day." One trick to remember which is which is to see if you can put another word betweenevery" andday," as in every single day." If you can, you want the two-word adverb.

He sought to harness the power of collaboration and collective effort; creating managerial policy for the Judiciary; an arcane issue; he was prescient in recognizing the need; remove grounds for just criticism of our system;
Past is a very busy word. It's an adjective inthinking of past times"; a noun inthe distant past"; a preposition injust past the post office"; and an adverb inwalking past."

Passed is also busy, but its role is much more limited: it's only ever a form of the verb pass, as inWe passed the library on our way here" and The law hasn't been passed yet."
I will drive past the park.
I will pass the park on my drive.
Past remains unchanged, but passed changes to will pass.
The kids will both pass out in front of the TV.
By putting a sentence in the future tense you can see which you want.
I will drive past your house," and you find that past remains the same.
ChangeI passed your house" toI will pass your house," and you find that passed becomes will pass.

> "We're [in the online amateur sleuth community] pretty apathetic towards that," Savannah Sparks, who has 1.3 million followers on her TikTok account — where she tracks down and reveals the identities of people who do racist or seemingly criminal acts in viral videos — said about helping to identify the shooter

Another popular TikTok sleuth, thatdaneshguy, who has 2 million followers on the platform, made a video that was critical of the health care industry, saying that he wouldn't try to identify the killer.I don't have to encourage violence. I don't have to condone violence by any means. But I also don't have to help," he said.

A Gallup poll released Friday found that Americans believe health care quality is at a 24-year low. Those polled said health care coverage is even worse, with 54% saying it's fair or poor.

McWhorter, or TikTok's TizzyEnt, said backlash toward those who did try to help might cause others to not want to step in.

A fake bomb threat targeting the Minnesota home of Brian Thompson was sent in hours after the UnitedHealthcare CEO was shot dead in Midtown Manhattan.

Police later found three 9mm shell casings and live rounds at the crime scene. The words "Delay,"Deny," andDefend" were etched onto the bullets, according to Daily News police sources. It's suspected the eerie messages referenced insurance industry practices of delaying claims and maximizing profits.

Intrusive thoughts;

Researchers told the Washington Post that there are three theories why people with hearing loss might suffer from cognitive decline. First, it takes a lot of brain power to understand others when you're struggling to hear. This leaves less energy to process the information. Second, the part of the brain responsible for hearing begins to shrink when it's not receiving information. This could subsequently affect other parts of the brain. The third theory hypothesizes that people may withdraw from socializing. The rationale is that someone may not feel comfortable talking with others when it's difficult to hear them. Consequently, the mind becomes less stimulated by the lack of socialization. https://www.msn.com/en-us/health/health-news/the-unexpected-piece-of-technology-that-can-reduce-dementia-risk/ar-AA1fduAw?cvid=49f1b2f0a7294f2dbb7fab151b5c37d6&ocid=winp2fptaskbarhover&ei=14 ; Read the original article on Health Digest

Dear Mr. Carlson
Business Insider reporters Schwartz Newsham and Long journalists and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries

How Tucker Carlson can regain his status by leading the investigation into cases that can outrage the national public.

This is a proposal for Tucker Carlson to regain his credibility and earn the attention of an enlarged audience by telling people not what they wanted to hear but rather what they did not know: leading the investigation of cases affecting the self-interest of millions of people the national public.

Tucker Carlson can balance the investigation into financial wrongdoing of Republican-appointed justices with the investigation of Democratic-appointed Justice Sonia Sotomayor and the two senators that recommended her nomination and guided her confirmation through the Senate
then-Senator and now-Senate Majority Leader Chuck Shumer and then-and-still-now Senator Kirsten Gillibrand

The willfulness of financial wrongdoing can be established by application of the principlepeople deemed to intend the reasonable consequences of their acts". This is a rule of reason. So is another one that constitutes a pilar of criminal law: the admissibility in a criminal case of circumstantial evidence.

But even before a criminal case gets underway in a courtroom another rule is applied before a judge arraigning a defendant
to wit
probable cause to believe that the defendant committed the crimes with which he/she was charged". Prosecutors invoke that rule before they have even complete the phase of discovery and mandatory disclosure of evidence. But even though at that preliminary stage a prosecutor is in a position to present cause to charge that is only probable if the arraigning judge accepts thatprobable cause" the defendant can be remanded to jail or be required to post bail which upon failure to post it the defendant is remanded to jail until the trial results in his acquittal.

The purpose of this article is pragmatic and strategically pragmatic
to wit
to provide the readers concrete ideas for using in support of your cases filed or to be filed in courts events in the Supreme Court and lower court with which the national public has been familiarized and judges can be held capable of taking judicial notice. Here are some examples:

The Adult Survivor Act

The failure of the justices to dissociate themselves never mind condemn not even criticize the conduct of Justice Clarence Thomas.
By failing to report the sale of his mother's house to billionaire Harlan Crow while allowing his mother to continue living in the home
J. Thomas and his mother reaped the financial benefit of not having to pay annual property tax…and that at the higher rate that took into account the improvements to the home paid for by Mr. Crow which increased the value of the property.

Due process has as one of its pilar the right of every party to has their controversy heard and decided by a fair and impartial tribunal. The Supreme Court can no longer be deemed to be such because its members are preoccupied in self-interest not to be found out as having failed to abide by their duty to file mandatory financial disclosure reports under the Ethics in Government Act
5 U.S.C. §13106.

Dear Mr. Vukadinovich

I would like to propose to you how we can join forces to cause self-interested media and academe to expose judges' & their judiciaries' abuse of power outrage the public so that opportunistic politicians investigate them making the issue electorally key & we bring a class action for compensation of abusees.

I can present the proposal via Zoom to you and your guests.

Some of my articles have been posted to my website Judicial Discipline Reform. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 19 June 2024, they had turned into subscribers 51,573 of them.

Many of my articles are collected in my three-volume study titled:

> If there is nothing in it for journalists, they are not going to investigate a story that is of interest to you. What interests to them is conduct that reflects on the conduct on judges, not on their decision in one single, personal, local case. Evidence of what interests journalists is here for everyone to see: unethical and illegal conduct of the justices of the Supreme Court that detracts from their integrity and impairs the Court's transparency and credibility. When they show that they do not apply the rule of law and ethical principles to themselves, there is no basis for trusting them to apply the rule of law to others. That affects the journalists' audience, namely, the national public. Consequently, it interests journalists.

Kindly see below a description of what I am currently working on. It adequately represents the level of the professional research and writing, and strategic thinking that I bring to the table for Cogent's and your clients' benefit.

Moreover, the cases that I describe below will give you an idea of how the joining of forces of Cogent/your clients and me to further prosecute them as class actions opens a promising opportunity not only to make money, but also to make a nationally recognized name by attracting a large number of class members at the most propitious time:

when the daily revelations by the media of unethical and illegal conduct by the justices of the Supreme Court have persuaded an ever growing segment of the national public that lower court judges, federal and state alike, have engaged under the justices' cover in similar unethical and illegal conduct. That is the same state of mind of the jury pool.

Whether as class members or members of the jury, they will have the opportunity through those class actions to demand from judges and their judiciaries accountability and compensation.
Therefore, after you have read the material hereunder and discussed it with your colleagues, we can have a phone or Zoom conference to discuss both your offer and my counteroffer.

NY Judge Arthur Engoron also gave each defendant a deadline of Monday, May 15, to submit a compliance affidavit to confirm to the court they had complied with their legal obligations to hand over the requested information under the discovery process, which includes every email address, telephone number or other electronic account used for communications concerning the business of the Trump Organization. The discovery and compliance affidavit are common processes of any lawsuit.

1103.NY Rules of Professional Conduct

Rule 8.3: Reporting Professional Conduct

Comment:

[1] Self-regulation of the legal profession requires that members of the profession initiate disciplinary investigation when they know of a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Lawyers have a similar obligation to cooperate with authorities empowered to investigate judicial misconduct. An apparently isolated violation may indicate a pattern of misconduct that only a disciplinary investigation can uncover. Reporting a violation is especially important where the victim is unlikely to discover the offense.

[2] A report about misconduct is not required where it would result in violation of Rule 1.6. However, a lawyer should encourage a client to consent to disclosure where prosecution would not substantially prejudice the client's interests.

[3] If a lawyer were obliged to report every violation of the Rules, the failure to report any violation would itself be a professional offense. Such a requirement existed in many jurisdictions, but proved to be unenforceable. This Rule limits the reporting obligation to those offenses that a self-regulating profession must vigorously endeavor to prevent. A measure of judgment is therefore required in complying with the provisions of this Rule. The term "substantial" refers to the seriousness of the possible offense and not the quantum of evidence of which the lawyer is aware. A report should be made to a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon the violation.

Rule 8.4: Misconduct

A lawyer or law firm shall not:

(a) violate or attempt to violate the Rules of Professional Conduct, knowingly assist or induce another to do so, or do so through the acts of another;

(b) engage in illegal conduct that adversely reflects on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer;

(c) engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation;

(d) engage in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice;

(e) state or imply an ability:

(1) to influence improperly or upon irrelevant grounds any tribunal, legislative body or public official; or

(2) to achieve results using means that violate these Rules or other law;

(f) knowingly assist a judge or judicial officer in conduct that is a violation of applicable rules of judicial conduct or other law;

(g) unlawfully discriminate in the practice of law,

Comment:

[2] Many kinds of illegal conduct reflect adversely on fitness to practice law. Illegal conduct involving violence, dishonesty, fraud, breach of trust, or serious interference with the administration of justice is illustrative of conduct that reflects adversely on fitness to practice law. A pattern of repeated offenses, even ones of minor significance when considered separately, can indicate indifference to legal obligation.

1106. On Trump

Trump's civil suit in Florida against NYS Attorney General Letitia James sought an unspecified amount in damages, according to reports. The 41-page lawsuit, which was filed at Florida State Circuit Court in Palm Beach, also aimed to block James from accessing documents from a Florida trust that partially owns the Trump Organization.
It was unsuccessful. In January, US District Judge Donald Middlebrooks ordered Trump and his lawyer Alina Habba to pay a joint $938,000 to defendants including Hillary Clinton in a separate case that he dismissed asfrivolous." (The pair reportedly appealed the fine, offering instead to post a $1.03 million bond.) Trump's lawsuit against James also landed before Middlebrooks, which could explain why the former president chosevoluntarily" to dismiss it shortly after he was hit with the Clinton fine.
Undeterred, Trump countersued Carroll for defamation, citing the jury's verdict that he sexually abused but didn't rape her as proof that she falsely accused him. Trump's lawyers, who were seeking unspecified punitive damages, said Carrollmade these false statements with actual malice and ill will with an intent to significantly and spitefully harm and attack" the ex-president. That legal avenue has now been closed, with Judge Lewis Kaplan ruling that Carroll's statements weresubstantially true," asserting that the jury in the civil case found Trump had raped Carrollas the term is understood more broadly." Carroll (pictured) first accused Trump of sexual assault in a 2019 New York Times article. She later described the assault – which she refers to as afight" – in her 2019 book What Do We Need Men For?: A Modest Proposal.
An upgraded lawsuit was filed on Carroll's behalf mere minutes after New York's new Adult Survivors Act was signed into law. The law enables survivors of sexual assault to file lawsuits against their attackers regardless of how long ago the assault occurred.

out the case in September 2022, said in his January ruling that the suits not only lacked substance and legal support," but were mainly used for the settling of scores and grievances."

The judge also criticized Habba, stating that no reasonable lawyer" should have brought the case against Clinton as its inadequacy as a legal claim was evident from the start."

When discussing taking on high-level cases, Tacopina said: I've had the knack of getting these cases that seem to be in the limelight and I've got to tell you I don't dislike it. I get a certain adrenaline rush knowing your every move is going to be evaluated. I like the high stakes."

Grossly excessive; high profile cases in the limelight because they have high stakes; under oath questioning; adrenaline; ;

"Why can invoking the Fifth Amendment be used against someone in a civil case but not in a criminal case?" said Rubin. First, let's look at the text of the amendment itself, which states that a person can't be 'compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself.' And in 1976, the Supreme Court observed that in criminal cases, 'the stakes are higher and the State's sole interest is to convict.' In that same case, the justices noted 'the prevailing rule that the Fifth Amendment does not forbid adverse inferences against parties to civil actions when they refuse to testify in response to probative evidence offered against them.'"

1107. Palpitations of Writing Hearts

Palpitations of Writing Hearts is the generic name of clubs for writers. It is the equivalent for people of all ages of sport clubs for athletes, choirs for singers, moot court for law students, science clubs for school students and amateur inventors, weight watchers and anonymous meetings for all sorts of people, etc. It meets as often as these associational groups meet. It is as curricular and extracurricular as they are. It is based on competition within each club and at the local, regional, and national level. Its teaching program includes:

1. grammar as the tool of the writing sport;

2. heartless criticism, where the harshest critics, the members themselves, help each other to improve by criticizing each other's writings as they reciprocally ask the risky questionDid you get my meaning?";

3. common theme development, the enhancer of comparative criticism by fostering personal variations on one theme;

4. style and flair, where the heart is taught to palpitate at an ever more imaginative and poetic rhythm;

5. forms of methodic thinking: learning to think as the first step to writing and criticizing one's own and other people's writing so that a meeting of the minds allows hearts to beat to the beat of understanding;

6. choosing your audience: from writing for children to writing technical manuals and political manifestos by adapting your writing to their understanding capabilities and knowledge needs.

The activities of Palpitations of Writing Hearts are as inspirational by bringing in new ideas about writing as they are liberating by bringing out a cry of what is dear to one's heart attuned to the ears and minds of the chosen audience.

The activities are also rewarding, for the contests at the various geographic levels allow writers to earn from local to national moral and material prizes, ranging from recognition of one's name to money, tuition, reading and book tours, unpaid and paid publishing and movie deals, etc.

The FTC alleged that the conspiracy was an unlawful horizontal agreement to restrict output that was inherently likely to harm competition and that had no countervailing efficiencies that would benefit consumers.
Other agreements among competitors that are not inherently harmful to consumers are examined under a flexible rule of reason" standard that attempts to determine their overall competitive effect.

The missing terms of the agreement are to be supplied by reasonable expectations and usage of trade or past performance of the parties, or the terms are supplied as a matter of law.
by
The FTC Act itself prohibits advertising that is false or deceptive; the restrictions have anticompetitive effects and lack reasonable business justifications; an unreasonable restraint on competition; to make sure that businesses are competing fairly within a set of rules; the market works according to consumer preferences, not anticompetitive practices

The antitrust laws aim to protect our system of free enterprise subject to the laws of offer and demand; practices in restraint of competition; it is illegal for businesses to act together in ways that can deprive consumers of important information about products they want to buy. Price fixing – companies getting together to set prices – is illegal; Many package deals" create efficiencies that are beneficial to consumers: for example, automobile dealers sell tires with their cars because it makes sense sometie-in" agreements are illegal because they restrict competition without providing benefits to consumers. For example, the antitrust laws likely would not permit a drug manufacturer to require customers to buy a patient monitoring system they don't want along with the prescription drugs they do want.

A monopoly exists when one company controls a product or service in a market. If a company gains a monopoly because it offers consumers a better product at a better price, that's not against the law.

1132.RICO and Enterprise Corruption

Bogus bills can be the predicate for a count of racketeering under the Enterprise Corruption Law, NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460, and the federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act(RICO; 18 USC §1961). Under the former, it is a felony to engage in a "pattern of criminal activity of a criminal enterprise of a group of persons sharing a common purpose". Under the latter(§1961(5)), a "pattern of racketeering activity [only] requires two acts of racketeering activity…occurring within ten years". One was issued to me. Through discovery, another one is bound to be found…and very likely hundreds more.

It is racketeering to engage in a pattern of issuing bills that claim a right to payment where such claim is false as the right is nonexistent.

Such racketeering is aggravated by the use of such bogus bills:

in balance billing, which is itself unlawful;

by an entity or person with a fiduciary duty to care for the medical needs of a patient but who breaches such duty of care ; and to deny any further appointment and dental treatment until the bill is paid, which constitutes denial of service regardless of medical necessity to extort payment under duress.

https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/laws/PEN/460.00 bringing racketeering counts in a civil suit under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations(18 U.S.C. §1961) can recover treble damages and attorneys' fees.

They can institute individual lawsuits as well as class and non-class aggregate actions to hold officers accountable for abuse of power, enterprise corruption, racketeering, conspiracy, breach of contract, deprivation of property, liberty, and civil rights under color of law, etc.; and liable for treble and punitive damages, and attorneys' fees.

Successful class actions with counts under RICO -Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act; 18 U.S.C. §§1961 to 1968- and their state counterparts -e.g., NY Enterprise Corruption- can lead to settlements of $10s of millions, the award of compensatory and punitive damages, treble damages, attorneys' fees, a significant reputational enhancement, a bestseller, a blockbuster movie, a tour of presentations, an influx of new clients, etc.

The Commission, as the principal, has stated by its assistants that my complaint would be and was presented to it. The dismissal is the Commission's decision. CJC predicated it on "false statements" to cover for judges, prosecutors, and NYPD officers. All of them have engaged in a "pattern of criminal activity of a criminal enterprise of a group of persons sharing a common purpose", a felony under the Enterprise Corruption Law, NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460, NY's version of the federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act(18 USC §1961).

As a result of their unaccountability, they have been able to form and operate a racketeering enterprise. Cf. Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO); 18 U.S.C. §§1961 to 1968; and Enterprise Corruption; NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460. There is a lot of money to be grabbed through racketeering.

"The Medicare Program [has] 65.0 million beneficiaries and total expenditures of $905 billion in 2022". It works with hundreds of health insurance and management organizations (HMOs), and medical services and equipment providers. All of them have common interests: pay the fewest claims and attract to, and maintain in their, networks the largest number of providers. To advance their interests they: n purpose and effect, whether implicitly or explicitly, for their gain and convenience, the coordinated public officers run a corrupt and racketeering enterprise. Thereby they violate the Enterprise Corruption Law, NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460; and the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), 18 U.S.C. §§1961 to 1968. They have committed:

There must be thousands of fabricated indictees in NY. They all have, just as I do, causes of action, including racketeering counts under RICO (18 U.S.C.§1961) and the Enterprise Corruption Law (NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460; https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/laws/PEN/ 460.00), against the tens of judges and other officers, e.g., on the Commission on Judicial Conduct, whom I have contacted. They have negligently as individuals and a coordinated organization failed their duty to investigate this matter and have covered it up. They have caused pain and suffering intentionally, for "People are deemed to intend the foreseeable consequences of their actions".

1133.Role of Supreme Court in American governance

How the Supreme Court dominates our democracy: Judicial review gives any five justices power over the whole government. Why?; Nikolas Bowie, assistant professor of law at Harvard Law School; The Washington Post; 18 July 2021;

https://na01.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.washingtonpost.com%2Foutlook%2F2021%2F07%2F16%2Fsupreme-court-anti-democracy%2F&data=04%7C01%7C%7C30eb9abc2abc48fdfa1e08d94a1cb77f%7C84df9e7fe9f640afb435aaaaaaaaaaaa%7C1%7C0%7C637622309462294561%7CUnknown%7CTWFpbGZsb3d8eyJWIjoiMC4wLjAwMDAiLCJQIjoiV2luMzIiLCJBTiI6Ik1haWwiLCJXVCI6Mn0%3D%7C1000&sdata=kzSzWNdvdQiGdHCrhLq58nILBZD5Wk8KEB8lkl5OKhs%3D&reserved=0https://www.washingtonpost.com/outlook/2021/07/16/supreme-court-anti-democracy/

it's the court's job to interpret the Constitution.It is emphatically the province and duty of the judicial department to say what the law is," Chief Justice John Marshall wrote in his famous 1803 opinion in Marbury v. Madison.The constitution controls any legislative act repugnant to it." But Marshall's emphatic response, as one critic put it,begged the question-in-chief, which was not whether an act repugnant to the Constitution could stand, but who should be empowered to decide that the act is repugnant."

The only honest answer is that the justices are supposed to be antidemocratic. As Justice Robert Jackson wrote in 1943,The very purpose of a Bill of Rights was to withdraw certain subjects from the vicissitudes of political controversy, to place them beyond the reach of majorities and officials and to establish them as legal principles to be applied by the courts." Other scholars have joined him in accepting thecountermajoritarian difficulty" of judicial review. This perspective concedes that judicial review is antidemocratic — yet necessary for democracy to function properly.

The history of judicial review of federal legislation shows that the principalminority" most often protected by the court is the wealthy. Wealthy litigants can muster the skills, time, money, influence and capacity to challenge the same legislation over and over in court. For example, in 1895's Pollock v. Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., the Supreme Court invalidated a century of precedent to hold that a federal income tax would violateone of the bulwarks of private rights and private property." And in 2010's Citizens United, the court threw out another century of federal campaign finance laws the court is, at best, no more reliable than Congress as a safeguard of political equality.

"the proper role for federal courts in a democracy is to serve as its agents, not as a countervailing force. Democratic decision-making belongs in the hands of democratic bodies, not people with robes or guns.";

The Supreme Court in a brief order on Wednesday, 28 feb24, indicated how it will approach the case by laying out precisely the legal question it will consider: Whether and if so to what extent does a former President enjoy presidential immunity from criminal prosecution for conduct alleged to involve official acts during his tenure in office."

"The record in this case reflects Mr. Giuliani's continued failure to meet his reporting obligations and provide the financial transparency required of a debtor in possession," Lane wrote in the decision. Forcing creditors to wait years while they are prevented from pursuing their rights for, at best, a modest distribution seems inequitable and ill-advised," Lane added.

The decision is a victory for Ruby Freeman and Shaye Moss, two Georgia election workers during the 2020 presidential election who won a $148 million judgment against the former New York City mayor for defamation and other claims after Giuliani spread false accusations about the two stemming from his unsubstantiated claims of election fraud.

millions more Giuliani could owe to voting technology companies Dominion Voting Systems and Smartmatic after he was ordered to pay Ruby Freeman and Shaye Moss a whopping $148 million for baselessly claiming they engaged in widespread voter fraud after the 2020 election. He could also owe millions of dollars in unresolved lawsuits, court filings show.

A New York state judge on Monday denied a motion to dismiss a lawsuit against several social media companies alleging the platforms contributed to the radicalization of a gunman who killed 10 people at a grocery store in Buffalo, New York in 2022, court documents show.

"The Court has determined the complaint sufficiently pleads viable causes of action to go forward at this stage of the litigation," said Erie County Supreme Court Justice Paula Feroleto.

"However, plaintiffs contend the defendants' platforms are more than just message boards," the court document says. They allege they are sophisticated products designed to be addictive to young users and they specifically directed Gendron to further platforms or postings that indoctrinated him with 'white replacement theory'," the decision read. "It is far too early to rule as a matter of law that the actions, or inaction, of the social media/internet defendants through their platforms require dismissal," said the judge.

Update: Gov. Cuomo's Executive Orders Tolled NY's Limitation Periods

August 4, 2021 | Benjamin J. Wisher | Commercial Litigation

1. In April 2020, in an article entitled,Coronavirus and Statutes of Limitations in New York: A Lingering Effect?", we discussed Governor Cuomo's Executive Order 202.8, issued in the first year of the Covid-19 pandemic. We opined that, based on its language, it served totoll," rather thansuspend," New York's limitation periods.[1]
2. On June 2, 2021, the Appellate Division, Second Department, issued a decision wherein the Court agreed with our opinion and held that the Executive Orders, in fact, tolled, as opposed to suspended, time limitations in New York.[2] The Brash decision follows the majority of New York's trial courts which held the same.[3] There appears to be only one New York trial court that has held otherwise, and treated the Executive Orders as suspending New York's statutes of limitations.[4] However, that decision was effectively overturned by the Brash decision.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina, at Asheville. William G. Young, United States District Judge for the District of Massachusetts, sitting by designation. (1:20-cv - 00066-WGY)

Background: Former employee of federal public defender's office brought action against United States, Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AO), and other government officials and entities associated with federal courts in their individual and official capacities, alleging violations of her due process and equal protection rights, conspiracy to violate civil rights, and neglect to prevent conspiracy to violate civil rights, all arising from AO's response under Fourth Circuit's employment dispute resolution (EDR) plan to employee's alleged sexual harassment by coworker. The United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina, William G. Young, J., sitting by designation, 510 F.Supp.3d 336, dismissed complaint. Employee appealed and filed motion to vacate district court's judgment or disqualify panel.
Holdings: The Court of Appeals, Briscoe, Senior Circuit Judge, sitting by designation, held that:
1 disqualification of Court of Appeals panel was not warranted;
2 employee had protected due process property interests that were created and defined by EDR plan;
3 employee failed to establish violation of her due process liberty interest in pursuing her chosen career;
4 employee pled plausible procedural due process claim;
5 employee pled plausible violation of her equal protection rights;
6 employee failed to establish conspiracy to interfere with her equal protection rights;
7 employee's claims for injunctive relief, declaratory relief, front pay, and back pay fell within scope of exception to sovereign immunity;
8 federal defender and federal defender's office were not subject to judicial review pursuant to Administrative Procedure Act (APA); and 9 Bivens claim for monetary damages was not available to employee.
Motion denied; affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded.

...As to the merits of Strickland's appeal, we conclude as follows:

(a) Strickland's Fifth Amendment due process claim adequately alleges the deprivation of cognizable property rights, but fails to adequately allege the deprivation of a cognizable liberty interest;

(b) Strickland's Fifth Amendment due process claim fails to adequately allege a facial challenge to the EDR Plan, but adequately alleges an as-applied challenge to the EDR Plan; (c) Strickland's Fifth Amendment equal protection claim adequately alleges that defendants violated her right to be free from sex discrimination; (d) Strickland's...

The case in Washington, separate from the ongoing criminal trial in New York, concerns Trump's involvement in a scheme to submit fake election certificates to Congress in the hope that it would nullify Joe Biden's victory, a chain of events that led to the Jan. 6 assault on the U.S. Capitol by Trump supporters.
Prosecutors led by special counsel Jack Smith say those acts constituted a series of crimes. Trump says he was merely expressing his concerns, which were not based on any evidence, that the election was plagued with fraud.

The four charges he faces are: conspiracy to defraud the United States, obstruction of an official proceeding, conspiracy to obstruct an official proceeding, and conspiracy to violate the right to vote and have one's vote counted.
The question of whether the obstruction charge can be used to prosecute people involved in the Jan. 6 riot is the subject of another Supreme Court case argued last week.

Medicare
the healthcare insurers their medical services and equipment providers and the other individual and institutional defendants have complicitly coordinated the development and implementation as their modus operandi of their abusive insurance claims evasion "delay deny defend" tactics.

Should a holder of a non-driver id card issued in 2018 apply for a REAL or Enhanced card? If so what are the additional benefits?

John Brown and his vocal assertion that the law was wrong that stated that Blacks were not people. He was hanged.
Evidence of motive may be introduced in evidence to weaken the presumption of innocence and strengthen the charge of guilt.
