Pro ses, lawyers, inmates, victims of unlawful foreclosures, evictions, guardianships, bankruptcies, and similar classes of people, realizing that they cannot force unaccountable judges to follow the law in court, can think strategically to expose their disregard for the law by becoming teachers of story writing and leaders promoting out of court UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS where all can tell their stories of judges' riskless abuse of power, thus informing and outraging the national public into forcing politicians to investigate judges and their judiciaries, compensate abusees, and reform the system of justice to make judges as accountable as any other person[‡]

A. Nobody can force judges to apply the law: unaccountable, they risklessly disregard it

1. You may write the best brief, motion, and application ever. Nonetheless, it will simply be added to the overwhelming majority of such writings that judges, including justices, do not even read, as shown by the math of pleadings/judges, and the official statistics\(OL2:457§D\) of the Federal Judiciary reported on in the Annual Report of the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts [federal, as opposed to state, courts], filed with Congress as a public document -the Director is appointed by the Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court(Title 28 of the U.S. Code of federal laws, sections 601-604(28usc§§601-604)-.
2. Moreover, an attempt to match your legal knowledge and argumentative skills with those of judges and their cronies(cf. jur:32§§2-3) is hopeless because judges have something that you cannot possibly have: the power to say “This is the decision of the court...and that's it!”.
3. That puts an end to most cases since most parties lack the means to appeal; and those who appeal have the decisions appealed from rubberstamped ‘affirmed’ without discussion of the facts or the law. Actually, the official policy of the federal courts is to weigh pro se cases as a third of a case. Hence, judges are not only authorized, but also expected not to waste any more than a third of their effort and time on pro se cases(OL2:455§§B-C).
4. Appeals by lawyers do not fare better: 93% of all appeals to the 13 federal courts of appeals are disposed of in decisions “[on] procedural [grounds, mostly the catchall pretext of “lack of jurisdiction”], unsigned, unpublished, without comment, and by consolidation” Only 7% are disposed of in decisions explained in opinions(OL2:457§D).
5. In court, judges can disregard the rule of law and make new rules as they go. The courts are their turf. An attempt to match your legal knowledge and argumentative skills with judges’ is unrealistic. It betrays ignorance of the relative positions of power.
6. You can never argue your case so convincingly as to leave judges no choice but to incriminate themselves and their peers, colleagues, and cronies. They have an interdependent interest in mutually assured survival\(OL2:997§2\). Federal judges dismiss 100% of complaints against them, which must be filed with them, and deny 100% of petitions to review those dismissals. Judges will always protect each other and thereby themselves: ‘Today I help you and tomorrow you help me.’

B. Applying strategic thinking to outsmart judges’ abuse of power

7. Judges' do whatever they want because they are recommended, endorsed, nominated, confirmed or appointed by politicians, who thereafter protect them as 'our men and women on the bench'. Judges connivance with politicians assures them that their abuse of power is riskless since they will be held unaccountable. So it is in court.
8. Recognizing this, strategic thinking aims to outmaneuver judges by taking action out of court. It seeks to deprive them of politicians' protection by creating circumstances out of court where politicians have to switch their priority to protecting their own careers, lest they be voted out of, or not into, office by a national public, in general, and voters, in particular, that have been informed about, and have become outraged at, judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse of power. Creating those circumstances is the function of the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy.
9. A national public so informed and outraged can be stirred up to compel politicians to investigate judges and their judiciaries, compensate abusees, and reform the system of justice through transformative change, i.e., the system that goes into change comes out as a qualitatively and quantitatively different entity. Reformative measures that today seem inconceivable, after the outrageous findings will become unavoidable.
10. We the People, the Masters of all public servants, including judicial public servants, will be enabled to exercise our right to hold judges accountable for the their wielding of the public power entrusted to them and liable to compensate the victims of their abuse.

C. Your and many readers' stories of abuse will reveal patterns of abuse

11. This is your opportunity to turn your enormous effort in filing pro se or becoming a lawyer into the foundation on which you build yourself as a teacher and a leader. The first step is for you to write your own story of abuse by judges. Since there are millions of abusees who want to tell their stories too, you must limit your story to 500 words. Even if you have never done so, relax, you are not being asked to write a masterpiece. Rather, you are being give a two-phase method for writing a story consisting of accurate, significant, and verifiable facts.
12. Your story should contribute to informing and outraging the national public. But more importantly, it and the stories of many other abusees should allow journalists and media outlets and students and professors to detect what is most persuasive than any single story: patterns of judges' abuse of power. Only those patterns can demonstrate that the abuse that was inflicted on any one abusee was not an isolated instance of an otherwise fair and competent judge or even a single rogue judge.
13. Instead, patterns of abuse show that the judiciary itself is a rogue institution: It has turned abuse into its judges' means of doing business through the complicit coordination of judges' among themselves and between them and their cronies. The judiciary has become a racketeering enterprise. Informing the national public of those patterns can cause it to be outraged! and force politicians to investigate judges, compensate abusees, and undertake transformative reform.

1. Writing a fact-providing story, not a law-arguing brief

14. Abstain from making legal arguments in your story. Any claim that the judge(s) in your case acted unconstitutionally and violated due process is meaningless, for that is merely a conclusion. It can easily be dismissed as 'the whining of a disgruntled loser'.
15. To arrive at a conclusion in a lawyerly fashion you would have to present its legal basis with citations to cases:
 - a. establishing the applicable constitutional and due process requirements;

- b. holding conduct similar to that of your judges to be a violation of those requirements;
 - c. showing that there is a causal link between such violation and the injury in fact that you suffered, which injury must be unlawful –the adverse consequences that you suffer for not paying your bills are not in themselves unlawful simply because they injure you–; and
 - d. stating that such unlawful injury entitles you to relief that the court can grant and that you requested.
16. Such legal argument and supporting citations take far more than 500 words to set forth.
17. A conclusion, e.g., ‘Thiss wrong! cause its totally unconstitutional and a violation of due process thats completely rico’, without a legal basis, even if voiced by a lawyer, never mind a pro se, is nothing more than a personal opinion, a ‘cry of the heart’. It is entitled to no credibility. It is pretentious to demand that it be accepted because ‘I say so’ and relied upon for granting one party relief and imposing on the other a burden. It betrays ignorance of how to ‘craft a legal argument’.
18. In addition, a legal argument can always be challenged by a counter argument. A judge and opposing counsel, by training and experience, can provide more numerous and pertinent citations to cases as ‘authority for the proposition that X is Y’. The judge’s power will turn such proposition into the law of the case: ‘That’s the end of it...and if you don’t like it, appeal!’
19. The alternative is shown in the two-phase method for writing your story of judges’ abuse. It teaches you how to concentrate your up to 500 words on providing facts. The latter must consist of accurate names of people, entities, places, events, dates and times, other amounts and metrics, titles and/or docket numbers of relevant documents, etc. That kind of information is significant in that it can establish that your story occurred as you say it did and what its nature is. It is verifiable information. It can be searched in many other stories. When it appears in several stories written independently by separate writers, it allows for the detection of patterns of abuse.
20. By working hard to apply the two-phase method to write your own story you will gain valuable knowledge and experience regarding its handling in practice. They will prepare you to teach the method to others so that they too write accurate, significant, and verifiable stories.
21. Each of you should send your respective story, not to any judge or court, but rather to people in a position to let you tell it to the national public. This will create the circumstances where the public, informed about, and outraged at, judges' abuse of power, will pressure politicians into protecting themselves by appearing to care about the abused, the public, by investigating its abusers, the judges. People eminently in that position are the following
- a. the members of the Biden Commission for reforming the Supreme Court; and
 - b. journalists, media outlets, and journalism, law, business, and Information Technology students and professors, who can join in holding the proposed UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.
22. Send them your story by placing the following blocs of email addresses in the To: and the cc: boxes, respectively, of your email containing your story and this article:

D. My one-hour presentation on the two-phase method for writing your story

23. I realize that many people cannot afford attorney’s fees. But you can appreciate that by earning those fees is how attorneys earn money to pay their student loans, office and residential rent or mortgage, research materials, Internet and phone connections, food, transportation, utilities, etc.
24. In my case, paying those bills is only rendered more difficult by the enormous amount of effort, time, and money that I invest in the professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking needed to produce my three-volume study of judges and their judiciaries:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power: Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability and abuse reporting * † *

* Volume 3: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Honest_Jud_Advocates3.pdf >from OL3:1144-1360+

- i. To open and navigate through those volumes, download Adobe Acrobat Reader for free.
25. In addition, I have posted many of my articles(cf. click Appendix 6§A and scroll down to it) to my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which is accessible for free. They have attracted so many webvisitors and the latter have reacted to them so positively that 39,553+ have become subscribers to the site as of September 13, 2021(Appendix 3).
- a. How many law firms, never mind lawyers, do you know who have a website with so many subscribers?
 - b. You can for free join the subscribers thus: go to my website <left panel ↓Register or + New or Users >Add New.
26. I do offer substantial public service free of charge for the benefit of the public at large. Nevertheless, from individuals and for their private benefit, I receive requests by email, mail, and phone for pro bono legal assistance as well as documents that I am supposed to read pro bono in order to be prepared to knowledgeably discuss them bono with the requester whenever he or she chooses to contact me again. That is so unreasonable, selfish, and unbusiness-like!
27. Far from it, you can take the lead in forming a group of up to 15 people from whom you collect my fee of $550 payable in advance for a one-hour presentation on how to use the two-phase method to write their personal story, made via video conference, e.g., Zoom, at 11:00 a.m. EST on a Sunday that you propose. Use my contact and bank information below to let me know and pay.
28. Requiring people to pay ensures that ‘they have skin in the game’. Otherwise, the saying applies: “What is received for free and can be dropped at no cost is not appreciated”...and I am unceremoniously left standing alone out there on the sidewalk holding like a fool the bag of uncompensated bills for my preparation, expenses, and time. It is not reasonable to expect that I run that risk.
29. By contrast, for your benefit and that of others you can use your experience as one who has suffered or witnessed judges’ abuse. For instance, there are well over 2 million people incarcerated at any one time, to whom must be added all those under parole and those discharged. You can submit this article for publication in a prison paper. The same holds substantially true in the context of victims of unlawful foreclosures, evictions, guardianships, bankruptcies, and similar classes of people.
30. To form a presentation group you can share this article with all your friends, relatives, peers, etc.
31. You can also post it to social media such as the following so that it may go viral:
- Facebook, Youtube, LinkedIn, Instagram, Google Plus,
Pinterest, Reddit, Snapchat, WhatsApp, Twitter
32. Send this tweet: Tell your story of judges’ abuse of power & ask for compensation at UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS; demand that the Biden Commission on SCt reform hear you; invite your audience, the People; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL2/DrRCordero_method_for_writing_your_story.pdf
33. Seize this opportunity to become a leader. Teach people how to make their stories count as sources of patterns of judges' abuse of power. Thereby contribute to the formation of a national movement of people who do likewise. Lead them to inform and outrage the national public, the only entity strong enough to hold judges accountable and liable to compensation, and transform the system of justice. If you use your experience and hard work to become a teacher and a leader, you can be nationally recognized by a grateful People as a Champion of Justice. Time is of the essence!

35. You can help continue and advance our common cause through Judicial Discipline Reform, whose articles, posted to <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, have attracted so many webvisitors and elicited in them such a positive reaction that 39,553+ have become subscribers as of September 14, 2021(Appendix 3).
36. How many websites of law firms, let alone lawyers, do you know that have so many subscribers?
37. These articles are the product of professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking.
38. They describe the out-of-court strategy for:
- informing the national public about, and outraging it at, judges' abuse of power and forming a national single issue apolitical civic movement for judicial abuse exposure, compensation of abusees, and reform through transformative change.

B. Subjects for commissioning one or a series of articles

113. judges' unaccountability(>OL:265) and their riskless abuse of power(>jur:5§3; OL:154§3);
114. statistical analysis for the public(†>OL2:455§§B-E, 608§A) and for researchers(jur:131§b);
115. significance of federal circuit judges disposing of 93% of appeals in decisions “on procedural grounds [i.e., the pretext of “lack of jurisdiction”], unsigned, unpublished, by consolidation, without comment”, which are unresearched, reasonless, ad-hoc, arbitrary, fiat-like orders, in practice unappealable(OL2:453);
116. to receive ‘justice services’(OL2:607) parties pay courts filing fees, which constitute consideration, whereby a contract arises between them to be performed by the judges, who know that they will in most cases not even read their briefs(OL2:608§A), so that courts engage in false advertisement, fraud in the inducement, and breach of contract(OL2:609§2);

117. Justiceship Nominee Judge Neil Gorsuch said, “An attack on one of our brothers and sisters of the robe is an attack on all of us”: judges’ gang mentality and abusive hitting back(OL2:546);
118. fair criticism of judges who fail to “avoid even the appearance of impropriety”(jur:68^{123a});
119. abuse-enabling clerks(OL2:687), who fear arbitrary removal without recourse(jur:30§1);
120. law clerks’ vision at the end of their clerking for a judge of the latter’s glowing letter of recommendation(OL2:645§B) to a potential employer morally blinds them to their being used by the judge as executioners of his or her abuse;
121. judges dismiss 99.82% of complaints against them(jur:10-14; OL2:548), thus arrogating to themselves impunity by abusing their self-disciplining authority(jur:21§a);
122. escaping the futility of suing judges(OL2:713, 609§1): the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy to stir up the public into holding them accountable and liable to compensation(OL2:581);
123. how law professors and lawyers act in self-interest to cover up for judges so as to spare themselves and their schools, cases, and firms retaliation(jur:81§1): their system of harmonious interests against the interests of the parties and the public(OL2:635, 593¶15);
124. turning insiders into Deep Throats(jur:106§C); outsiders into informants(OL2:468); and judges into criers of ‘Me Too! Abusers’(OL2:682¶¶7,8) that issue an I accuse!(jur:98§2) denunciation of judges’ abuse: thinking and acting strategically(OL2:635, 593¶15) to expose judges’ abuse by developing allies who want to become Workers of Justice(OL2:687), as opposed to being enforcers of abuse or enablers by endorsement or willful ignorance or blindness;
125. two unique national stories, not to replace a rogue judge, but to topple an abusive judiciary:
 - a. Follow the money! as judges grab(OL2:614), conceal(jur:65^{107a,c}), and launder(105²¹³) it;
 - b. The Silence of the Judges: their warrantless, 1st Amendment freedom of speech, press, and assembly-violative interception of their critics’ communications(OL2:582§C);
 - 1) made all the more credible by Former CBS Reporter Sharryl Attkisson’s $35 million suit against the Department of Justice for its illegal intrusion into her computers to spy on her ground-breaking investigation and embarrassing reporting(OL2:612§b);
 - 2) the exposure of such interception can provoke a scandal graver than that resulting from Edward Snowden’s revelations of NSA’s massive illegal collection of only non-personally identifiable metadata(OL2:583§3);
 - 3) the exposure can be bankrolled as discreetly as Peter Thiel, co-founder of PayPal, bankrolled the suit of Hulk Hogan against the tabloid Gawker for invasion of privacy and thereby made it possible to prosecute and win a judgment for more than $140 million(OL2:528);
 - 4) principles can be asserted and money made by exposing judges’ interception;
126. launching a Harvey Weinstein-like(jur:4¶¶10-14) generalized media investigation into judges’ abuse of power as their institutionalized modus operandi; conducted also by journalists and me with the benefit of the numerous leads(OL:194§E) that I have gathered;
127. Black Robed Predators(OL:85) or the making of a documentary as an original video content by a media company or an investigative TV show, with the testimony of judges' victims, clerks, lawyers, faculty, and students; and crowd funding to attract to its making and viewing the crowd that advocate honest judiciaries and the victims of judges' abuse of power;

128. promoting the unprecedented to turn judges' abuse of power into a key mid-term elections issue and thereafter insert it in the national debate:
 - a. the holding by journalists, newsanchors, media outlets, and law, journalism, business, and IT schools in their own commercial, professional, and public interest as We the People's loudspeakers of nationally and statewide televised citizens hearings(OL2:675§2, 580§2) on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse;
 - b. a forensic investigation by Information Technology experts to determine whether judges intercept the communications of their critics(OL2:633§D, OL2:582§C);
 - c. suits by individual parties and class actions to recover from judges, courts, and judiciaries filing fees paid by parties as consideration for 'justice services'(OL2:607) offered by the judges although the latter knew that it was mathematically(OL2:608§A; 457§D) impossible for them to deliver those services to all filed cases; so the judges committed false advertisement and fraud in the inducement to the formation of service contracts, and thereafter breach of contract by having their court and law clerks perfunctorily dispose of cases by filling out "dumping forms"(OL2:608 ¶ 5);
 - d. suits by clients to recover from their lawyers attorneys' fees charged for prosecuting cases that the lawyers knew or should have known(jur:90§§b, c) the judges did not have the manpower to deliver, or the need or the incentive to deal with personally, whereby the lawyers committed fraud by entering with their clients into illusory contracts that could not obtain the sought-for 'justice services'; and
 - e. suits in the public interest to recover the public funds paid to judges who have failed to earn their salaries by routinely not putting in an honest day's work, e.g., closing their courts before 5:00 p.m., thus committing fraud on the public and inflicting injury in fact on the parties who have been denied justice through its delay(cf. OL2:571¶24a);
129. how parties can join forces to combine and search their documents for communality points (OL:274-280; 304-307) that permit the detection of patterns of abuse by one or more judges, which patterns the parties can use to persuade journalists to investigate their claims of abuse;
130. the development of my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which as of October 10, 2021, had 39,857+ subscribers, into:
 - a. a clearinghouse for complaints against judges uploaded by the public;
 - b. a research center for professionals and parties(OL2:575) to search documents for the most persuasive evidence of abuse: patterns of abuse by the same judge presiding over their cases, the judges of the same court, and the judges of a judiciary; and
 - c. the showroom and shopping portal of a multidisciplinary academic and business venture (jur:119§§1-4). It can be the precursor of the institute of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy attached to a top university or established by a consortium of media outlets and academic institutions(jur:130§5);
131. a tour of presentations(OL:197§G) by me sponsored by you on:
 - a. judges' abuse(jur:5§3; OL:154 ¶ 3);

- b. development of software to conduct fraud and forensic accounting(OL:42, 60); and to perform thanks to artificial intelligence a novel type of statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of judges' decisions and other writings(jur:131§b) to detect bias and disregard of the requirements of due process and equal protection of the law;
 - c. promoting the participation of the audience in the investigation(OL:115) into judges' abuse; and their development of local chapters of investigators/researchers that coalesce into a Tea Party-like single issue, civic movement(jur:164§9) for holding judges accountable and liable to their victims: the People's Sunrise(OL:201§J);
 - d. announcement of a Continuing Legal Education course, a webinar, a seminar, and a writing contest(*>ddc:1), which can turn the audience into clients and followers;
132. a multimedia, multidisciplinary public conference(jur:97§1; *>dcc:13§C) on judges' abuses held at a top university(OL2:452) to pioneer the reporting thereon in our country and abroad;
133. the call of the constitutional convention(OL:136§3) that 34 states have petitioned Congress to convene since April 2, 2014, satisfying the amending provisions of the Constitution, Article V.
