In search of one or more knowledgeable, experienced, and financially capable law firms with which to join forces to further prosecute cases with national scope that are ripe for class action

Dear Law Firm Members,‡

1. This is a proposal to join forces to further prosecute any or all of the three cases that I<sup>1</sup> have brought to ripeness for class action<sup>2</sup>. If after reading their brief description below you determine that you do not have any conflict of interests, you can go to the file‡, which has links to detailed information.

a. Medicare administers $100s of billions for the benefit of its more than 33 million insureds. It works with hundreds of HMOs and other health insurance entities. They have common interests: pay the fewest claims and attract to, and maintain in their, networks the largest number of medical services providers. To advance their interests they deny and uphold the denial of as many of their insureds' claims as possible; disregard the legal obligation to accept as total payment Medicare's schedules of fees for services; and condone the billing of insureds for the unpaid balance. Most insureds who appeal denials and balance billing appear pro se. Due to their ignorance of the law, they are abused. The recovery can be huge and force transformative change. I appealed to the Medicare Appeals Council. After I appeal to the Medicare Board, the class action can be filed in district court.

b. Walgreens is described as having had $139.5 billion in revenue in 2020 and 277,000 employees in 2021. Its purchase-incentivizing program is Cash Rewards. It is a misnomer, for rewards are not earned by paying in cash and cannot be redeemed for cash despite its false advertisement: "Save time. Redeem your rewards instantly at checkout". But at checkout you cannot pay the total cost of the purchase with your Cash Rewards. You can only apply a single "tier" of $1, $3, $5, or $10 if it is equal to or less than the purchase cost. You must pay the balance with your money. Your rewards, though earned, are not yours, for they expire. The program is a bait and switch scam. This is a test case for suing big businesses that make enormous gains by defrauding millions of customers of small amounts that do not justify the substantial cost of individual prosecution.

c. While serving as a grand juror, I witnessed how prosecutors and NYPD officers charged people with a murder that the latter could not have committed because no evidence of a crime was presented: No footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident or autopsy report. The indictment was sought for plea bargain leverage in reliance on grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising prosecutors referred me to the grand jury judge, who discharged me. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury judge, who with no discussion dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. I filed a complaint with the Chief Judge, the NYS and NYC administrative judges, the NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau chief and the Commissioner, the Bronx council members, public advocates, et al., who have not replied. They form the defendant class: They do not investigate judges to avoid retaliation<sup>3</sup>. Their dereliction of duty is a policy and a systemic cover-up based on actual or constructive complicit coordination. Acting under color of law, they have violated the civil rights of the likely thousands of people whom they have sent to jail on false accusations, devastating their lives with the cost of bail and a criminal record. Those people's class action can earn their attorneys vast rewards and national recognition as Champions of Justice.<sup>4</sup>

2. I offer to make a presentation of these cases via video conference or, if in NYC, in person.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Endnotes

- <sup>1</sup> This letter and its link† can be shared with others potentially interested in joining any of the class actions under FRCR Rule 23 and attending my presentation on this proposal. The latter is supported by my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking; they are the skills that undergird my three-volume study<sup>* † ♣</sup> of judges and their judiciaries titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:

Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting<sup>* † ♣</sup>

- a. The study collects and discusses abundant evidence(OL:194§E) showing that judges ensure each other's unaccountability, which is also protected connivingly by the politicians who put them in office and for whom they are 'our men and women on the bench'. Judges engage in abuse of power risklessly for their gain and convenience individually and as a coordinated class. Their pattern of conduct shows that they run their judiciary as a racketeering enterprise.
  - b. Some of my articles have been posted to my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. That site has attracted countless visitors and as of 27 Dec. 2022 had turned into subscribers 46,006 of them. They are potential class members.
- <sup>2</sup> The class actions can expect sympathetic juries. Indeed, since the advent of the MeToo! and BLM movements and those against police brutality, and racial and socio-economic inequality, the national public has become ever more intolerant of all forms of abuse, as expressed in its self-assertive rallying cry: Enough is enough! We won't take any abuse from anybody anymore. Trump lawyers settled a case on their way to the first trial day rather than risk a huge verdict from one of Bronx blue collar juries, known for their negative attitude toward big companies and government.
- <sup>3</sup> Victims of abuse by Medicare officers, including administrative law judges, can share their story with the Medicare Appeals Council. The latter is the fourth of five levels of appeal in the Medicare system (the fifth level appeal lies with the Medicare Appeals Board). Hence, if you have not gone through the previous appeal levels, which begins with your HMO or other medical services or equipment provider, the Council will not treat your story as a complaint on appeal. However, you together with as many victims as possible can submit your story in order to inform the Council of the nature, frequency, and gravity of abuse within the Medicare system.
- a. By writing your story, you take the first step toward showing that you have questions of law or fact and claims common to the class suing Medicare and providers, and qualify as a member of it(R.23\(a\)), entitled to share in any compensation that the action may win for it.
  - b. Your story must be brief, written in only up to 500 words. Never-ending rambling and whining sagas are wasteful of your and everybody else's effort and time since they are not read to the end. But a brief story is more likely to be impactful if it consists only of the most outrageous, accurate, and verifiable facts, names, and addresses identifying only the most relevant events that occurred during months or years of abuse. To learn how to write such a story, read and apply the two-phase method for writing your story in up to 500 words. You will be surprised by how helpful that method is in writing an informative and useful story.
  - d. Your story can contribute to detecting the most persuasive type of evidence of abuse: patterns of conduct of the same or related officers and their cronies that harm many unrelated individuals in similar ways. A pattern of similarities may show that the officers and cronies acted in coordination and that an individual should be considered a member of the class action.
  - e. By writing your story, you too will be asserting the most cherished rights of We the People, to wit, those guaranteed by the First Amendment to the Constitution to "freedom of speech, of the press, the right of the people [the sovereign source of all public power in a democracy] peaceably to assemble [by email and on social media too], and to petition [in writing or in person] the Government [of which Medicare is an agency and its officers are agents] for a redress of grievances [including the payment of compensation]”.

f. At the top of your story, add the following reference; and mail and email it to these addresses:

- a. In the civil suit Strickland v. U.S., the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held last April 26 that the Federal Judiciary and its judges in their official and individual capacities can on due process and equal protection grounds be sued and held liable. The plaintiff’s exposure of 4th Circuit judges’ complicit coordination caused the bench to recuse themselves! Judges from other circuits were seated by designation on the three-judge appellate panel.
- b. Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and FBI agents for over $1 billion on June 8, 2022, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their dereliction of duty. This is in addition to the $380 million that USA Gymnastics and the U.S. Olympic Committee had to pay to Nassar sexual abuse victims.
- c. A Pennsylvania state court ordered judges who sent juveniles to government paid/private run detention facilities in exchange for kickbacks to pay $206 million in damages.

<sup>5</sup> The Wall Street Journal revealed that federal judges hear cases in which they have a financial interest, thus breaking the law. Led by their motive of protecting their illegal gains, they intercept(18 U.S.C. §§2511; 1961) people’s emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics. The Federal Judiciary has the means of doing so, as it runs one of the largest national computer networks and has the Information Technology (IT) expertise necessary therefor: It handles daily the filing, retrieval, and storage of hundreds of millions of briefs, motions, applications, records, reports, dockets, calendars, orders, decisions, etc., through its Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) system. Judges have the opportunity to compel such interception by the intelligence agencies to which in a quid pro quo they grant 100% of their secret requests for secret orders for secret surveillance under the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act(50 U.S.C §§1801-1885c).

- a. There is proposed to hire IT experts to examine the communications and computers of judges’ critics. Exposing judges’ interception in a suit with RICO counts on behalf of their victims can generate national outrage, treble damages, and attorneys’ fees. See former CBS reporter Sharyl Attkisson’s suit against the Department of Justice for $35 million. The examination can be announced at a press conference intended to capture national attention and to interest critics and victims of judges’ abuse in sharing their stories with the IT experts.

Appendix 7

Two blocs of email addresses of journalists, media outlets, professors, and students who can be persuaded to hold UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse of power.

Place each in the To: box of separate emails containing your story of abuse that you have suffered or witnessed. You can easily write it in up to 500 words by applying the two-phase method. By so doing, your story will be informative, accurate, and verifiable by those who can enable you to tell it at the hearings.‡
