writing in up to 500 words your story of judges' abuse of power and sending it in for a chance to tell it to the national public at unprecedented citizens hearings‡

Dear Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

Thank you for your emails.

A. Gross mistakes that give you away as a pro se, i.e., a party without a lawyer in court

1. Where have you ever seen a case in court in which something is so "evident" that no opposing counsel can make a persuasive argument to the contrary and the judge "must" accept the proponent party's conclusion, which that party has not even bothered to argue by presenting factual and legal reasons for it?
2. In the same vein, if you write a motion but do not include the only section that matters, namely, "Relief Requested", the court is not requested to do anything. Much worse yet, the opposing party need not do anything either, not even answer your motion, for you have not given notice of what is at stake in the motion and what it risks by failing to file an answer. Your motion does not require judicial action. There is no decision that can be taken by default. You have merely wasted your effort, time, and money. In addition, you have deluded yourself by thinking that you are a good party who asks "nicely". You are nothing but another pro se who has filed yet another whining anecdote!
3. Pro ses hardly ever read anything: seldom do they cite or quote any source of law to support their claims. Thus, they lack the breadth and depth of knowledge of the law and the courts to compare their case to anything anywhere near a representative sample of the scores of millions of cases already decided or still pending before unaccountable judges. In reliance on their unaccountability, judges abuse their power risklessly and systematically for their gain and convenience: Abuse is their means of doing business. That is why there are so many abuse cases; too many for a pro se to arrogate to him/herself the hollow title and wear it as a badge of honor 'I'm the victim of the most abusive case ever!'

B. When you go to court, you always pay a price, one way or another

4. You cannot improvise yourself as a lawyer. You can certainly not do so without reading, and rereading, and reading again many materials until you understand how the law works as a complex system of interconnected rules. You cannot slap the label "unconstitutional" on anything that harms you.
5. When people go to court self-represented, they get the quality of representation that they paid for with their $0.00. Their whining anecdotes are cheap and easy. But they get them nowhere. Tough love!
6. KNOWLEDGE IS POWER...and it costs a lot to gain it and to put it to work for clients. To do so it takes a lot of TIME which IS MONEY. Hence, if you want a chance, however slim, of winning your case at least to some extent, then you either make the enormous effort that it took people to read a very large amount of materials for three years at law school so as to gain the knowledge necessary to become lawyers or you pay lawyers their fees and expenses so that they may represent you in court and in negotiations with the opposing party.
7. My attorney's fee is $350 per hour, which is deducted together with all necessary and incidental expenses from a retainer paid in advance and whose amount is fixed based on the work agreed upon. Discussing with me your personal, local case benefits only you, not the national public. Therefore, it is consulting and attracts my attorney's fee. It is not realistic or reasonable to expect that I should provide consultation and representation for free to everybody who contacts me by email, mail, and phone.

C. Turning your anecdote into a story useful to you and others, including investigators

8. You can turn your anecdote into a story that is accurate, significant, and verifiable by applying the two-phase method. You will learn how to write in up to 500 words your story of judges' abuse of power that you have suffered or witnessed. Yet, you will be able to include among those words the data necessary for investigators to audit your story together with many other stories to detect what is the most convincing type of incriminating evidence: patterns of abuse of power and schemes of financial criminality.
9. The article describing that method provides two blocs of very pertinent email addresses to which you can send your story for a chance to tell it to the national public. They are the addresses of:
  - a. the members of the Biden Commission for the reform of the Supreme Court; and
  - b. top media outlets and VIP people that have investigated federal and state judges already or that can follow the daring pioneers in publishing their findings of judges' abuse of power and financial criminality; e.g.:
    - 1) The Wall Street Journal; 2) The International Consortium of Investigative Journalists; 3) Thomson Reuters; 4) The Boston Globe; 5) Sen. Elizabeth Warren
10. After you have written your story, you can send it together with this article to them by placing the following blocs of email addresses in the To: and the cc: boxes, respectively, of your email:

D. A website with 39,979+ subscribers, its articles, and a study that promote the telling of your stories at unprecedented citizens hearing

11. You may also find the article describing the two-phase method for writing your story on the website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. That and similar articles have attracted so many webvisitors that 39,979 have become subscribers as of October 23, 2021. You too can subscribe for free to its articles. Go to that website <left panel ↓Register or + New or Users >Add New.
12. The articles are based on my three-volume study of judges and their judiciaries. It is titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting* † ‡
13. To afford people a chance to tell the national public their stories of abuse by judges, the articles, the website, and the study promote the holding of unprecedented citizens hearing.
14. These hearings are to be organized by media outlets and students and professors; and held at media stations, university auditoriums, and via video conference so that the largest number of people can tell their stories inexpensively wherever they are. Their many stories will provide investigators and everybody else enough information to detect patterns of abuse and schemes of financial criminality.
15. Your stories will inform and outrage the national public. So much so that the public will join forces to expose judges; and demand that politicians in office as well as those running for it in the next primaries and mid-term elections officially investigate and expose judges.
16. The outraged public will also demand effective results: that We the People, the Masters of all public servants, be able to exercise our right to hold judicial public servants accountable for the public power entrusted to them, and liable to compensate the victims of their abuse. Abusees' collective demand for compensation by judges and their judiciaries will seek to bring Judges Above the Law and the judiciaries that they run as racketeering enterprises down to where they, like doctors and hospitals, police and their departments, priests and their churches, etc., are subjected to Equal Justice Under Law.

B. Subjects for commissioning one or a series of articles

114. judges' unaccountability(*>OL:265) and their riskless abuse of power(*>jur:5§3; OL:154§3);
115. statistical analysis for the public(†>OL2:455§§B-E, 608§A) and for researchers(jur:131§b);
116. significance of federal circuit judges disposing of 93% of appeals in decisions "on procedural grounds [i.e., the pretext of "lack of jurisdiction"], unsigned, unpublished, by consolidation, without comment”, which are unresearched, reasonless, ad-hoc, arbitrary, fiat-like orders, in practice unappealable(OL2:453);

117. to receive ‘justice services’(OL2:607) parties pay courts filing fees, which constitute consideration, whereby a contract arises between them to be performed by the judges, who know that they will in most cases not even read their briefs(OL2:608§A), so that courts engage in false advertisement, fraud in the inducement, and breach of contract(OL2:609§2);
118. Justiceship Nominee Judge Neil Gorsuch said, “An attack on one of our brothers and sisters of the robe is an attack on all of us”: judges’ gang mentality and abusive hitting back(OL2:546);
119. fair criticism of judges who fail to “avoid even the appearance of impropriety”(jur:68<sup>123a</sup>);
120. abuse-enabling clerks(OL2:687), who fear arbitrary removal without recourse(jur:30§1);
121. law clerks’ vision at the end of their clerking for a judge of the latter’s glowing letter of recommendation(OL2:645§B) to a potential employer morally blinds them to their being used by the judge as executioners of his or her abuse;
122. judges dismiss 99.82% of complaints against them(jur:10-14; OL2:548), thus arrogating to themselves impunity by abusing their self-disciplining authority(jur:21§a);
123. escaping the futility of suing judges(OL2:713, 609§1): the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy to stir up the public into holding them accountable and liable to compensation(OL2:581);
124. how law professors and lawyers act in self-interest to cover up for judges so as to spare themselves and their schools, cases, and firms retaliation(jur:81§1): their system of harmonious interests against the interests of the parties and the public(OL2:635, 593¶15);
125. turning insiders into Deep Throats(jur:106§C); outsiders into informants(OL2:468); and judges into criers of ‘Me Too! Abusers’(OL2:682¶¶7,8) that issue an I accuse!(jur:98§2) denunciation of judges’ abuse: thinking and acting strategically(OL2:635, 593¶15) to expose judges’ abuse by developing allies who want to become Workers of Justice(OL2:687), as opposed to being enforcers of abuse or enablers by endorsement or willful ignorance or blindness;
126. two unique national stories, not to replace a rogue judge, but to topple an abusive judiciary:
  - a. Follow the money! as judges grab(OL2:614), conceal(jur:65<sup>107a,c</sup>), and launder(105<sup>213</sup>) it;
  - b. The Silence of the Judges: their warrantless, 1st Amendment freedom of speech, press, and assembly-violative interception of their critics’ communications(OL2:582§C);
    - 1) made all the more credible by Former CBS Reporter Sharryl Attkisson’s $35 million suit against the Department of Justice for its illegal intrusion into her computers to spy on her ground-breaking investigation and embarrassing reporting(OL2:612§b);
    - 2) the exposure of such interception can provoke a scandal graver than that resulting from Edward Snowden’s revelations of NSA’s massive illegal collection of only non-personally identifiable metadata(OL2:583§3);
    - 3) the exposure can be bankrolled as discreetly as Peter Thiel, co-founder of PayPal, bankrolled the suit of Hulk Hogan against the tabloid Gawker for invasion of privacy and thereby made it possible to prosecute and win a judgment for more than $140 million(OL2:528);
    - 4) principles can be asserted and money made by exposing judges’ interception;

127. launching a Harvey Weinstein-like(jur:4¶¶10-14) generalized media investigation into judges' abuse of power as their institutionalized modus operandi; conducted also by journalists and me with the benefit of the numerous leads(OL:194§E) that I have gathered;
128. Black Robed Predators(OL:85) or the making of a documentary as an original video content by a media company or an investigative TV show, with the testimony of judges' victims, clerks, lawyers, faculty, and students; and crowd funding to attract to its making and viewing the crowd that advocate honest judiciaries and the victims of judges' abuse of power;
129. promoting the unprecedented to turn judges' abuse of power into a key mid-term elections issue and thereafter insert it in the national debate:
  - a. the holding by journalists, newsanchors, media outlets, and law, journalism, business, and IT schools in their own commercial, professional, and public interest as We the People's loudspeakers of nationally and statewide televised citizens hearings(OL2:675§2, 580§2) on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse;
  - b. a forensic investigation by Information Technology experts to determine whether judges intercept the communications of their critics(OL2:633§D, OL2:582§C);
  - c. suits by individual parties and class actions to recover from judges, courts, and judiciaries filing fees paid by parties as consideration for 'justice services'(OL2:607) offered by the judges although the latter knew that it was mathematically(OL2:608§A; 457§D) impossible for them to deliver those services to all filed cases; so the judges committed false advertisement and fraud in the inducement to the formation of service contracts, and thereafter breach of contract by having their court and law clerks perfunctorily dispose of cases by filling out "dumping forms"(OL2:608 ¶ 5);
  - d. suits by clients to recover from their lawyers attorneys' fees charged for prosecuting cases that the lawyers knew or should have known(jur:90§§b, c) the judges did not have the manpower to deliver, or the need or the incentive to deal with personally, whereby the lawyers committed fraud by entering with their clients into illusory contracts that could not obtain the sought-for 'justice services'; and
  - e. suits in the public interest to recover the public funds paid to judges who have failed to earn their salaries by routinely not putting in an honest day's work, e.g., closing their courts before 5:00 p.m., thus committing fraud on the public and inflicting injury in fact on the parties who have been denied justice through its delay(cf. OL2:571¶24a);
130. how parties can join forces to combine and search their documents for communality points (OL:274-280; 304-307) that permit the detection of patterns of abuse by one or more judges, which patterns the parties can use to persuade journalists to investigate their claims of abuse;
131. the development of my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which as of October 24, 2021, had 39,980+ subscribers, into:
  - a. a clearinghouse for complaints against judges uploaded by the public;
  - b. a research center for professionals and parties(OL2:575) to search documents for the most persuasive evidence of abuse: patterns of abuse by the same judge presiding over their cases, the judges of the same court, and the judges of a judiciary; and
  - c. the showroom and shopping portal of a multidisciplinary academic and business venture (jur:119§§1-4). It can be the precursor of the institute of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy attached to a top university or established by a consortium of media outlets and academic institutions(jur:130§5);

132. a tour of presentations(OL:197§G) by me sponsored by you on:
  - a. judges' abuse(jur:5§3; OL:154 ¶ 3);
  - b. development of software to conduct fraud and forensic accounting(OL:42, 60); and to perform thanks to artificial intelligence a novel type of statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of judges' decisions and other writings(jur:131§b) to detect bias and disregard of the requirements of due process and equal protection of the law;
  - c. promoting the participation of the audience in the investigation(OL:115) into judges' abuse; and their development of local chapters of investigators/researchers that coalesce into a Tea Party-like single issue, civic movement(jur:164§9) for holding judges accountable and liable to their victims: the People's Sunrise(OL:201§J);
  - d. announcement of a Continuing Legal Education course, a webinar, a seminar, and a writing contest(*>ddc:1), which can turn the audience into clients and followers;
133. a multimedia, multidisciplinary public conference(jur:97§1; *>dcc:13§C) on judges' abuses held at a top university(OL2:452) to pioneer the reporting thereon in our country and abroad;
134. the call of the constitutional convention(OL:136§3) that 34 states have petitioned Congress to convene since April 2, 2014, satisfying the amending provisions of the Constitution, Article V.
