Proposal for a webinar
on the implications for lawyers, their clients, and pro ses of recent exposure by top media of judges' abuse of power and concealment of financial interests:
collective demand for compensation by applying judges' own decisions on Catholic Church pedophilia liability and the principle "[dishonesty] Too big [for the judiciaries] to fail to know";
and
the expansion by Continued Legal Education companies of their business by promoting the holding of
UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS[‡]

A. Proposal for a webinar on compensation for judges' harmful conduct

1. 1. The first part of this webinar deals with the exposure by top media outlets and a VIP of judges' abuse of power and concealed financial interests in cases before them and how lawyers, their clients, and pro ses can collectively demand compensation by applying the judges' own decisions on Catholic Church pedophilia liability; and a principle with a very familiar ring to it: "[dishonesty] Too big [for the judiciaries] to fail to know"; while Continued Legal Education companies (hereinafter CLEs) can expand their business by facilitating such demand.
2. Indeed, The Wall Street Journal, in its article "131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest", published initially on September 28, 2021, and subsequently updated with judges' reactions to it, wrote thus:

[Federal] judges failed to recuse themselves from 685 lawsuits from 2010 to 2018 involving firms in which they or their family held shares, a Wall Street Journal investigation found...Alerted to the violations by the Journal, 56 of the judges have directed court clerks to notify parties in 329 lawsuits that they should have recused themselves. That means new judges might be assigned, potentially upending rulings.
3. One need not be a lawyer to be immediately assaulted by questions like these:
 - a. Who is going to pay for the new trial?
 - b. Who is going to bear the enormous cost during an uncharted process of disentangling the contractual relations based on decisions now tainted with judges' bias toward their own financial interests regardless of whether the decisions are formally voided?
 - c.i. The judges submitted their mandatory annual financial disclosure reports under the Ethics in Government Act(5 U.S.C. §101\(f\)\(11\) et seq.) to the Committee on Financial Disclosure of the Judicial Conference of the U.S. That Conference is presided over by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who appoints the Committee members, all of whom are also federal judges. It includes all the chief judges of the 13 circuits as well as representative district, bankruptcy, and magistrate judges.(28 U.S.C. §331-332)
 - c.ii. Hence, the Federal Judiciary has been in a position and has had the duty of due diligence to ascertain that there was no conflict of financial interests requiring judges' recusal from cases as to which the Judiciary had all public documents and even confidential ones, as well as total control over its procedure.

- c.iii. It follows that the Judiciary has had actual and imputed knowledge of the judges' illegal conduct. The practice of concealing financial interests is so widespread and involves such pitcher-catcher coordination between judges and a complicit Committee of peers, colleagues, and friends as to render applicable the principle "[dishonesty] Too big [for the Judiciary] to fail to know". Thereby liability has become institutionalized, attaching to the Federal Judiciary itself, which covered up for its judges, just as it was institutionalized when judges held the Catholic Church liable for the crimes of pedophilic priests and its cover-up thereof.
- c.iv. How can harmed lawyers, clients, and pro se hold the Federal Judiciary liable for compensatory and even punitive damages when the Judiciary is the judge in every case against it? The Judiciary is incriminated by its record of self-discipline dishonesty: Chief circuit judges abuse their power to dismiss 100% of complaints filed against judges in their respective circuit, and as do the circuits' judicial councils, which deny 100% of the petitions to review those dismissals.
- c.v. The prosecution of collective demands for compensation can give rise to a niche practice. Lawyers will soon invoke the equal protection clause to require that any applicable statute of limitations be pushed back or lifted just as "lookback" laws have done with those statutes that would have barred claims against pedophilic priests and the Catholic Church.
- c.vi. The consequences of such demands need not be pecuniary only. Discovery and further journalistic exposures can lead to such public outrage and loss of trust as to make inevitable the resignation of judges, justices, whole courts, and even bring down, not only the head of a branch and "All the President's Men", but rather a government branch itself.
- c.vii. Such imaginative and courageous prosecution requires lawyers and students made of the 'stuff' of which nationally recognized and historic Champions of Justice are made. It can be set in motion by CLEs, unless they want to cede the opportunity to media outlets

1. Webinar's foundation provided by top media outlets and a study

- 4. This webinar has a solid foundation in the recent articles and reports that, as discussed in my article related hereto, have been published by:
 - 1. The Wall Street Journal
 - 2. Thomson Reuters
 - 3. The Boston Globe
 - 4. International Consortium of Investigative Journalists, headquartered in D.C, with the participation of The Washington Post
 - 5. Senator Elizabeth Warren
- 5. In addition, the webinar is supported by my three-volume study of judges and their judiciaries, all the product of my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking. The study is titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability and abuse reporting* † ♣

* Volume 3: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Honest_Jud_Advocates3.pdf>from OL3:1144-1386+

B. Proposal for CLEs to expand their business and transformatively change the system of justice

1. Expanding to the 40,014+ subscribers to a site, and students and schools

6. I have posted my related article and many others to my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. They have attracted so many webvisitors that 40,014+ have become subscribers as of October 28, 2021(see the article's Appendix 3).
7. These subscribers are highly educated and well-off people, the kind that read articles in long form appearing in preeminent publications such as The New York Times Sunday Edition, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, The New Yorker, The Atlantic, TIME, etc. They have the potential for becoming the CLEs' new non-lawyer client base.
8. CLEs can also expand their client base to another constituency that if attracted early on in their careers can remain with the CLEs for a very long time, namely, students. They are driven by idealism and need to prove themselves to prospective employers. They will be presented with a proposal for learning and providing –while in school and thereafter– the legal, journalistic, business, and Information Technology services that so many parties, including lawyers, will need to become part of, and pursue, the collective demand for compensation for the harm caused by unaccountable judges' and their judiciaries' abuse of power and concealed financial interests.
9. Law students in particular, who currently are confronted with diminishing chances of finding a job in the legal field, will be interested in this proposal for acquiring the knowledge and expertise necessary to develop their own niche market
10. Consequently, law schools are facing dwindling enrollment. They will be interested in the proposal for offering courses, clinics, and internships dealing with the exposure of judges' abuse of power and concealed financial interests. These educational offerings are apt to restore the luster of the schools and lawyers in the eyes of scores of millions of current and former parties by assisting them in obtaining compensation for judges' abuse.
11. They can also provide the means for law schools, in general, and its students, in particular, to become the citizens inspectors general of the Federal Judiciary, the model for its state counterparts, the creation of which that Judiciary has so adamantly and effectively opposed.

2. A tour of schools to pioneer UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS

12. The above justifies a physical and virtual tour of presentations at law schools as well as journalism, business, and Information Technology schools, for they teach subjects vitally necessary to expose judges' financial criminality. The latter includes not only the concealment of financial interests that required recusal, but also other forms of illegal acquisition of assets, evasion of taxes, and the electronic transfer of money to be hidden, laundered, and invested.
13. The tour of schools can lay the foundation for the most promising proposal from a publicity and commercial point of view: UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.
14. They will enable many lawyers, their clients, pro ses, and others to tell the national public their stories of the abuse of power by judges that they have suffered. Those who have witnessed abuse, for instance, court or law clerks and even judges, will also be enabled to whistle-blow their stories...as have done employees of Facebook disgusted by their company's abuse of their client base and its betrayal of what they felt to be their idealistic mission as its employees.

15. The citizens hearings will be organized by students, professors, top media outlets, and VIPs, including principled and opportunistic politicians running in the mid-term elections. They are to be held at university auditoriums, media stations, and via video conference so that people may give and hear testimony wherever they are, sparing themselves travel and room and board expenses.

3. A CLE that leads the way to a new system of justice

16. The unprecedented citizens hearings can occur as the debate is taking place nationally over how to implement the report of the Biden Commission for the reform of the Supreme Court. The testimony of so many victims of, and witnesses to, judges' abuse of power and financial criminality can allow the detection of patterns. The latter can show abuse and criminality so pervasive and coordinated as to function as unaccountable judges' institutionalized modus operandi through which they run their judiciary as a racketeering enterprise.
17. As a result, the hearings can reveal the need to reform, not merely the Supreme Court, but rather all the courts and the system of justice itself.
18. By setting in motion the unprecedented citizens hearings, a CLE can also become a pioneer in attaining what Ms. Carolyn Caccese, the president of the NYS Academy of Trial Lawyers, states in her comments at the beginning of the Academy's webinars: "the objective of ATL is to protect and defend the civil justice system".
19. That is the objective of my webinar too. Through it, a CLE can make that system enter a process of change from which it comes out transformed into a different entity. Therein, We the People, the Masters of all public servants, will be able to exercise our right to hold judicial public servants accountable for the public power entrusted to them and liable to compensate the victims of their abuse and criminality.

C. My offer to present this proposal

20. Therefore, I respectfully offer to make a presentation to you and your colleagues and guests on how it is in our common commercial and reputational interest to offer my webinar...and in joining forces to implement my plan for the journalistic investigation of judges(OL:194§§E, G).
21. To assess my capacity to make a presentation you may view my video and follow it on its slides.
22. The presentation can take place via video conference and, if it is here in NY City, in person.
23. To set the presentation's terms and scheduling use my contact information below
24. To contact your potential guests you may share this proposal with all your friends, relatives, and neighbors.

B. Subjects for commissioning one or a series of articles

- 122. judges' unaccountability(>OL:265) and their riskless abuse of power(>jur:5§3; OL:154§3);
- 123. statistical analysis for the public(†>OL2:455§§B-E, 608§A) and for researchers(jur:131§b);
- 124. significance of federal circuit judges disposing of 93% of appeals in decisions "on procedural grounds [i.e., the pretext of "lack of jurisdiction"], unsigned, unpublished, by consolidation, without comment", which are unresearched, reasonless, ad-hoc, arbitrary, fiat-like orders, in practice unappealable(OL2:453);
- 125. to receive 'justice services'(OL2:607) parties pay courts filing fees, which constitute consideration, whereby a contract arises between them to be performed by the judges, who know that they will in most cases not even read their briefs(OL2:608§A), so that courts engage in false advertisement, fraud in the inducement, and breach of contract(OL2:609§2);
- 126. Justiceship Nominee Judge Neil Gorsuch said, "An attack on one of our brothers and sisters of the robe is an attack on all of us": judges' gang mentality and abusive hitting back(OL2:546);
- 127. fair criticism of judges who fail to "avoid even the appearance of impropriety"(jur:68^{123a});
- 128. abuse-enabling clerks(OL2:687), who fear arbitrary removal without recourse(jur:30§1);
- 129. law clerks' vision at the end of their clerking for a judge of the latter's glowing letter of recommendation(OL2:645§B) to a potential employer morally blinds them to their being used by the judge as executioners of his or her abuse;
- 130. judges dismiss 99.82% of complaints against them(jur:10-14; OL2:548), thus arrogating to themselves impunity by abusing their self-disciplining authority(jur:21§a);
- 131. escaping the futility of suing judges(OL2:713, 609§1): the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy to stir up the public into holding them accountable and liable to compensation(OL2:581);
- 132. how law professors and lawyers act in self-interest to cover up for judges so as to spare themselves and their schools, cases, and firms retaliation(jur:81§1): their system of harmonious interests against the interests of the parties and the public(OL2:635, 593¶15);
- 133. turning insiders into Deep Throats(jur:106§C); outsiders into informants(OL2:468); and judges into criers of 'MeToo! Abusers'(OL2:682¶¶7,8) that issue an I accuse!(jur:98§2) denunciation of judges' abuse: thinking and acting strategically(OL2:635, 593¶15) to expose judges' abuse by developing allies who want to become Workers of Justice(OL2:687), as opposed to being enforcers of abuse or enablers by endorsement or willful ignorance or blindness;
- 134. two unique national stories, not to replace a rogue judge, but to topple an abusive judiciary:
 - a. Follow the money! as judges grab(OL2:614), conceal(jur:65^{107a,c}), and launder(105²¹³) it;

- b. The Silence of the Judges: their warrantless, 1st Amendment freedom of speech, press, and assembly-violative interception of their critics' communications(OL2:582§C);
 - 1) made all the more credible by Former CBS Reporter Sharryl Attkisson's $35 million suit against the Department of Justice for its illegal intrusion into her computers to spy on her ground-breaking investigation and embarrassing reporting(OL2:612§b);
 - 2) the exposure of such interception can provoke a scandal graver than that resulting from Edward Snowden's revelations of NSA's massive illegal collection of only non-personally identifiable metadata(OL2:583§3);
 - 3) the exposure can be bankrolled as discreetly as Peter Thiel, co-founder of PayPal, bankrolled the suit of Hulk Hogan against the tabloid Gawker for invasion of privacy and thereby made it possible to prosecute and win a judgment for more than $140 million(OL2:528);
 - 4) principles can be asserted and money made by exposing judges' interception;
135. launching a Harvey Weinstein-like(jur:4¶¶10-14) generalized media investigation into judges' abuse of power as their institutionalized modus operandi; conducted also by journalists and me with the benefit of the numerous leads(OL:194§E) that I have gathered;
136. Black Robed Predators(OL:85) or the making of a documentary as an original video content by a media company or an investigative TV show, with the testimony of judges' victims, clerks, lawyers, faculty, and students; and crowd funding to attract to its making and viewing the crowd that advocate honest judiciaries and the victims of judges' abuse of power;
137. promoting the unprecedented to turn judges' abuse of power into a key mid-term elections issue and thereafter insert it in the national debate:
 - a. the holding by journalists, newsanchors, media outlets, and law, journalism, business, and IT schools in their own commercial, professional, and public interest as We the People's loudspeakers of nationally and statewide televised citizens hearings(OL2:675§2, 580§2) on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse;
 - b. a forensic investigation by Information Technology experts to determine whether judges intercept the communications of their critics(OL2:633§D, OL2:582§C);
 - c. suits by individual parties and class actions to recover from judges, courts, and judiciaries filing fees paid by parties as consideration for 'justice services'(OL2:607) offered by the judges although the latter knew that it was mathematically(OL2:608§A; 457§D) impossible for them to deliver those services to all filed cases; so the judges committed false advertisement and fraud in the inducement to the formation of service contracts, and thereafter breach of contract by having their court and law clerks perfunctorily dispose of cases by filling out "dumping forms"(OL2:608 ¶ 5);
 - d. suits by clients to recover from their lawyers attorneys' fees charged for prosecuting cases that the lawyers knew or should have known(jur:90§§b, c) the judges did not have the manpower to deliver, or the need or the incentive to deal with personally, whereby the lawyers committed fraud by entering with their clients into illusory contracts that could not obtain the sought-for 'justice services'; and
 - e. suits in the public interest to recover the public funds paid to judges who have failed to earn their salaries by routinely not putting in an honest day's work, e.g., closing their courts before 5:00 p.m., thus committing fraud on the public and inflicting injury in fact on the parties who have been denied justice through its delay(cf. OL:571¶24a);

138. how parties can join forces to combine and search their documents for communality points (OL:274-280; 304-307) that permit the detection of patterns of abuse by one or more judges, which patterns the parties can use to persuade journalists to investigate their claims of abuse;
139. the development of my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which as of November 9, 2021, had 40,200+ subscribers, into:
 - a. a clearinghouse for complaints against judges uploaded by the public;
 - b. a research center for professionals and parties(OL2:575) to search documents for the most persuasive evidence of abuse: patterns of abuse by the same judge presiding over their cases, the judges of the same court, and the judges of a judiciary; and
 - c. the showroom and shopping portal of a multidisciplinary academic and business venture (jur:119§§1-4). It can be the precursor of the institute of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy attached to a top university or established by a consortium of media outlets and academic institutions(jur:130§5);
140. a tour of presentations(OL:197§G) by me sponsored by you on:
 - a. judges' abuse(jur:5§3; OL:154 ¶ 3);
 - b. development of software to conduct fraud and forensic accounting(OL:42, 60); and to perform thanks to artificial intelligence a novel type of statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of judges' decisions and other writings(jur:131§b) to detect bias and disregard of the requirements of due process and equal protection of the law;
 - c. promoting the participation of the audience in the investigation(OL:115) into judges' abuse; and their development of local chapters of investigators/researchers that coalesce into a Tea Party-like single issue, civic movement(jur:164§9) for holding judges accountable and liable to their victims: the People's Sunrise(OL:201§J);
 - d. announcement of a Continuing Legal Education course, a webinar, a seminar, and a writing contest(*>ddc:1), which can turn the audience into clients and followers;
141. a multimedia, multidisciplinary public conference(jur:97§1; *>dcc:13§C) on judges' abuses held at a top university(OL2:452) to pioneer the reporting thereon in our country and abroad;
142. the call of the constitutional convention(OL:136§3) that 34 states have petitioned Congress to convene since April 2, 2014, satisfying the amending provisions of the Constitution, Article V.
