

January 29, 2024

Dear Ms. Kiliany, Rep. Khanna, Rep. Porter, Rep. Takano, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

1. I have not dealt with the Stop Wall Street Landlords Act bill. However, the pitfalls of the effort to lobby for that bill can be identified in my three-volume study^{*†♣} of judges and their judiciaries, the product of my professional legal research and writing and strategic thinking. It is titled thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting^{*†♣}

2. Some of the articles cum chapters of that study have been posted to my website Judicial Discipline Reform. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 27 January 2024, the number of visitors that they had motivated to become subscribers was 49,522.
3. To subscribe to articles similar to the one hereunder go to Judicial Discipline Reform <left panel ↓Register; or + New or Users >Add New; or fill out the New User form at <https://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/wp-admin/user-new.php>.

A. Top pitfalls in the way of the bill

4. Even acts of Congress signed into law by the President are nothing but botches of black ink on white paper until they are invoked in a lawsuit and applied by the judge. Particularly a new act can be applied with a large margin of judicial discretion given that there is little precedent on how other judges and especially appellate courts, not to mention the Supreme Court, have applied it.
5. Consequently, there is bound to be much litigation. It is going to be intense, for the opposing parties will make a special effort to establish as early as possible in the life of the act precedent favorable to their respective interest.
6. When the parties involved are a single-family home owner and a large Wall Street-backed real estate investor, the fight is all but decided in favor of the investor from the time the lawsuit is filed. By filing motion after motion after motion, the investor will financially and emotionally exhaust the owner even before the case is heard by the judge on the merits.
7. Do you think that the average owner knows or even can find out by conducting law research how to respond to the following defenses that the investor can raise based on Rule 12(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure?:

“(1) lack of subject-matter jurisdiction; (2) lack of personal jurisdiction; (3) improper venue; (4) insufficient process;	(5) insufficient service of process; (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted; and (7) failure to join a party under Rule 19.”
8. The defeat of the home owners is foretold given that they most likely will appear pro se. A lawsuit is much more than just whining about how abusive the opposing party is and how unfairly the law protects it to the detriment of the whiner. A brief in support of a case or a motion does not consist of a rambling anecdote. It has a sequence of parts and issues whose requirements must be satisfied. In addition, the Rules of Evidence must be observed. Id.
9. Prosecuting a lawsuit requires a lawyer to apply to the provisions of the act principles of statutory interpretation; determine the legislative intent from the iterations of the bill and the record of the congressional debate on it; apply precedent by analogy or distinction to the act's provisions; etc.
10. Being unable to afford a lawyer is not a defense. It is only a sad fact of a system of justice that is so complex that only corporations and the wealthy can afford the lawyers needed to deal with it. The fight is not between Owner David and Goliath the Investor. Rather, it is between Tyrannosaurus Rex and Mickey Mouse.

B. Judges are against pro ses from the outset

11. Whether federal or state, judges loath to deal with pro ses, considering them “a kind of ‘trash’ not even worth the courts’ time”(OL2:932). In the courts of appeals, “adjusted filings...weight pro se appeals as one-third of a case. All other cases have a weight of one”. The courts of appeals set policy and the example for the district and bankruptcy courts in their respective districts.
12. This way of computing “adjusted filings” is made known to all courts and judges in the statistics published by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Court. It means that judges are not only authorized to give pro se case one third of their time and attention, but also that they are expected not to waste more than one third effort in disposing of pro se cases.(OL2:455§B)
13. Moreover, investors have the necessary connections to influential politicians who can recommend a bankruptcy or state judge for either reappointment or elevation to a higher court; and recommend a federal judge to a higher federal court. Pro ses do not have such power at all. It takes a person of great integrity to do the right thing at the expense of his or her own interest. It is easier and more convenient to sell out single-family home owners than to turn down the support of an investor.

C. Politicians can be swayed by the investors’ money and influence

14. Politicians cannot count on pro ses donating to their electoral campaigns, unless it is a pittance. By contrast, Wall Street-backed investors can donate to their campaigns all the money allowed by law and more through PACs...and even by illegal ways.
15. Therefore, one should be very cautious when dealing with politicians who profess to be courageous enough to take on big money donors. Kindhearted but naïve people fail to do so. Often, they end up deceived, disappointed, and with their emotional and financial resources depleted.

D. Measures to strengthen the Stop Wall Street Landlords Act bill

16. To limit as much as possible judges’ margin of discretion when applying any Stop Wall Street Landlords Act bill that may be adopted, the lobbyists must insist that it be as specific as possible. This requires them to study as many home owner cases as they can in search of the specific issues that have been litigated under current law and the way in which the judges ruled, whether in favor or against the owner. They must identify the rulings’ controlling principle or rationale.
17. With that information, the lobbyists can craft specific rules intended to limit the discretion of judges applying the Act to rule for investors and require them to rule in favor of owners. The Act should read like The Bill of Rights and Code of Single-Family Owners rather than a beach umbrella under which to protect investors from the scorching rays of owners’ lawsuits.
18. This type of search for issues and crafting of rules can only be done effectively by lawyers hired and paid by associations of homeowners. Politicians are liable to have their staff attorneys insert in the bill the ‘poison pills’ that investors have lobbied for.
19. To have lawyers protect the interest of owners, the latter must put their money where that interest is. ‘You get what you pay for’. Lawyers who work for nothing are apt to give back nothing of value.
20. You cannot expect lawyers to drop what they are doing for their clients in order to rush to you and work only on your behalf. They too have a stream of bills to pay...and those that they have been unable to pay keep growing. This explains why even large law firms have gone out of business or bankrupt or have been forced to merge.

21. In fact, inflation and Covid have rendered it unaffordable for ever more individuals and companies to hire lawyers. That means that lawyers have fewer clients and those that they are lucky to have run a greater risk of becoming delinquent in paying their attorneys' fees. No lawyer can afford to work for free, especially on something so complex and time-consuming as lobbying for a law, not to mention one opposed by big money investors.
22. Here applies the saying: "What is received for free and can be dropped at no cost is not appreciated"...and I am unceremoniously left standing alone out there on the cold sidewalk holding like a credulous do-gooder the bag of uncompensated bills for my preparation, expenses, and time. It is not reasonable to expect that I or any other lawyer run that risk by working for free.

E. Letting owners tell their stories at unprecedented citizens hearings

23. A promising way of lobbying for the Act is to turn the need for it and its key provisions into an electoral issue, as are forgiving student loans, curbing immigration, abortion, and gun control. A way of doing this is by having owners tell their stories of abuse by investors to as many people as possible. Through their stories, owners and other types of abusees can inform the public of, and outrage it at, investors, judges, and their cronies who abuse their power. They can learn to write their stories in up to 500 words by applying the two-phase method.
24. To give owners the opportunity to tell their stories is the purpose of the proposed UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.
 - a. The citizens hearings are to be held by journalists, media outlets, IT and AI experts, and journalism, law, IT and business students and professors.
 - b. Their venue will be media stations and school auditoriums.
 - c. They will be transmitted via the Internet so that wherever abusees and the audience are, they can tell and listen to the stories of the abuse that they have suffered or witnessed.

F. What is in it for Rep. Khanna, Rep. Porter, and Rep. Takano

25. Representatives Khanna, Porter, and Takano can contact the journalists that cover them and the dean of students and the officers of the class and student organizations at all schools they can to persuade them to hold the citizens hearings. They can start giving We the People a voice to accuse abusers too powerful for politicians to investigate or turn down their donations and patronage.
26. You can be on the news nationwide as the leaders of a civic movement strong enough to have a fighting chance against Goliath the Investor and other abusers. You can be credited with having set off the emergence of an academe-media powerhouse capable of holding even judges accountable. By thinking and proceeding strategically, you can become the People's Champions of Justice.
27. So, I offer to make to all of you and your colleagues a presentation on this article and the citizens hearings. I can present via video conference, and if you pay my fee and my expenses, in person.
28. In the same vein, you can help yourselves and all homeowners and other abusees by distributing the proposal for the unprecedented citizens hearings: When you receive my emails, open each and click "Reply All" and "Send". Each has a different set of email addresses in its respective To: box.

Dare shout "I accuse!"...You may trigger history and enter it.

ADVANCED KNOWLEDGE OF: • computers and their use for word processing, graphics composition, presentations, and research; and for developing IT products to audit cases through statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of opinions to give lawyers an informational advantage

189. significance of federal circuit judges disposing of 93% of appeals in decisions “on procedural grounds [i.e., the pretext of “lack of jurisdiction”], unsigned, unpublished, by consolidation, without comment”, which are unresearched, reasonless, ad-hoc, arbitrary, fiat-like orders, in practice unappealable(OL2:453);
190. to receive ‘justice services’(OL2:607) parties pay courts filing fees, which constitute consideration, whereby a contract arises between them to be performed by the judges, who know that they will in most cases not even read their briefs(OL2:608§A), so that courts engage in false advertisement, fraud in the inducement, and breach of contract(OL2:609§2);
191. Justiceship Nominee Judge Neil Gorsuch said, “An attack on one of our brothers and sisters of the robe is an attack on all of us”: judges’ gang mentality and abusive hitting back(OL2:546);
192. fair criticism of judges who fail to “avoid even the appearance of impropriety”(jur:68^{123a});
193. abuse-enabling clerks(OL2:687), who fear arbitrary removal without recourse(jur:30§1);
194. law clerks’ vision at the end of their clerking for a judge of the latter’s glowing letter of recommendation (OL2:645§B) to a potential employer morally blinds them to their being used by the judge as executioners of his or her abuse;
195. judges dismiss 99.82% of complaints against them(jur:10-14; OL2:548), thus arrogating to themselves impunity by abusing their self-disciplining authority(jur:21§a);
196. escaping the futility of suing judges(OL2:713, 609§1): the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy to stir up the public into holding them accountable and liable to compensation(OL2:581);
197. how law professors and lawyers act in self-interest to cover up for judges so as to spare themselves and their schools, cases, and firms retaliation(jur:81§1; Lsch:17§C): their system of harmonious interests against the interests of the parties and the public(OL2:635, 593¶15);
198. turning insiders into Deep Throats(jur:106§C); outsiders into informants(OL2:468); and judges into criers of ‘MeToo! Abusers’(OL2:682¶¶7,8) that issue an I accuse!(jur:98§2) denunciation of judges’ abuse: thinking and acting strategically(OL2:635, 593¶15) to expose judges’ abuse by developing allies who want to become Workers of Justice(OL2:687), as opposed to being enforcers of abuse or enablers by endorsement or willful ignorance or blindness;
199. two unique national stories, not to replace a rogue judge, but to topple an abusive judiciary:
 - a. Follow the money! as judges grab(OL2:614), conceal(jur:65^{107a,c}), and launder(105²¹³) it;
 - b. The Silence of the Judges: their warrantless, 1st Amendment freedom of speech, press, and assembly-violative interception of people’s emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics(OL2:582§C;OL3:1228);
 - 1) made all the more credible by Former CBS Reporter Sharyl Attkisson’s $35 million suit against the Department of Justice for its illegal intrusion into her computers to spy on her ground-breaking investigation and embarrassing reporting(OL2:612§b);
 - 2) by using Information Technology examination and statistical analysis, such interception and contents-based suppression can be exposed, which will provoke a scandal graver than that resulting from Edward Snowden’s revelations of NSA’s massive illegal collection of only non-personally identifiable metadata(OL2:583§3);
 - 3) the exposure can be bankrolled as discreetly as Peter Thiel, co-founder of PayPal, bank-rolled the suit of Hulk Hogan against the tabloid Gawker for invasion of privacy and thereby made it possible to prosecute and win a judgment for more than $140 million(OL2:528);

- 4) principles can be asserted and money made by exposing judges' interception;
200. launching a Harvey Weinstein-like(jur:4¶¶10-14) generalized media investigation into judges' abuse of power as their institutionalized modus operandi; conducted also by journalists and me with the benefit of the numerous leads(OL:194§E) that I have gathered;
201. Black Robed Predators(OL:85) or the making of a documentary as an original video content by a media company or an investigative TV show, with the testimony of judges' victims, clerks, lawyers, faculty, and students; and crowd funding to attract to its making and viewing the crowd that advocate honest judiciaries and the victims of judges' abuse of power;
202. promoting the unprecedented to turn judges' abuse of power into a key mid-term elections issue and thereafter insert it in the national debate:
 - a. the holding by journalists, newsanchors, media outlets, and law, journalism, business, and IT schools in their own commercial, professional, and public interest as We the People's loudspeakers of nationally and statewide televised citizens hearings(OL2:675§2, 580§2) on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse;
 - b. a forensic investigation by Information Technology experts to determine whether judges intercept the communications of their critics(OL3:1228; OL2:633§D, OL2:582§C);
 - c. suits by individual parties and class actions to recover from judges, courts, and judiciaries filing fees paid by parties as consideration for 'justice services'(OL2:607) offered by the judges although the latter knew that it was mathematically(OL2:608§A; 457§D) impossible for them to deliver those services to all filed cases; so the judges committed false advertisement and fraud in the inducement to the formation of service contracts, and thereafter breach of contract by having their court and law clerks perfunctorily dispose of cases by filling out "dumping forms"(OL2:608¶5);
 - d. suits by clients to recover from their lawyers attorneys' fees charged for prosecuting cases that the lawyers knew or should have known(jur:90§§b, c) the judges did not have the manpower to deliver, or the need or the incentive to deal with personally, whereby the lawyers committed fraud by entering with their clients into illusory contracts that could not obtain the sought-for 'justice services'; and
 - e. suits in the public interest to recover the public funds paid to judges who have failed to earn their salaries by routinely not putting in an honest day's work, e.g., closing their courts before 5:00 p.m., thus committing fraud on the public and inflicting injury in fact on the parties who have been denied justice through its delay(cf. OL2:571¶24a);
203. how parties can join forces to combine and search their documents for communality points (OL:274-280; 304-307) that permit the detection of patterns of abuse by one or more judges, which patterns the parties can use to persuade journalists to investigate their claims of abuse;
204. the development of my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which as of 1 February 2024, had 49,545+ subscribers, into:
 - a. a clearinghouse for complaints against judges uploaded by the public;
 - b. a research center for professionals and parties(OL2:575) to search documents for the most persuasive evidence of abuse: patterns of abuse by the same judge presiding over their cases, the judges of the same court, and the judges of a judiciary; and
 - c. the showroom and shopping portal of a multidisciplinary academic and business venture (jur:119§§1-4). It can be the precursor of the institute of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy attached to a top university or established by a consortium of media outlets and academic institutions(jur:130§5);

205. a tour of presentations(OL:197§G) by me sponsored by you on:

- a. judges' abuse(jur:5§3; OL:154 ¶ 3);
- b. development of software to conduct fraud and forensic accounting(OL:42, 60); and to perform thanks to artificial intelligence a novel type of statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of judges' decisions and other writings(jur:131§b) to detect bias and disregard of the requirements of due process and equal protection of the law;
- c. promoting the participation of the audience in the investigation(OL:115) into judges' abuse; and their development of local chapters of investigators/researchers that coalesce into a Tea Party-like single issue, civic movement(jur:164§9) for holding judges accountable and liable to their victims: the People's Sunrise(OL:201§J);
- d. announcement of a Continuing Legal Education course, a webinar, a seminar, and a writing contest(*>ddc:1), which can turn the audience into clients and followers;

206. a multimedia, multidisciplinary public conference(jur:97§1; *>dcc:13§C) on judges' abuses held at a top university(OL2:452) to pioneer the reporting thereon in our country and abroad;

the call of the constitutional convention(OL:136§3) that 34 states have petitioned Congress to convene since April 2, 2014, satisfying the amending provisions of the Constitution, Article V.

Two blocs of email addresses of journalists, media outlets, professors, and students who can be persuaded to hold UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse of power.

Place each in the To: box of separate emails containing your story of abuse that you have suffered or witnessed. You can easily write it in up to 500 words by applying the two-phase method. By so doing, your story will be informative, accurate, and verifiable by those who can enable you to tell it at the hearings.[‡]
