Blurbs and abstracts of cases for joint prosecution and publication by lawyers, journalists, multidisciplinary experts, and professor and student concerning large numbers of people who have suffered or witnessed abuse by holders of power who are unaccountable and thus wield it risklessly‡

1. This article contains the summarizing blurbs (§A) and detailed abstracts (§B) of cases ripe for collective representation. Its purpose is to form one or more teams to prosecute from any to all of them. Prosecuting any of them, as opposed to representing a single and up to now pro se, is a qualitatively different business proposal that offers more appealing financial and reputational rewards.
2. We are in the midst of a hotly contested presidential campaign; a fast-approaching Election Day; and the scandal of corruption in the NY City administration, the NY Police Department, and the school chancellery exposed by the US Attorney and NY City district attorneys.
3. The first three blurbs/abstracts deal with corruption, all the more credible because related to the scandal. It affects so many people that its exposure by my articles published by a national media outlet can force politicians to comment on it. The ensuing scandal will implicate NY State and City, and the Federal Judiciary with its national jurisdiction. It can bring about ‘an October surprise’. This is realistic: “Scandal sells”, so, the outlets have an interest in publishing those articles.
4. Such publication could allay lawyers’ understandable fear of exposing judges’ corruption. It can also afford lawyers a basis for explaining to their clients how they can demand compensation for the injury that the corruption has inflicted on them.
5. Moreover, lawyers should be reminded that for exposing corruption among the U.S. Supreme Court justices, ProPublica won a Pulitzer Prize. In the same vein, it has become acceptable for Congress to investigate and for prosecutors to bring to trial even a former and a sitting president and their aides. See also a list of other top media outlets together with the blurbs of their investigations into corruption in state and federal judiciaries (OL3:1693§B; App.6:30§24 or thereunder).
6. Therefore, the publication of my key articles, whose links are in the first three blurbs/abstracts can make your submission of my cases to your network lawyers more appealing. But it is also reasonable to expect that those lawyers would have an interest in bringing my articles to the attention of acquaintances of theirs in a position to publish them.
7. Those key articles are already written and, thus, reviewable. I can edit them as requested for publication. So are other articles that provide additional information on specific issues; they are downloadable through their corresponding blue words. They and many other already written articles can be downloaded and reviewed for publication.
8. As incentive for, or as amplifier of their impact after, their publication, those articles can be presented at a press conference and on a tour (§18) of law, journalism, and IT/AI schools, media outlets, public interest entities, and ‘chapters of abusees’. The tour will allow us to present that new practice of law and a new form of journalism, i.e., representative journalism (OL3:1699<sup>3</sup>).
  - a. This new form of journalism will represent large numbers of people who individually cannot defend themselves, thus falling prey to big unaccountable abusive entities. It will join forces ad hoc with media and academic entities, lawyers, and experts that have the necessary investigative resources and specialized knowledge to represent the abusees in court, as by filing class actions with civil RICO counts; and lobby on their behalf in Congress, and state and local lawmaking bodies for official investigations, legislation, and law enforcement.

Representative journalists will grow their readership and revenue through concrete actions for “Making Money While Doing Justice” as they pursue The Business of Justice.

9. You and your lawyers can also see many of those articles on my website, Judicial Discipline Reform, at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. The articles that I have posted there have attracted so many webvisitors and elicited such a positive response that as of 10 November 2024, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 52,574.
10. Those articles are supported by my three-volume study<sup>*†♣</sup> of judges and their judiciaries, the product of my professional legal research and writing, and strategic thinking, titled:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting<sup>*†♣</sup>

11. The subscribers to my website are people who read and even subscribe to read more. They are not pro ses, for pro ses do not read. Rather, they are likely to be educated, financially well-off, and influencers. They have shown interest in the exposure of abuse of power, especially by public officers, in general, and judges, in particular; obtaining collective compensation; and promoting reform in holding those who exercise public power and administer justice accountable and liable. They can be expected to be interested in the prosecution of my cases and support it.
12. In the same vein, my website subscribers constitute the initial clientele base for the commercial development of my site. That is why I am interested in contacting venture capitalists who may invest for profit in such development, as described hereunder (§C).
13. The key articles can inform the national public of, and so profoundly outrage it at, the abusers of power as to induce academe and media outlets to implement my proposal for holding unprecedented citizens hearings.
  - a. These hearings will be held at university auditoriums, media stations, and over the Internet; and monitored by professors, journalists, multidisciplinary experts, and students. They will offer people the opportunity to do what is their driving determination: to seek justice, vindication, and compensation by telling their stories of the abuse that they have suffered or witnessed. The hearings can provoke public outrage so intense as to force politicians in Congress and the state legislatures to conduct official hearings and investigations.
14. A national public informed and outraged through the published articles and the citizens hearings can compel politicians to undertake transformative reform in politics, the judicial and health systems, and the relation between giant companies and dwarf customers.
15. To that end, I offer to make to you and your guests a presentation of these cases, if here in NYC, in person; and if my expenses and fees are paid, anywhere else; otherwise, via video conference.
  - a. The presentation will explain how lawyers, journalists, multidisciplinary experts, and venture capitalists can practice representative journalism(OL3:1707endnote6) and form one or several joint ventures to prosecute from one to all of my cases.
  - b. They can institute individual lawsuits as well as class and non-class aggregate actions to hold officers accountable for abuse of power, enterprise corruption, racketeering, conspiracy, breach of contract, deprivation of property, liberty, and civil rights under color of law, etc.; and liable for treble and punitive damages, and attorneys' fees.
  - c. The team members can expect to earn not only significant financial, but also moral rewards, such as to be recognized by abusees and the rest of a grateful nation as Champions of Justice. So can you.

A. Blurbs of cases for joint prosecution as class actions by a team

1. (cf. ¶9↓) Federal judges intercept people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics, as shown by a statistical analysis.
2. (cf. ¶10↓) Indictments fabricated on false and insufficient evidence by prosecutors and police officers, and covered up by criminal term judges, administrative judges, and the judges of the NY State Court of Appeals, which is the highest court in NY.
3. (cf. ¶11↓) The Math of Abuse is a mathematical demonstration that judges do not read most briefs. It can cause a flood of actions for breach of contract, false advertisement, fraud, dereliction of duty, remand for new trial, null and void case disposition by clerks not vested with judicial power, which is not assignable; demand for refund of filing fees and compensation for causing wasteful litigation expenses; etc.
4. (cf. ¶12↓) Judges in the Federal Judiciary systematically dismiss 100% of the complaints filed against fellow judges. Thereby they abuse the self-disciplinary authority that Congress has granted them. By exonerating each other, they ensure their own impunity and elevate themselves to a position that nobody is entitled to occupy in "government by the rule of law": Judges Above the Law.
5. (cf. ¶13↓) The Follow the Money! and Follow the Wire! investigations(jur:102§a; OL:194§E) will apply forensic research techniques, e.g., Fraud and Forensic Accounting, big data search, and AI, to discover assets that judges have grabbed, concealed, evaded taxes on, and handled through money laundering(OL:1).
6. (cf. ¶14↓) Judges' bankruptcy fraud scheme deals with $100s of bl. annually. It is covered up by the circuit judges who appoint the bankruptcy judges in their circuit for a 14-year term(28 U.S.C. §152) and can reappoint them if the bankruptcy judges share and make "cronies"(jur:32§§2-6) pay-to-play.
7. (cf. ¶15↓) Medicare works to maintain in, and increase, its network of thousands of medical services and equipment providers. Together they abuse many of its 67 million insureds, who appeal, if at all, their decisions pro se, for they are sick and cannot afford lawyers. They have little chance of prevailing against the lawyers of Medicare and its providers. The recovery can be huge.
8. (cf. ¶16↓) Walgreens had $139.5 bl. in revenue in 2020 and 277,000 employees in 2021. Its purchase-incentivizing program is Cash Rewards, a bait and switch scam. A class action can hold it liable and serve as a test case for suing giant companies that abuse dwarf clients one at a time.

B. Abstracts: a more detailed presentation of the cases for joint prosecution

9. Federal judges intercept people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics, as shown by a statistical analysis. They have the technical expertise and equipment infrastructure to run a national IT network that allows filing, storing, and retrieving hundreds of millions of briefs, motions, records, petitions, applications, orders, decisions, reports, statistics, dockets, schedules, and emails to and from their case management and electronic case filing system(CM/ECF) administered by PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records).
  - a. The judges wield devastating decisional and retaliatory power over Internet-controlling companies(Lsch:17§C), which they can refrain from wielding if the companies assist them in their interception(OL:5fn7).
  - b. The U.S. Postal Service's "Informed Delivery" service shows that the technology to intercept mail is in use(OL3:1304¶20). Register to be emailed every morning a photo of the front side of your mail for that day. Amazing computing power is needed to identify your mail since "The Postal Service processed and delivered an average of 318 million mail pieces daily".

- c. All public power belongs to We the People in a democracy. No abuse of it will outrage us more than the exposure of judges' violation of our most cherished constitutional freedoms, i.e., of speech, press, and assembly -on social media too-. Informing the public of such violation will provoke Snowden/NSA-like national outrage.
- d. Exposing such interception will provoke a constitutional crisis -which branch will prosecute the judiciary?-, launch a flood of lawsuits by abusees demanding compensation; may lead to a constitutional convention; etc.

10. Fabricated indictments. As a lawyer and grand juror, I had the knowledge and was in a position to realize that the assistant district attorney and his supervisor(ADAs) had no evidence supporting their charge of murder brought against two defendants, and neither did the police officers who testified against them.

- a. When I questioned what they were doing, the ADAs referred me to the grand jury judge, who discharged me from the jury peremptorily.
- b. I have mailed complaint letters -see Exhibits 1-4- to the county and state administrative judges; the Judicial Conduct Commission; the NYPD commissioners and their Internal Affairs Bureau chiefs; each of the judges of NYS Court of Appeals; the indicted NYC Mayor and his probed aides; public advocates; city council members; et al. All of them have covered for their colleagues.
- c. Lawyers can jointly defend thousands of 'fabricated indictees' by impugning their indictments; and win punitive damages. Scandal sells.

11. The Math of Abuse. This is a mathematical demonstration that the vast majority of case and motion briefs filed in the courts are not read by the judges. It is based on official statistics of the NY Supreme Court Appellate Division and those in the Annual Report of the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, which is required to be filed with Congress as a public document (28 U.S.C. §§604(a)(3-4); (h)(2)).

- a. Judges dispose of the brief-related cases and motions by having their clerks rubberstamp reasonless, unresearched, fiat-like 5¢ dumping forms. Their blanks are filled out with case-identifying data; and their boilerplate does not contain findings of facts or arguments of law.
- b. The forms' only operative words are "affirmed", if the case was a decision appealed from; or "denied", if slapped on a substantive motion, e.g., one that argues the rights and duties of a party, the basis of a charge, or the admissibility of evidence, as opposed to a procedural motion, such as one concerning the extension of a deadline or the substitution of an attorney. The status quo remains, for no judges' action was needed, only clerks' complicit obedience.
- c. Filled out dumping forms are not judicial decisions, but rather arbitrary, capricious, and ad hoc fiats to dump off cases in judges' caseload that based on a list of judges' criteria their clerks must dispose of as 'deadweight'.
- d. Many dumping-form fiats can be found on courts' websites, courts' research rooms, some 'Miscellaneous' reporters -printed collections of decisions-, and legal notice newspapers, e.g., New York Law Journal.
- e. Dumping-form fiats are such an abuse of power that judges may even conceal them under the "Not for publication" rubberstamp. Consequently, they may not be entered into the public record by either the clerk of court or the county clerk. The parties may have received a copy by mail; been informed thereof when they called to ask about the status of their cases; or found it after they were told by a clerk to come to the court's in-take room to search for the decision in their case in the chest of drawers full of decisions not yet entered.

- f. "Not for publication" rubberstamping and dumping-form fiats are means of judges not making public pro-forma decisions of which they are ashamed due to their perfunctoriness or to their having made them in their self-interest of preserving or increasing the value of their shares in one of the parties before them.
- g. A contract for service is formed when a party pays the advertised brief filing fee to have its case or motion decided judicially, i.e., based on the brief and the application of the law. This requires that the brief be read by a judge, who were vetted publicly for their competence and honesty. Clerks were not; so, judicial decisional authority cannot be delegated to them.
- h. By instead issuing a dumping-form fiat, judges commit bait and switch false advertisement, breach of contract, dereliction of duty, and fraud on the public.
- i. They mislead lawyers and their clients and waste the cost of preparation by granting a petition for 15 minutes of oral argument but at the hearing cut it to only 1 minute!; and make decisions on the fly about matters that they barely know for failure to read the briefs.
- j. An informed and outraged group or class of parties so injured in fact can generate enough public pressure to force judges to recognize that those pro-forma decisions have the appearance of a conflict of interests; declare them null and void; call for a new trial; and recuse themselves from the cases. Cf. The Wall Street Journal's serial article:

- 1) beginning on 28 September 2021, with "131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest"; and

- 2) followed on 2 November 2021, by "Hidden Interests - Federal Judge Files Recusal Notices in 138 Cases After WSJ Queries. Rodney Gilstrap initially argued he didn't violate financial-conflicts law" (App6:30entry449 or thereunder).

- 12. Federal judges' systematic dismissal of complaints against their fellow federal judges. They abuse their self-discipline authority under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980(28 U.S.C. §§351-364) by dismissing 100% of complaints filed against any of their own and denying 100% of petitions to review those dismissals.

- a. Judges have institutionalized the implicit or explicit complicit agreement for mutual assured protection through their reciprocal exoneration from all complaints: 'Today I exempt you from the complaint against you, and tomorrow you exempt me and my friends from any complaint against us, no matter the abuse's nature, extent, gravity, or harm.' Judges' reciprocal exoneration corrupts judicial integrity as judges look after each other rather than to administer fair and impartial justice in accordance to law.
- b. Judges have defrauded the public by pretending that they will process complaints fairly and impartially while in fact they dismiss the complaints to cover for each other as an integral part of their interpersonal relationship. By covering for the abuse that was committed, they encourage more abuse. That is how they have become accessories after and before the fact.

- 13. The Follow the Money! and Follow the Wire! investigations. These investigations apply forensic research techniques, e.g., Fraud and Forensic Accounting(FFA), big data search, and AI(jur:102§a; OL:194§E), to discover assets that judges have grabbed, concealed, evaded taxes on, handled through money laundering(OL:1); etc.

- a. Justice Thomas was shown to have received more than $4 million in gifts from billionaires with business before the Supreme Court. He has failed to declare those gifts in his annual financial disclosure report mandated under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 (5 U.S. Code, Appendix). He refuses to recuse himself from cases related to them.
- b. The other justices and lower court judges abstain from exhibiting the moral courage necessary to criticize him, let alone demand that he resign. Their reciprocal cover-up through silence is due to the capacity of each of them to bring down all the others as accessories before and after the fact, for their willful ignorance and blindness, culpable indifference, dereliction of duty to safeguard the integrity of the judicial system, obstruction of justice, their own abuse of power, about which they may even have boasted (jur:88§§a-e), etc.
- c. The justices and judges tacitly shout at each other, ‘If you help them take me down, I’ll bring you with me!’ As a result of their complicit silence, they are beholden to each other. Their reciprocal cover-up is their institutionalized modus operandi. Their silence and cover-ups are the pervasive means of controlling and corrupting the judicial system. See the analysis of the official statistics(OL2:455§§B, D) and hereunder.
- d. Judges' abuse of power and cover-ups can be prosecuted under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO; 18 U.S.C. §1961 (U.S. Code of federal criminal law) and its version in the law of the several states; cf. NY Enterprise Corruption Law.

14. Judges’ bankruptcy fraud scheme. Bankruptcy judges are appointed to a term of 14 years (28 U.S.C. §152) by the circuit judges of the circuit where they will sit, who can reappoint them if the bankruptcy judges share and make “cronies”(jur:32§§2-6) pay-to-play.

- a. Those circuit judges will decide any appeal from the decisions of their bankruptcy judges. Appointers loath to reverse the decisions of their appointees, which incriminates them as having appointed an incompetent or corrupt judicial candidate. Rather, appointers cover up for, and do not appreciate lawyers who attack, their appointees.
- b. The majority of bankrupt parties are individuals, as opposed to companies. Almost all of them appear pro se, for they lack the money to mount costly and time-consuming appeals. They also lack knowledge of the intricacies of bankruptcy law. Thus, appeals from bankruptcy judges’ decisions are extremely rare. What the bankruptcy judge says, goes.
- c. In most of the 90 bankruptcy courts across the country -all of which are federal- there is only one, two, or three bankruptcy judges. Thus, bankruptcy lawyers, whom companies must retain to represent them, hardly ever challenge their decisions, whereby they would risk the retaliation of the judge presiding over their case as well as that of his/her fellow judges when they preside over their cases and teach the lesson: ‘Don’t you ever mess with any of us!’
- d. Moreover, a bankruptcy judge can have a bankruptcy trustee removed from all the trustee’s thousands of cases by filing a complaint against him in one single case(28 CFR (Code of Federal Regulations) Part 58.6(a)(4)). Obviously, the trustee has every interest in never even appearing to challenge or otherwise displeasing the judge, and in showing his gratitude for every day that the judge allows him to keep his job.
- e. A bankruptcy trustee wields enormous power in his dealings with the debtor: He recommends to the judge what assets to exempt from distribution to the creditors and the dollar percentage to which debts must be paid. Appreciation for a recommended lower percentage may be shown with a kickback, as may be the judge's approval of the recommendation.

- f. In 2005, Congress found an “absence of effective oversight”, and in 1979, “cronyism”, in the bankruptcy system.(jur:32§§2-6) The result was and still is the unaccountability of the system cronies, e.g., circuit and bankruptcy judges, the bankruptcy trustees, and the service providers that they hire, such as accountants, appraisers, warehousemen, and lawyers. They take care of, and cover for, each other, thus evolving into a tight-knit racketeering enterprise.
  - g. Held unaccountable by the bankruptcy judges, the cronies are free to run risklessly an abusive bankruptcy petition mill. Thereby money becomes accessible by approving for processing every petition for protection from creditors regardless of its merits under bankruptcy law. After all, only if petitions are in the system can the cronies grab the money through their bankruptcy fraud scheme.
  - h. Consequently, bankruptcy judges exercise unaccountable power over $100s of billions every year. Their ‘absolute power’ over so much money degenerates into ‘absolute corruption’ (jur:27fn28). Their unaccountability enables them to run risklessly their bankruptcy fraud scheme and makes its workings understandable.
  - i. These are some of the mechanisms that provide motive, means, and opportunity for abuse of power in the bankruptcy courts and their running of a bankruptcy fraud scheme. The scheme has millions of victims, namely, the debtors and creditors in one-off cases, who are unlikely to be among the cronies. The latter are repeat players and thus, the beneficiaries.
  - j. An investigation must determine whether bankruptcy and circuit judges abuse the Federal Judiciary's national IT network to illegally transfer, conceal from individuals and the IRS, and launder onshore and offshore money that they have grabbed through the scheme(OL:1).
  - k. A group of lawyers, journalists, multidisciplinary experts, professors, and students can join forces to work as a team to expose the schemers. The team members can shake to the core not only the bankruptcy system, but also the rest of the judicial system that appoints and covers for bankruptcy judges, and abets and benefits from their bankruptcy fraud scheme. In the process, the team can earn a lot of money and make a name for themselves.
15. Medicare abuses the power that it derives from administering the 2nd largest entitlement budget, i.e., $900+ bl., for the benefit of its more than 67 million insureds. It has thousands of HMOs, other health insurance entities, and medical services and equipment providers in its network.
- a. Medicare has an interest in attracting to, and maintaining in its, network the largest number of medical services providers, which makes joining and remaining in Medicare more appealing for potential and current insureds.
  - b. But it is also in its interest to pay the fewest claims by, or on behalf of, the insureds. Those entities that receive a lump sum of money from Medicare to manage in line with certain guidelines, also have an interest in paying the fewest claims.
  - c. For their part, providers have an interest in receiving not just what Medicare pays according to its schedules, although they agreed contractually to accept as full payment the amount set forth in the schedules. So, the providers bill the insureds for the balance unpaid by Medicare, never mind that such balance billing is legally prohibited.
  - d. However, if Medicare were too strict in enforcing the balance billing prohibition, it would run the risk of providers quitting its network or even not joining it. As result, it looks the other way and lets its network providers balance bill its insureds.

- e. The insureds can hardly do anything about it because they are sick and burdened with medical bills. Hence, they cannot afford a lawyer. Since they do not know the law, they cannot represent themselves effectively pro se. So, they are abused by Medicare and its providers.
  - f. The recovery for holding Medicare and its providers accountable and liable for their abuse of insureds can be huge. A successful class action or perhaps only informing the public about, and outraging it at, the abusers, can force transformative change in not only Medicare, but also the rest of the national health care system.
16. Walgreens is described as having had $139.5 billion in revenue in 2020 and 277,000 employees in 2021. Its purchase-incentivizing program is Cash Rewards.
- a. It is a misnomer, for rewards are not earned by paying in cash and cannot be redeemed for cash despite the statement on its false advertisement: "Save time. Redeem your rewards instantly at checkout". But at checkout you cannot pay your total purchase with your Cash Rewards. You can only apply one single "tier" of $1, $3, $5, $10, or $20 that is equal to or less than the total purchase cost. The balance must be paid with your money. Your rewards, though earned, are not yours, for they expire. Cash Rewards are a bait and switch scam.
  - b. Walgreens has shown its propensity for abuse: For its involvement in the opioid epidemic, 'It will pay \$4.95 billion, plus more than $750 million in fees for attorneys and costs'.
  - c. This is a test case for going after big businesses that make substantial gains by defrauding millions of customers of small amounts that do not justify the cost of individual prosecution.

C. Potential impact of the key articles published by a national media outlet

17. The key articles of the above blurbs and abstracts have the potential for opening the floodgates for tens of thousands of motions by individual lawyers or better yet, by our ad hoc teams:
- a. to vacate decisions fraudulently issued by judges although The Math of Abuse proves that they could not have had the material time to read the briefs and research and apply the law;
  - b. to remand for a new trial or to enter judgment against the party in which the judge had an interest if the party knew or through due diligence would have known of the judge's interest;
  - c. to be compensated by judges and their judiciaries for the waste of effort, time, and money needed to write a brief -an appellate brief can cost between $20,000 and $100,000- and the foreseeable, thus intentional frustration of the reasonable expectation that the brief would be used as the source of facts and law for judges to administer justice although the judges knew that they would not read them so that requiring a brief and a filing fee was done in bad faith;
  - d. to recuse themselves for engaging in a pattern of coordinated abuse of power, fraud on the public, dereliction of duty, intentional infliction of emotional and financial distress, etc;
  - e. to unscramble the transactions and events based on the now vacated decisions so as to place the parties in the position in which they would be if those decisions had never been issued and to compensate the parties for the unscrambling and when it is not possible; etc.
18. These motions will give rise to a new and high-stakes law practice: public accountability and liability practice. Students who learn in a law clinic to argue them may develop an expertise that they can market to recruiters or use as the foundation of a boutique law firm after graduation. Law schools can attract applicants by making a name for teaching that "Nobody is Above the Law".

1. Downloading and navigating the volumes:

- Download the volume files using MS Edge, Firefox, or Chrome.
- Open the downloaded files using Adobe Acrobat Reader, which is available for free at <https://acrobat.adobe.com/us/en/acrobat/pdf-reader.html>.
- In each downloaded file, go to the Menu bar >View >Navigation Panels >Bookmarks panel and use its bookmarks, which make navigating to the contents' numerous(* † ♣ >blue footnote-like references) very easy.

2. Downloading articles

- The three-volume study* † ♣ of judges and their judiciaries contain many articles that can be downloaded as

♣ http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero\_Appendixes1-7.pdf

3. To search for articles on a given topic, go up to this file's menu bar, click the binocular icon, and in the search page that opens type in its search box one keyword at a time. In the return list, click on the phrase that contains the keyword to go to the full entry containing it.
4. If a link in an entry hereunder does not download the corresponding individual file, download the volume whose range of page numbers contains the number of the file's first page indicated in the entry; e.g. If in entry 222. the link http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-FBI\_SDNY.pdf fails to download its corresponding individual file, download Volume III, whose page range OL3:1144-1733+ contains OL3:1712, and scroll down to page 1712.
5. A similar search can be done by downloading each of the volumes and searching in each one at a time. Begin your search in Volume III, then II, and finally I because every downloaded file contains references to previous related files.

OL3:1725; proposal to the non-for-profit investigative news organization The Intercept to investigate two stories of abuse of power that affects practically everybody, namely, fabricated indictments (see supra) and the interception of people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those critical of judges, and thereby instill in everybody the feeling that it is investigating their own story and that everybody's donation will make such investigation possible; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-The\_Intercept.pdf

229. OL3:1728; proposal to National Catholic Reporter Executive Editor James V. Grimaldi, formerly a reporter at The Wall Street Journal and three time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for investigative journalism, to publish some articles already written that can inform the national public of corruption in the federal and state judiciaries so outrageous as to have the effect of ‘an October surprise scoop’ whereby the public pressures politicians into taking a stand on it, thus impacting the last days of the presidential campaign and the outcome of the election; <http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-NCRExecEdJGrimaldi.pdf>
230. OL3:1733; blurbs and abstracts of cases and corresponding articles with the potential to outrage an informed national public, and proposed for joint prosecution by lawyers, journalists, multidisciplinary experts, professors and students of law, journalism, IT, and business schools; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-blurbs&abstracts\_of\_cases&articles.pdf

OL3:1741; Proposal to business development officers and venture capitalists to turn a successful law and business website with 52,174 subscribers, which provides news, critical analysis, and a strategy for realistic action, into a commercial undertaking that sells goods and services guided by the principle “Making Money While Doing The Business of Justice”; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-website\_business\_development.pdf
232. OL3:1742; a table of socially acceptable talking points paired to clips available on the Internet where Trump is seen and heard making statements ever more profane, vulgar, supportive of violence, dismissive of the Constitution, and assertive of his own “absolute power” and unaccountability, so that he cannot be reasonably expected to hold judges accountable for their abuse of power, http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Democrats\_October\_Surprise.pdf
233. OL3:1748; proposal to ALM to publish the key articles of my cases ripe for class action and leverage its knowledge of the class action and mass tort bars to form teams of lawyers, journalists, and multidisciplinary experts to prosecute them for-profit and in the public interest, thus giving rise to a new form of journalism: representative journalism, which can challenge the Establishment and become a powerhouse of American governance; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-ALM\_RepABronstad\_Critical\_Mass.pdf

B. Subjects for commissioning one or a series of articles

251. judges' unaccountability(*>OL:265) and their riskless abuse of power(*>jur:5§3; OL:154§3);
252. statistical analysis for the public(†>OL2:455§§B-E, 608§A) and for researchers(jur:131§b);
253. significance of federal circuit judges disposing of 93% of appeals in decisions "on procedural grounds [i.e., the pretext of "lack of jurisdiction"]", unsigned, unpublished, by consolidation, without comment", which are unresearched, reasonless, ad-hoc, arbitrary, fiat-like orders, in practice unappealable(OL2:453);
254. to receive 'justice services'(OL2:607) parties pay courts filing fees, which constitute consideration, whereby a contract arises between them to be performed by the judges, who know that they will in most cases not even read their briefs(OL2:608§A), so that courts engage in false advertisement, fraud in the inducement, and breach of contract(OL2:609§2);
255. Justiceship Nominee Judge Neil Gorsuch said, "An attack on one of our brothers and sisters of the robe is an attack on all of us": judges' gang mentality and abusive hitting back(OL2:546);
256. fair criticism of judges who fail to "avoid even the appearance of impropriety"(jur:68<sup>123a</sup>);
257. abuse-enabling clerks(OL2:687), who fear arbitrary removal without recourse(jur:30§1);
258. law clerks' vision is fixated on the end of their clerkship, when they must ask the judge for whom they clerked for a glowing letter of recommendation (OL2:645§B) to a potential employer, which can bring in a signing-up bonus of hundreds of thousands of dollars; clerks are beholden to judges' power to write or not to write that letter, which morally blinds clerks to their being used by judges as executioners of their abuse;
259. judges dismiss 99.82% of complaints against them(jur:10-14; OL2:548), thus arrogating to themselves impunity by abusing their self-disciplining authority(jur:21§a);
260. escaping the futility of suing judges(OL2:713, 609§1): the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy to stir up the public into holding them accountable and liable to compensation(OL2:581);
261. how law professors and lawyers act in self-interest to cover up for judges so as to spare themselves and their schools, cases, and firms retaliation(jur:81§1; Lsch:17§C): their system of harmonious interests against the interests of the parties and the public(OL2:635, 593¶15);
262. turning insiders into Deep Throats(jur:106§C); outsiders into informants(OL2:468); and judges into criers of 'Me Too! Abusers'(OL2:682¶¶7, 8) that issue an I accuse!(jur:98§2) denunciation of judges' abuse: thinking and acting strategically(OL2:635, 593¶15) to expose judges' abuse by developing allies who want to become Workers of Justice(OL2:687), as opposed to being enforcers of abuse or enablers by endorsement or willful ignorance or blindness;
263. two unique national stories, not to replace a rogue judge, but to topple an abusive judiciary:
  - a. Follow the money! as judges grab(OL2:614), conceal(jur:65<sup>107a,c</sup>), and launder(105<sup>213</sup>) it;
  - b. The Silence of the Judges: their warrantless, 1st Amendment freedom of speech, press, and assembly-violative interception of people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics(OL2:440; OL2:582 § C; OL2:395, 929, 1081; OL3:1228);
    - 1) made all the more credible by former CBS reporter Sharyl Attkisson's $35 million suit against the U.S. Department of Justice for its illegal intrusion into her computers to spy on her ground-breaking investigation and embarrassing reporting(OL2:612§b);
    - 2) by using Information Technology examination and statistical analysis, such interception and contents-based suppression can be exposed, which will provoke a scandal graver than that resulting from Edward Snowden's revelations of NSA's massive illegal collection of only non-personally identifiable metadata(OL2:583§3);

- 3) the exposure can be bankrolled as discreetly as Peter Thiel, co-founder of PayPal, bankrolled the suit of Hulk Hogan against the tabloid Gawker for invasion of privacy and thereby made it possible to prosecute and win a judgment for more than $140 million(OL2:528);
- 4) principles can be asserted and money made by exposing judges' interception of people's emails and mail;

264. launching a Harvey Weinstein-like(jur:4¶¶10-14) generalized media investigation into judges' abuse of power as their institutionalized modus operandi; conducted also by journalists and me with the benefit of the numerous leads(OL:194§E) that I have gathered;
265. Black Robed Predators(OL:85) or the making of a documentary as an original video content by a media company or an investigative TV show, with the testimony of judges' victims, clerks, lawyers, faculty, and students; and crowd funding to attract to its making and viewing the crowd that advocate honest judiciaries and the victims of judges' abuse of power;
266. promoting the unprecedented to turn judges' abuse of power into a key mid-term elections issue and thereafter insert it in the national debate:
  - a. the holding by journalists, newsanchors, media outlets, and law, journalism, business, and IT schools in their own commercial, professional, and public interest as We the People's loudspeakers of nationally and statewide televised citizens hearings(OL2:675§2, 580§2) on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse;
  - b. a forensic investigation by Information Technology experts to determine whether judges intercept the communications of their critics(OL3:1228; OL2:633§D, OL2:582§C);
  - c. suits by individual parties and class actions to recover from judges, courts, and judiciaries filing fees paid by parties as consideration for 'justice services'(OL2:607) offered by the judges although the latter knew that it was mathematically(OL2:608§A; 457§D) impossible for them to deliver those services to all filed cases; so the judges committed false advertisement and fraud in the inducement to the formation of service contracts, and thereafter breach of contract by having their court and law clerks perfunctorily dispose of cases by filling out "dumping forms"(OL2:608¶5);
  - d. suits by clients to recover from their lawyers attorneys' fees charged for prosecuting cases that the lawyers knew or should have known(jur:90§§b, c) the judges did not have the manpower to deliver, or the need or the incentive to deal with personally, whereby the lawyers committed fraud by entering with their clients into illusory contracts that could not obtain the sought-for 'justice services'; and
  - e. suits in the public interest to recover the public funds paid to judges who have failed to earn their salaries by routinely not putting in an honest day's work, e.g., closing their courts before 5:00 p.m., thus committing fraud on the public and inflicting injury in fact on the parties who have been denied justice through its delay(cf. OL2:571 ¶ 24a);
267. how parties can join forces to combine and search their documents for communality points (OL:274-280; 304-307) that permit the detection of patterns of abuse by one or more judges, which patterns the parties can use to persuade journalists to investigate their claims of abuse;
268. the development of my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which as of 10 November 2024, had 52,574+ subscribers, into:

- a. a clearinghouse for complaints against judges uploaded by the public;
- b. a research center for professionals and parties(OL2:575) to search documents for the most persuasive evidence of abuse: patterns of abuse by the same judge presiding over their cases, the judges of the same court, and the judges of a judiciary; and
- c. the showroom and shopping portal of a multidisciplinary academic and business venture (jur:119 § § 1-4). It can be the precursor of the institute of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy attached to a top university or established by a consortium of media outlets and academic institutions(jur:130 § 5);

269. a tour of presentations(OL:197§G) by me sponsored by you on:

- a. judges' abuse(jur:5§3; OL:154 ¶ 3);
- b. development of software to conduct fraud and forensic accounting(OL:42, 60); and to perform thanks to artificial intelligence a novel type of statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of judges' decisions and other writings(jur:131§b) to detect bias and disregard of the requirements of due process and equal protection of the law;
- c. promoting the participation of the audience in the investigation(OL:115) into judges' abuse; and their development of local chapters of investigators/researchers that coalesce into a Tea Party-like single issue, civic movement(jur:164§9) for holding judges accountable and liable to their victims: the People's Sunrise(OL:201§J);
- d. announcement of a Continuing Legal Education course, a webinar, a seminar, and a writing contest(\*>ddc:1), which can turn the audience into clients and followers;

270. a multimedia, multidisciplinary public conference(jur:97§1; \*>dcc:13§C) on judges' abuses held at a top university(OL2:452) to pioneer the reporting thereon in our country and abroad;

the call of the constitutional convention(OL:136§3) that 34 states have petitioned Congress to convene since April 2, 2014, satisfying the amending provisions of the Constitution, Article V.

451. When a court issues a decision, it is first published in ‘slip form’ or ‘advanced sheets’, that is, separate from any other decision, hence, neither in a book nor a pamphlet.

- a. Thereafter the decisions issued during a period of months are published in a pamphlet.
- b. Finally, the pamphlets are bound in a hardcover volume. A set of such volumes containing the decisions for a number of years is normally referred to as a ‘reporter’ or ‘reports’. One set can cost tens of thousands of dollars.
  - 1) Normally, reporters are enhanced editorially by the publisher, rather than the writing judge or their courts, with a summary; headnotes summarizing the key point of law of a section of the decision; key numbers identifying the same point everywhere in any law book published by the same publisher; historical notes; and references to other cases, pertinent laws and regulations; etc. Those enhancements are practically indispensable to conduct cost-efficient law research. They save an enormous amount of research and reading time.
  - 2) Reporters -or reports- may be available online on a subscription basis. They may also be accessible, whether online or physically, in the library of a court, a law school, a bar association, a law firm, a public library, or a law institute or service, e.g., Legal Information

Institute of Cornell Law School (LII), <https://www.law.cornell.edu/>, and Findlaw, <https://www.findlaw.com/>, provided you are a member; have been granted or have purchased a temporary pass; or there is some measure of public access.

- 3) The decisions for a given court may be published together in their own reporter, such as the U.S. Supreme Court, e.g., <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/search?r=13001&s=KEYWORDSEARCH&q=Supreme+Court+reporter>; or
- 4) the highest state court, such as the New York State Court of Appeals, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Case-Law/New-York-Court-of-Appeals-Reports-2d-and-3d/p/100001560>; or
- 5) the courts of a state, e.g., New York Supplement, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Reporters/New-York-Supplement-2d-and-3d/p/100030135>; search for your state here: <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/search?r=13001&s=KEYWORDSEARCH&q=reporters>; or
- 6) the courts of a region comprising several states, e.g., <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Reporters/Atlantic-Reporterreg-3d/p/100024131>.
- 7) The decisions on a particular area of the law may be published in a reporter; e.g.; commercial law, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Forms/Commercial-Litigation-in-New-York-State-Courts-5th-Vols-2-4H-New-York-Practice-Series/p/106667772>; or bankruptcy, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Case-Law/Westsreg-Bankruptcy-Reporter-National-Reporter-Systemreg/p/100002692>
- 8) The decisions of the federal courts are normally published in volumes separate from the state court decisions. However, there are online subscription plans that provide access to the federal and state decisions concerning a state or a federal circuit; e.g., call Thomson Reuters Customer Service at (800)328-4880 and ask about its plans.

467. The Teflon Robe; Michael Berens and John Shiffman; Thomson Reuters. They journalists found “hardwired judicial corruption”, i.e., corruption that is an integral element of state judiciaries and that intertwines their judges and the conniving state commissions on judicial conduct. Although the latter are duty-bound to supervise the judges, in practice the commissions cover up the judges’ abuse of power by not even investigating, let alone punishing or holding, them liable to the victims of their fraud and dereliction of duty.
