Dear Mr. Grimaldi,[‡]

1. I am so glad that you contacted me!

A. My enormous effort to contact you and your colleagues

2. Indeed, since you wrote your serial article that began with the one titled “131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest” on 28 September 2021 -see my article thereon-, I have sent hundreds of emails to you and your coauthors Mr. Coulter Jones and Joe Palazzolo, and your other colleagues at:

3. More recently, after WSJ published on 9 July 2024, “Insurers Pocketed $50 Billion From Medicare for Diseases No Doctor Treated”, I mailed individualized hardcopies proposing a joint investigation of my Medicare case, which is ripe for class action, to:

coauthors Christopher Weaver, Tom McGinty, Mark Maremont, and Anna Wilde Mathews

4. To no avail: I did not receive even an acknowledgment of receipt of my email or mail. Your reply is the first one that reaches me. Is the reason for that my use for several weeks now of my account at the University of Cambridge in the UK, namely, Dr. Richard.Cordero.Esq @ Cantab . net, as opposed to my accounts at Verizon, Yahoo, and Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org (my website) in the U.S.?

B. Interception of our communications

5. There is probable cause to believe, set forth in my statistical analysis, that emails and mail to and from you and so many other members of the media, schools of journalism and law, lawyers, etc., have been intercepted by those who have the most to lose due to their critics like me, to wit, judges?
6. In fact, I am constantly sending emails to those on my 20,000+ emailing list.

- a. Is it statistically possible that in a country as polarized as ours none of you or them has contacted me to inquire about my leads for investigations into current subjects that have proven their capacity to outrage the public? “Scandal sells” and offers the opportunity to win a Pulitzer Prize, as shown by winner ProPublica on the strength of its articles on corruption by Supreme Court justices.
- b. Is it reasonable to think that all news organizations in the U.S. and abroad, regardless of their size, prestige, and editorial orientation, have the same interest in not pursuing investigations of public officers, including the federal judges that you exposed in your article, that commit and condone “enterprise corruption” to run their “racketeering enterprises”?
- c. Is it likely that nobody is interested in my leads although my articles posted to my website have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 4 October they had caused 52,130 visitors to become subscribers?
- d. My articles are supported by my three-volume study of judges and their judiciaries, titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting* † ♣

- e. If you and your WSJ colleagues have not received my hundreds of emails, you and they have been intercepted. If you feel outraged, so will millions of Republicans, Democrats, Independents, and everybody else whom we can inform that they have been deprived of their most cherished constitutional entitlements: their 1st Amendment ‘freedom of speech, the press, and the right of assembly’.
- f. Federal judges have the technical expertise and infrastructure that enables them to run one of the largest national IT networks in the U.S., allowing the filing, storing, and retrieval of hundreds of millions of briefs, motions, records, petitions, applications, orders, decisions, reports, statistics, dockets, schedules, and emails sent through their case management and electronic case filing system (CM/ECF) administered by PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records).

C. The most propitious time to inform and outrage the public

7. Nothing would outrage the public as much as to be informed by you, me, NCR, and WSJ, how judges intercept people’s emails and mail to detect and suppress those critical of them so as to conceal evidence of their abuse of power that can justify lawmakers in subjecting judges to strict codes of conduct, inspectors general, and the right of We the People, the sovereign source of all public power, to hold all their public servants, including judges, accountable and liable to their masters.
 - a. So are held police officers and their departments; prosecutors and their offices; lawyers and their law firms; priests and their churches; doctors and their hospitals; pharmaceutical companies and their distributing chains of pharmacies; murderous children and their parents; and even a former and a sitting president and their aides. That is required by the “equal protection” and “due process of law” clauses of the 14th and 5th Amendments.
8. This is the optimal time to inform the national public of how it has been injured in fact, as opposed to hypothetically or probably, by judges’ coordinated abuse of power institutionalized as their modus operandi. The last days of the presidential campaign will give the public the opportunity to force candidates and all other politicians(§B) to take a stand on the abuse and its cover-up committed by Chief Justice Roberts and his fellow justices, their former lower court judges, and their state counterparts. The latter are emboldened by the example of abuse committed with impunity by federal judges and expected to be condoned by them if state cases are removed or appealed to the Federal Judiciary.

D. Proposed action

9. Time is of the essence to make an “October surprise” scoop as we approach Election Day. Hence, I respectfully propose the initial publication of some of my already written(§A), and thus reviewable, articles. I can edit as required those referenced in Endnote 3 concerning:

- a. the interception of emails and mail;
- b. indictments fabricated on false and insufficient evidence and condoned by NY City and NY State administrative judges; three successive chief judges and their associate judges of the NYS Court of Appeals; two successive NYPD commissioners and Internal Affairs Bureau chiefs; the indicted NYC Mayor and his probed aides; public advocates; city council members; et al.; and
- c. The Math of Abuse, a mathematical demonstration that judges do not read the overwhelming majority of case and motion briefs filed in their courts. It is based on official statistics of the NY Supreme Court Appellate Division and those in the Annual Report of the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, which is required to be filed with Congress as a public document (28 U.S.C. §§604(a)(3-4); (h)(2)). This article has the potential of opening the floodgates for tens of thousands of motions:
 - 1) to vacate perfunctory decisions fraudulently issued by judges’ clerks on a 5¢ ‘dumping form’, whose blanks are filled out with case-identifying data; whose boilerplate does not discuss either the facts or the law of the case; and whose only operative words are either “affirmed”, to rubberstamp a lower court decision; or “denied”, if slapped on a substantive as opposed to a procedural motion, e.g., one that argues the rights and duties of a party, the basis of a charge, or the admissibility of evidence.
 - a) “Affirmed” and “denied” are labels used by clerks to robotically maintain the status quo since they lack judicial power. Theirs are not reasoned decisions, but rather arbitrary, capricious, and ad hoc fiats to dump off judges’ caseload cases that based on a list of judges’ parameters their clerks must dispose of as ‘deadweight’.
 - b) Many dumping decisions can be found on courts’ websites, courts’ research rooms, some ‘Miscellaneous’ reporters -printed collections of decisions-, and legal notice newspapers, e.g., New York Law Journal.
 - c) Those decisions are such a travesty of justice that judges may stamp on them the “Not for publication” label. Consequently, they may not be entered into the public record by either the clerk of court or the county clerk. The parties may have received a copy by mail or informed thereof when they called to ask about the status of their cases.
 - d) Unpublished and dumping decisions are a manifestation of judges’ “Hidden interests” in not making public decisions of which they are ashamed due to their perfunctoriness or that they made in their self-interest of pre-serving or increasing the value of their shares in one of the parties before them. The judges could be pressured into recognizing them as the product of a conflict of interests, declaring them null and void, calling for a new case, and recusing themselves from the cases. Cf. your article “Hidden Interests - Federal Judge Files Recusal Notices in 138 Cases After WSJ Queries. Rodney Gilstrap initially argued he didn’t violate financial-conflicts law”, of 2 Nov. 21.

e) The proposed action would go beyond this type of financial interest to cover one that corrupts judicial integrity: their hidden interest in mutual assured protection: “Today I protect you by dumping this case or not criticizing you for doing so, and tomorrow you protect me and my friends likewise”;

- 2) to remand for a new trial;
 - 3) to be compensated by judges and their judiciaries for the waste of effort, time, and money involved in writing a brief -an appellate brief can cost between $20,000 and $100,000- and the foreseeable and thus intentional frustration of the reasonable expectation that the brief would be used as the source of facts and law for judges to administer justice although the judges knew that they would not read them;
 - 4) to recuse themselves for engaging in a pattern of coordinated fraud on the public; dereliction of duty; intentional infliction of emotional and financial distress; etc;
 - 5) to unscramble all the transactions and events based on the now vacated decisions so as to place the parties in the position in which they would be if those decisions had never been issued or to compensate the losing party; etc.
 - 6) These motions will give rise to a new, specialized law practice: judicial accountability and liability practice. We will try to encourage professors, students, multidisciplinary experts, and others to enter it as we embark on...
 - 7) ...our tour(¶18) of law and journalism schools, media outlets, public interest entities, and ‘chapters of abusees’. The tour will allow us to present that new practice together with a new form of journalism, i.e., representative journalism (OL3:1699³).
 - 8) In the same vein, we will present our proposal for holding citizens hearings. Unprecedented, they will be held at university auditoriums and media stations; monitored by journalists, professors, students, multidisciplinary experts, and other qualified members of the audience; and intended to give abusees the opportunity to tell the national public physically present in the hearing venue and virtually there through the Internet their stories of the abuse of power by judges that they have suffered or witnessed.
10. The above-mentioned articles are substantively different from other articles exposing corruption in the federal and state judiciaries because they concern, not merely the corrupt enrichment of judges, but rather they stress how millions of people have suffered intentional injury in fact by judges’ coordinated abuse of power and its cover-up. No news articles can outrage people more than those that inform them that they are being abused by people sworn to serve and protect them. That constitutes betrayal of trust that turns people into judges’ prey. Those articles can introduce a series(§A) capable of shaking the federal and state judiciaries to their foundation...especially before a general election.
11. Meantime, we can jointly pursue the leads in those articles. I offer to make a presentation on these proposals to you and your guests in person, if here in New York City; and if my expenses and fees are paid, anywhere else; otherwise, via video conference. Please call me to schedule the presentation.

Dare shout “I accuse!”...You may trigger history and even enter it Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Proposal to attorneys, journalists, and academics to expose prosecutors and police officers who engage in, and the judges and their judiciary who condone, the fabrication of indictments on false and insufficient evidence; and other rewarding cases ‡

Dear attorneys, journalists, professors and students, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,†

1. I hereby share with you and your colleagues information that you will find useful as criminal lawyers and even in civil cases when impugning the honesty of public officers. It concerns the fabrication of indictments on false and insufficient evidence by prosecutors and police officers¹, which I witnessed as a grand juror in the Bronx County Supreme Court Criminal Term. Such fabrication has been covered up by judges from that Court all the way to each of those on the Court of Appeals*. That is precedent for the dishonesty that they condone in the NYS Unified Court System.
2. Currently, public and media attention is focused on the courts, which are deciding whether politicians at the highest level of government are either above the law or subject to criminal and civil liability to those that they harm. Hence, this is the most propitious time to expose in and out of court judges' abuse of power. Moreover, their abuse has been exposed by top news outlets, such as The Wall Street Journal, Thomson Reuters, The Boston Globe, and Huffpost. How many judges have found comfort and encouragement in the unethical and illegal practices engaged in for decades by Supreme Court justices and the 'Friends of the Justices', as revealed by Pulitzer-winner ProPublica?
3. The claims of ever more 'fabricated' inditees will form a pattern of institutionalized abuse as modus operandi. The fabricators sent them to prison, where they may still be; devastated their lives financially by causing them to post bail or retain a lawyer; or denigrated their reputation by attaching to them a criminal record, which may have led to their losing their jobs or being evicted. The public and its pool of jurors will be outraged! They may demand that even judges and their judiciaries be held accountable and liable to compensation. So have been held abusive and malpracticing prosecutors and their offices; police officers and their departments; lawyers and their law firms; doctors and their hospitals; priests and their churches; pharmaceutical companies and their sellers; etc. Judges and their judiciaries should be too under the 14th Amendment clauses on "equal protection of the laws [...from abusers who deny civil rights, honest services, and] due process".
4. I propose to form a group of lawyers like those that successfully sued Walgreens, CVS, etc., for their part in the opioid epidemic. The group may include journalists, academics, and politicians; call for inditees and whistleblowers to come forward and for unprecedented citizens hearings² to be held; call out the fabricators at press conferences and sue them in a class action; form chapters; make presentations(§G); etc. To implement this proposal my website at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org> will be useful. There I post some of my articles, the product of my research and writing, and strategic thinking. They have attracted so many webvisitors and elicited such a positive response that as of 9/8/24, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 52,061. Those articles are supported by my three-volume*†* study of judges and their judiciaries titled:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting*†

5. I offer to present to you and your guests this proposal via video conference or in person in your NYC office. During Q&A, you may ask about my other cases described and referenced infra³. They too involve powerful abusers and many abusees; will outrage the public and voters; and can earn those who pursue them out of principle or for profit significant reputational and financial rewards.

Dare shout "I accuse!" You may trigger history and even enter it.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

ENDNOTES

- ¹ I am a lawyer and was a grand juror in NYC. I had the knowledge and was in a position to realize that the prosecutors and police officers had no evidence for charging two persons with murder:
- a. They presented no footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident, arrest, or autopsy report. The footage of the restaurants flanking the street did not show a crowd of onlookers or vehicles of the police, the medical examiner, or crime scene investigators. The indictment was sought in reliance on grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment: "an ADA can indict a ham sandwich". Fabricated indictments are used in plea bargain to support baseless charges that can extort the defendants' agreement to the pleas sought by prosecutors.
 - b. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising ADAs referred me to the grand jury judge. He discharged me on the spot even though neither those ADAs nor anybody else showed up to make accusations against me. I have standing to sue in my own right. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge of the Bronx criminal court. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury judge, who with no discussion dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired.
 - c. I filed a complaint with three chief judges and each of the associate judges of the NYS CA; the NYS and NYC administrative judges; two NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau chiefs and two Commissioners; council members; public advocates and defenders; et al., who have not replied. They are part of the defendant class as accessories to the fabrication of indictments and its cover-up.
- ² The citizens hearings will be held at university auditoriums and media stations; and conducted by professors, students, journalists, and multidisciplinary experts. They will afford the opportunity for those abused by judges to tell their story in person or over the Internet. Their stories will inform ever more people about the nature, extent, and gravity of judges' abuse. As their outrage at judges increases, people will demand that politicians investigate them, lest people withhold their support for their electoral campaigns. Judges' abuse can become a key electoral issue that motivates more investigation, exposure, and even leads to compensation and reform. Thus, time is of the essence.
- ³
- a. Federal judges intercept people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics, as shown by a statistical analysis. They have the technical expertise and equipment to run a national IT network that allows filing, storing, and retrieving hundreds of millions of motions, briefs, petitions, applications, orders, decisions, records, reports, statistics, dockets, emails, schedules, and other elements of CM/ECF administered by PACER. Informing the public of such deprivation of its freedom of speech, the press, and assembly will provoke Snowden/NSA-like national outrage.
 - b. The Math of Abuse is a mathematical demonstration that judges do not read most briefs. It can cause a flood of actions for fraud, breach of contract, dereliction of duty, remand for new trial, etc.
 - c. The Follow the Money! and Follow the Wire! investigations(jur:102§a; OL:194§E) are to apply forensic research techniques, e.g., Fraud and Forensic Accounting, big data search, and AI, to discover assets that judges have grabbed, concealed, evaded taxes on, and money laundered(OL:1).
 - d. Judges' bankruptcy fraud scheme handles $100s of bl. annually. It is covered up by the circuit judges who appoint the bankruptcy judges in their circuit for a 14-year term(28 U.S.C. §152) and can reappoint them if the bankruptcy judges share and make "cronies"(jur:32§§2-6) pay-to-play.
 - e. Medicare works to maintain in, and increase, its network of thousands of medical services and equipment providers. Together they abuse many of its 67 million insureds, who appeal, if at all, their decisions pro se, for they are sick and cannot afford lawyers. The recovery can be huge.
 - f. Walgreens had $139.5 bl. in revenue in 2020 and 277,000 employees in 2021. Its purchase-incentivizing program is Cash Rewards, a bait and switch scam. A class action can hold it liable.

September 14, 2024

Mr. Damian Williams, United States Attorney for SDNY
Att: Civilian Crime Reports Unit, 26 Federal Plaza, 37th Floor, New York, NY 10278
Investigators of NYPD Commissioner Edward Caban and NYC Mayor Eric Adams

Dear Mr. Williams and Investigators,[‡]

1. Thanks to your investigation into the corruption of NYPD Commissioner Edward Caban and other public officers, he has resigned. Your findings strengthen the credibility of the evidence of his corruption that I am submitting herewith for you to investigate further, to wit, his cover-up of the fabrication of indictments based on false and insufficient evidence by police officers at the Supreme Court Criminal Term of Bronx County, where he served while rising through the NYPD ranks.
2. I am a lawyer and was a grand juror in that Court. I had the knowledge and was in a position to realize that the prosecutors and police officers had no evidence for charging two persons with murder: They presented no footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident, arrest, or autopsy report. The footage of the restaurants flanking the street did not show a crowd of onlookers or vehicles of the police, the medical examiner, or crime scene investigators. The indictment was sought in reliance on grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment: 'an ADA can indict a ham sandwich'. Fabricated indictments are used to support baseless charges because the more guilty pleas and convictions, the greater the chances of reelection and promotion.
 - a. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising ADAs referred me to the grand jury judge. He discharged me on the spot even though neither those ADAs nor anybody else showed up to accuse me of anything. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge of the Bronx criminal court. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury judge, who with no discussion dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. These judges acted arbitrarily and capriciously in dereliction of duty.
 - b. I filed a complaint in hardcopy -and have certificates of mailing or delivery- with Commissioners Caban and his predecessor; two Internal Affairs Bureau chiefs; three chief judges and each of the associate judges of the NYS Court of Appeals[♦] (CA); the NYS and NYC administrative judges; NYC Mayor Eric Adams and his aides; public advocates and defenders; council members; et al., who have not replied. I have emailed them my complaint daily for months: more than 10,000 emails from my accounts with four different email service providers. I have made countless phone calls to them. To no avail; they have not responded or requested a copy of my sworn statement.¹
3. The FBI should investigate both to begin the eradication of systemic corruption² and to free and compensate current and past 'fabricated indictees'. There can be tens of thousands of them, and in future more people can fall victim to what is an established pattern of institutionalized abuse of power as modus operandi. The fabricators have sent their indictees to prison, where they may still be; devastated their lives financially by causing them to post bail or retain a lawyer; or denigrated their reputation by attaching to them a criminal record, which may have led to their losing their jobs or being evicted.³ The FBI should investigate this complaint for their and its own sake: After it disregarded the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar, 90 U.S. Olympic and other gymnasts joined in a class action to sue it for \$1 billion+ for dereliction of duty and the malfeasance of agents who covered up such disregard. To settle the suit it cost the FBI \$138.7 million. So, I respectfully request that you ask me in to discuss this evidence by October 1. If the FBI disregards again evidence of abuse of many people, I will post it to my site and call for action against it.⁴

Dare shout "I accuse!" You may trigger history and even enter it.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

ENDNOTES

- ¹ Each of those officers had an individual duty to safeguard the integrity of the justice system. It is statistically impossible for all to have independently from each other decided not to respond. The Commission on Judicial Conduct dare allege repeatedly in writing (Exh.4) to me, a lawyer, that it lacked jurisdiction to investigate the complained-about judges of the Bronx County Criminal term because they were not members of the NYS Unified Court System! What does it allege to laypeople? The identical reaction of Comm. Caban and all the other NYPD and public officers points to complicit coordination in fact or in effect to cover-up the felonious fabrication of indictments by NYPD officers, prosecutors, and judges. There is systemic corruption in the NY justice system, condoned or coordinated by the CA. Only the FBI, an outsider, can conduct the likes of Operation Graylord in Chicago in the 1980's but without the participation of any NY agency whatsoever.
- ² a. There is more evidence that Comm. Caban must have known and condoned corruption and dereliction of duty in the Bronx. For more than 8 years, the 43rd Precinct has tolerated drag races at around 2:00 a.m. on Bruckner Express Way, from under the bridge on Castle Hill Av. toward the bridge on White Plains Road, zip code 10472. The racers rev up the motors of their cars and motorcycles to the applause and cheers of the many spectators that come to see and hear them. They park their vehicles and mill on the Express Way to stop the traffic and clear the 'racetrack'. The drivers that are detained honk their horns angrily. The noise jolts the whole neighborhood. It is physically impossible for police officers never to have heard them or the calls of neighbors disturbed by 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and even 6 times in one night at least once a week and on occasion 3 times in a week. These races are very dangerous for the racers, the spectators, and the drivers in the opposite direction. Do police look the other way because of any benefit that they receive from the auto repair and chop shops thus promoting their work of souping up cars and motorcycles?
- b. Fireworks are illegal. Yet, the police allow them to be exploded around zip code 10472 for even months after the 4th of July. Who has the money needed to buy such a large supply? Is it stashed safely to prevent an explosion in this neighborhood of mostly apartment buildings? They are exploded by kids, who become ever more careless. Their explosive powder can be used to make bombs. Do the police, who inevitably hear the fireworks' explosions and see their lights in the sky, receive a benefit from allowing them? Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg tel. (212)335-9000
One Hogan Place, New York, NY 10013-4311; <https://manhattanda.org/policemisconduct/>
Att: Investigators of NYC Mayor Eric Adams and aides, and NYPD corruption

Dear DA Bragg and Investigators,[‡]

1. Your investigations and those of the FBI SDNY and EDNY into wrongdoing by Mayor E. Adams, his aides, the NYPD, and the FDNY have led Commissioner E. Caban to resign and others to plead guilty. They show that enterprise corruption pervades NYC government. These events buttress the credibility of the evidence of their corruption that I am submitting herewith for you to investigate further, to wit, their fabrication of indictments based on false and insufficient evidence by NYPD officers, prosecutors, and judges at the Supreme Court Criminal Term of Bronx County, where Comm. Caban served while rising through the NYPD ranks, and its cover-up by many others.
2. I am a lawyer and was a grand juror in that Court. I had the knowledge and was in a position to realize that the prosecutors and police officers had no evidence for charging two persons with murder: They presented no footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident, arrest, or autopsy report. The footage of the restaurants flanking the street did not show a crowd of onlookers or vehicles of the police, the medical examiner, or crime scene investigators. The indictment was sought in reliance on grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment: 'an ADA can indict a ham sandwich'. Fabricated indictments are used to support baseless charges because the more guilty pleas and convictions, the greater the chances of reelection and promotion.
 - a. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising ADAs referred me to the grand jury judge. He discharged me on the spot even though neither those ADAs nor anybody else showed up to accuse me of anything. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge of the Bronx criminal court. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury judge, who with no discussion dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. These judges acted arbitrarily and capriciously in dereliction of duty.
 - b. I filed a complaint -in hardcopy and have certificates of mailing or delivery- with Commissioners Caban and his predecessor; two Internal Affairs Bureau chiefs; three chief judges and each of the associate judges of the NYS Court of Appeals (CA); the NYC and NYS administrative judges; Mayor Adams and his aides; IGs; public advocates and defenders; council members; et al., who have not replied. I have emailed them my complaint daily for months: more than 10,000 emails from my accounts with four different email service providers. I have made countless phone calls to them. To no avail; they have not responded, let alone requested a copy of my sworn statement.¹
3. Fabricated indictments cause graver injury in fact than money exchanging hands as bribe for favors among a few public officers and business owners: The fabricators have sent their inditees to prison, where they may still be; devastated their lives financially by causing them to post bail or retain a lawyer; and denigrated their reputation by attaching to them a criminal record, which may have led to their losing their jobs or being evicted.² There can be 10Ks of such inditees in NYC and NYS, and more people will fall victim to this abuse of power institutionalized as modus operandi. You and your investigators should not cede the investigation of this evidence to the FBI, NY AG L. James, or the likes of Pulitzer winner ProPublica, WSJ, and Thomson Reuters.³ So, I respectfully request that you ask me in to discuss it by October 7. If your office disregards its duty to "protect everyday New Yorkers from abuses by the powerful", I will post this letter to my site and call for action.⁴

Dare shout "I accuse!" You may trigger history and even enter it. Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

ENDNOTES

- ¹ Each of those officers had an individual duty to safeguard the integrity of the justice system. It is statistically impossible for all to have independently from each other decided not to respond. The Commission on Judicial Conduct dare allege repeatedly in writing(Exh.4) to me, a lawyer, that it lacked jurisdiction to investigate the complained-about judges of the Bronx County Criminal term because they were not members of the NYS Unified Court System! What does it allege to laypeople? The identical reaction of Comm. Caban and all the other NYPD and public officers points to complicit coordination in fact or in effect to cover-up the felonious fabrication of indictments by NYPD officers, prosecutors, and judges. The NY justice system is run like a racketeering organization, condoned or coordinated by the CA♦. Only outsiders, e.g., you, the FBI, the AG, can duplicate here Operation Graylord in Chicago in the 1980's but without the participation of any NY agency.
- ² An informed and outraged! public will demand that 'law enforcing' judges and their judiciaries - who intercept and do not read- 'be held accountable' and liable to compensation. So have been held abusive prosecutors and their offices; police officers and their departments; lawyers and their law firms; doctors and their hospitals; priests and their churches; pharmaceutical companies and their sellers; etc. Judges and their judiciaries should be too under the 14th Amend. clauses on "equal protection of the laws [...from abusers who deny civil rights, honest services, and] due process".
- ³ a. There is more evidence that Comm. Caban must have known and condoned corruption and dereliction of duty in the Bronx. For at least 11 years, the 43rd Precinct has tolerated drag races at around 2:00 a.m. on Bruckner Express Way, from under the bridge on Castle Hill Av. toward the bridge on White Plains Road, zip code 10472. The racers rev up the motors of their cars and motorcycles to the applause and cheers of the many spectators that come to see and hear them. They park their vehicles and mill on the Express Way to stop the traffic and clear the 'racetrack'. The drivers that are detained honk their horns angrily. The noise jolts the whole neighborhood. It is physically impossible for NYPD officers never to have heard them or the calls of neighbors disturbed by 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and even 6 times in one night at least once a week and on occasion 3 times in a week. These races are very dangerous for the racers, the spectators, and the drivers in the opposite direction. Do police look the other way because of any benefit that they receive from the auto repair and chop shops thus promoting their work of souping up cars and motorcycles?
- b. Fireworks are illegal. Yet, the police allow them to be exploded around zip code 10472 for even months after the 4th of July. Who has the money needed to buy such a large supply? Is it stashed safely to prevent an explosion in this neighborhood of mostly apartment buildings? They are exploded by kids, who become ever more careless. Their explosive powder can be used to make bombs. Do the police, who inevitably hear the fireworks' explosions and see their lights in the sky, receive a benefit from allowing them? For leads to investigate a. and b., see the latest service requests of 26 July 2024 # 311-194 761 40; 311-194 762 53; 311-194 763 43; 311-194 775 93; and on 27 July EC-008 419 74 and 311-194 871 48, ...68, and ...82; and those referred to therein. Most revealing are the recorded conversations with 311 operators and 43rd Precinct Lt. Hilligan at (718) 542-0888; and on 15 August with Lt. Minear. No mandatory status statement has reached me.

Mr. Richard Kim
Editor-in-Chief, THE CITY richard@thecity.nyc
85 Broad St., 12th Floor, New York, NY 10004

Dear Mr. Kim and CITY colleagues,

1. I read with interest THE CITY article by Ms. Rachel Holliday Smith “Who’s Investigating Mayor Eric Adams’ Inner Circle and Why”, of 17 instant. I am hereby submitting evidence[‡] that will enable you to expand that investigation into two areas, which can enhance your and THE CITY’s reputation:

a. Fabricated indictments. They are based on false and insufficient evidence by NYPD officers, prosecutors, and judges at the Supreme Court Criminal Term of Bronx County, where Comm. Caban served while rising through the NYPD ranks. The fabrication is covered up by NYC and NYS administrative judges, inspectors general, and at the top by the chief and the associate judges of the Court of Appeals (CA); see the attached letter and file[‡]>Exh.2.

1) Fabricated indictments cause graver injury in fact than money exchanging hands as bribe for favors among a few public officers and business owners: The fabricators have sent their inditees to prison, where they may still be; devastated their lives financially by causing them to post bail or retain a lawyer; and denigrated their reputation by attaching to them a criminal record, which may have led to their losing their jobs or being evicted. There can be 10Ks of such inditees in NYC and NYS, and more people will fall victim to this abuse of power institutionalized as modus operandi.

b. Who investigates the investigators? The fabrication of indictments implicates the entire justice system; Bronx DA Darcel Clark is imputed with its knowledge, for it is coordinated between her ADAs, NYPD officers, and judges. Hence, has DA Braggs known and allowed a similar fabrication in his office; and learned more about it through his investigation of the NYPD? Will he dare investigate judges or even refer that investigation to the FBI SDNY, lest judges close ranks to protect each other by ensuring that he and his ADAs lose every case and motion that they file? A district attorney who is such a loser has barely any chance of being reelected. Does he prioritize his reelection over exposing judges’ “enterprise corruption”? If a DA allows judges to cover up the fabrication of indictments, he signals his disposition to condone any other form of wrongdoing, and the whole justice system becomes rigged and pervaded by corruption. How seriously did DA Braggs mean his statement?:

Community trust in the justice system is essential to achieving public safety. New Yorkers must know that law enforcement is acting with the utmost integrity in the pursuit of equal justice under the law. Without that belief, our criminal justice system will fail to deliver the real and lasting safety that every community deserves. — D.A. Bragg.

2. There is no safety for anybody if everybody can become the target of the indictment fabricators. This is a matter of interest for the public; a reelection-seeking DA; and you: Your investigation into these areas can do for THE CITY and its journalists what the investigation of the break-in at the Democratic National Committee in the Watergate complex in DC on 17 June 1972, which exposed “a criminal enterprise” run from The White House and led to the resignation of P. Nixon on 8 August 1974, did for The Washington Post, Bob Woodward, and Carl Bernstein: It turned them into icons of journalism and protagonists of a bestseller and a blockbuster. THE CITY can emulate Pulitzer winner ProPublica. Our joint investigation can allow us to scoop the story before others do. So, I respectfully request that you ask me in to make a presentation and propose an action plan.

Dare shout “I accuse!” You may trigger history and even enter it. Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Mr. Ben Muessig, Editor-in-Chief, Ben.muessig@theintercept.com
The Intercept, P.O. Box 9201, New York, NY 10008-9201

Dear Mr. Muessig and Intercept colleagues,[‡]

1. You are pressed for money and asking for donations. Nothing motivates people to donate to a news organization more than the feeling that it will use their donations to investigate their own story of the abuse of power that they have suffered or witnessed by abusers whom they cannot even expose, let alone hold accountable and liable to compensation. Hereunder two such stories affecting practically everybody are briefly described and copiously referenced. They should interest you because in your emails you write: “The Intercept is an award-winning nonprofit news organization dedicated to holding the powerful accountable through fearless, adversarial journalism. Our in-depth investigations and unflinching analysis focus on surveillance, corruption...criminal justice, the media and more.” The corruption in NYC government and the U.S. Supreme Court only make these stories more credible. I propose that we use my many leads to further investigate them jointly.

a.i. Fabricated indictments. They are based on false and insufficient evidence by NYPD officers, prosecutors, and judges at the Supreme Court Criminal Term of Bronx County. There NYPD Comm. E. Caban began his service as a policeman; investigated for corruption, he resigned last July 12. The fabrication is covered up by NYC and NYS administrative judges, the chief and the associate judges of the Court of Appeals (CA), public advocates, et al.; see letters at ‡>Exhibits 2.

ii. Fabricated indictments cause graver injury in fact than money exchanging hands as bribe for favors among a few public officers and business owners: The fabricators have sent their inditees to prison, where they may still be; devastated their lives financially by causing them to post bail or retain a lawyer; and denigrated their reputation by attaching to them a criminal record, which may have led to their losing their jobs or being evicted. There can be 10Ks of such inditees in NY and elsewhere and others will fall victim to this abuse committed as institutionalized modus operandi.

b.i. Interception of emails and mail to detect and suppress those critical of judges -who are the target of my three-volume study^{*†♣}. After you published ““Utterly Dismayed”: Air Force Engineer Resigns as Dissent Against Gaza War...” by reporter Prem Thakker last June 18, I began daily emailing him and Ryan.Grim..., Murtaza.Hussain..., Jon.schwarz..., and Glenn.Greenwald@theintercept.com, from any of my email accounts @yahoo, Verizon, Cantab, and Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org (my website) an article proposing that Jews and pro-Palestinian advocates jointly hold a 1963 MLK March on Washington-like demonstration at the Lincoln Memorial in DC.

ii. I have sent that email to thousands of journalists, journalism and law school deans and professors, etc., in my 20,000+ emailing list. Is it statistically possible that in a country as polarized as ours none of you or them has contacted me to inquire further into that proposal? Is it reasonable to think that all news organizations in the U.S. and abroad have the same interest in not becoming known as the or a main promotor of what could be a historic demonstration? Is it likely that nobody was interested although my articles posted to my website have as of 30 September caused 52,125 webvisitors to become subscribers? If The Intercept has not received any of my hundreds of emails, it too has been intercepted. If you feel outraged, so will millions whom we can inform that they have been deprived of their 1st Amendment ‘freedom of speech, the press, and right of assembly’.

2. I offer to present these stories and proposal to you and your guests at your office. Please call me.

Dare shout “I accuse!” You may trigger history and even enter it. Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Deputy Comm. Caban, Director Darche, and fellow addressees in ¶6 and §§C, D infra,[‡]

1. This is a follow-up on my letters and emails to you, NYPD Comm. K. Sewell, former IAB Chief David Barrere; et al., to no avail. Yet, they concern prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451. On May 23 and 24, 2022, Assistant District Attorney Burim Namani and supervising ADA Diana Jetta presented an indictment for murder allegedly committed on or around May 24, 2021, early in the evening in a Bronx street flanked by restaurants and bodegas. When they asked whether grand jurors had questions, I, a grand juror, asked critical ones because the 12 exhibits that they presented:
 - a. contained not a single photo or video of the scene of the crime or of the victim whether taken by the police, a surveillance camera of the neighboring restaurants and bodegas, or any bystander...in the age of the ubiquitous smartphone with camera and a citizens journalist mentality!;
 - b. no police report or autopsy report by the medical examiner;
 - c. nothing but the allegations of five NYPD officers, including detectives, and an alleged friend that had been walking with the alleged victim that evening but who did not witness the murder.
2. On May 25, I was summoned to the courtroom of Grand Jury Judge Laurence E. Busching. He acted as lead counsel for those who had accused me of 'being disruptive and making other grand jurors feel uncomfortable'; presented no evidence; denied me the opportunity to confront them and present witnesses; had me surrounded by four intimidating NYPD officers; and discharged me.
3. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to his supervisor, Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, who sits in the same building. Without acknowledging receipt or taking my calls, he forwarded it to J. Busching, who as judge in his own cause biasedly dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. They condoned and aided prosecutors and NYPD officers seeking indictments on false accusations.

A. Action requested

4. There are more details, augmented by those stated next, concerning the false accusations based on irrelevant and insufficient evidence; the discharge; and the complicit dereliction of duty in aid of a cover-up by the many officers with authority to investigate this case to whose attention I have brought it, many of whom are listed in ¶6 and §§C, D infra. Thus, I respectfully request that you:
 - a. investigate this complaint, first taking cognizance of my below Statement of new facts, sworn to under 28 U.S.C. §1746, and the copies of communications below and at ♦ and ‡;
 - b. call Judge Yearwood to ask for a copy of my 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement; or
 - c. issue me with an order to produce it for your review based on your authority to investigate this kind of case, which will entitle me to disclose it and with which I will comply; and
 - d. ask me to come to your office for officers to interview me about this case.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Chie Iglesias, Commissioner Sewell, and fellow email addressees, ‡

1. This letter is a follow-up on my letters mailed to former IAB Chief David Barrere, on May 28, and to you, Comm. Sewell, on August 19, 2022. They concern prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451. Assistant District Attorney Burim Namani and supervising ADA Diana Jetta on May 23 and 24, 2022, presented an indictment for murder allegedly committed on or around May 24, 2021, early in the evening in a Bronx street flanked by restaurants and bodegas. When they asked whether grand jurors had questions, I, a grand juror, asked critical ones, for their evidentiary 12 exhibits:
 - a. contained not a single photo or video of the scene of the crime or of the victim whether taken by the police, a surveillance camera of the neighboring restaurants and bodegas, or any bystander...in this day and age of the ubiquitous smartphone with camera!;
 - b. no police report or autopsy report by the medical examiner;
 - c. nothing but the allegations of five NYPD officers, including detectives, and an alleged friend that had been walking with the alleged victim that evening but who did not witness the murder.
2. On May 25, I was summoned to the courtroom of Grand Jury Judge Laurence E. Busching. He acted as lead counsel for those who had accused me of 'being disruptive and making other grand jurors feel uncomfortable'; presented no evidence; denied me the opportunity to confront them and present witnesses; had me surrounded by four intimidating NYPD officers; and discharged me.
3. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to his supervisor, Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, who sits in the same building. He did not acknowledge receipt of that statement or take my calls. He forwarded it to J. Busching, who as judge in his own cause biasedly dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. They condoned prosecutors and NYPD officers seeking indictments on false accusations.

A. Action requested

4. There are additional details, augmented by those stated next, concerning the false accusations and the likely thousands of victims thereof; the discharge; and the complicit inaction in aid of a cover-up by the numerous officers with authority to investigate this case to whose attention I have brought it, many of whom are listed in ¶6 below. Consequently, I respectfully request that you:
 - a. investigate this complaint, and to that end, take cognizance of the facts set forth in the Statement of new facts that follows next, and the copies of communications below and at ♦ and ‡;
 - b. call Judge Yearwood to ask for a copy of my 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement; or
 - c. issue me with an order to produce it for your review based on your authority to investigate this kind of case, which will entitle me to disclose it and with which I will comply; and
 - d. ask me to come to your office for officers to interview me about this case.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

B. Statement of facts since January 5, 2023, showing a coordinated cover-up

5. On May 28, 2022, I mailed to IAB Chief David Barrere my first written complaint against all those NYPD officers in the grand jury room and the courtroom. I had to keep calling IAB at (212)741-8401 until I was given a complaint number, i.e., # 2022-13831. I kept calling to find out its status, but neither the Command Center nor the Records or the Assessment Units could find it. As a result, a second complaint was opened, # 2022-15482, uselessly, for the same happened to it. So, a third complaint was opened: # 2022-15601. They insisted that I had to be patient and wait until they called me. I waited for months. In the meantime, I contacted other public officers and entities.
6. On January 5, 2023, Detective Arata called me unexpectedly. As shown in my August 19 letter to Commissioner Sewell, I had spoken with him several times beginning on June 9. Even so, he asked that I tell him my complaint. He claimed to know nothing about my letters to Chief Barrere or the three complaints, or did not bother to read them before calling me. What contained my name and phone number that prompted him to call me? I offered to email him my written complaint and he agreed to call me to acknowledge receipt of it. But he failed to do so although since January 5, I have sent and resent daily my summarizing and previous emails to him and these other addressees: iabcmdctr@nypd.org, iab@nypd.org, question@nycourts.gov, rhuff@advocate.nyc.gov, reception@advocate.nyc.gov, oignypdcomplaints@doj.nyc.gov, gethelp@advocate.nyc.gov, mtsciq1@bb.nyc.gov, ucs-correspondence@nycourts.gov, recordsaccess@advocate.nyc.gov, bronxjury@nycourts.gov, webmail@bronxbp.nyc.gov, agencyemail@customercare.nyc.gov, ig@nycourts.gov, jcortes@bronxbp.nyc.gov, msabio@bronxbp.nyc.gov, lwalton@bronxbp.nyc.gov, jpeguero@bronxbp.nyc.gov, scheduling@bronxbp.nyc.gov, pressinquiry@bronxbp.nyc.gov, mivory@bronxbp.nyc.gov, amukoko@bronxbp.nyc.gov, district8@council.nyc.gov, dinowitz@council.nyc.gov, district12@council.nyc.gov, district13@council.nyc.gov, district14@council.nyc.gov, district15@council.nyc.gov, district16@council.nyc.gov, salamanca@council.nyc.gov, district18@council.nyc.gov, socratessolano2021@gmail.com, Info@bronxdefenders.org, media@bronxdefenders.org,
7. The overwhelming majority did not even acknowledge receipt. In the more than eight months since May 28, none has informed me of having investigated this case. What are the odds that those 34 email addressees plus those whom I could reach only by mail have just coincidentally decided not to answer my communications or take any action? Zero. Self-interested unaccountability 100%.
8. That provides probable cause to believe that there is either actual or constructive complicit coordination among them not to take any action that can provoke a frightening reaction: retaliation by NYS judges having closed ranks to protect the complained-against fellow judges and themselves; NYPD officers testifying as hostile witnesses to make prosecutors lose indictments and cases; and the embarrassment of, and firing by, former police captain and current NYC Mayor Eric Adams.
9. On January 30, I called IAB and spoke with the supervisor of Det. Arata, Sgt. Palermo. He claimed to know nothing about my complaints. He looked up the numbers that I gave him and said that my complaints had been referred to the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (IG) since they concerned judges rather than NYPD officers. I protested that willful misstatement given that I had complained against the five NYPD officers, including detectives, who testified in support of the false accusations presented to a grand jury and those who surrounded me in Judge Busching's courtroom, who intentionally intimidated me, while I was alone, as reminders of those who brutalized Abner Louima, Amodou Diallo, Eric Garner, and George Floyd, among others.
10. Sgt. Palermo had no explanation for such referral despite the fact that I have not complained against any federal officer. Nor could he state the authority on which that IG of the U.S. DoJ would investigate New York State prosecutors, judges, and NYPD officers. He could not tell me the names of the IAB officers who made the referral; whether there was any cover letter, much less its text; the names of the referred-to DoJ officers; their addresses; the referral dates; or whether the complaints had, if at all, been put in envelopes with only my or no return address and mailed.

11. I stated a reasonable inference: If IAB had referred any or all of my complaints to DoJ, it did so in bad faith to evade having to investigate its officers and avoid judges' retaliation. Unable to dispute that inference, the Sgt. transferred me to Det. Stone for her to open a complaint: # 2023-3787.
12. On January 31, I called and spoke with Det. Arata. He claimed that he had not received my complaint. But shortly thereafter, he said that it had been sent to that IG and to the FBI because I had complained about it. I refuted that: I had cited as precedent for suing public officers the suit brought by 90 gymnasts against the FBI for ignoring their complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar(cf. my January 5 letter to him, ¶5.a.2). How disingenuous! When I pressed him on why he and IAB had not investigated the NYPD officers that I had complained against, he claimed that my 'complaint made no sense and I had given them nothing to investigate'. I replied that if so, it was his duty to call me to ask for clarifications or additional information. He was stumped. I told him that he was arguing in bad faith to cover up for his fellow officers. He terminated the call.
13. I called IAB and Det. Melexemis could not find who had referred my complaint to the U.S. DoJ. He asked me to call the Records Unit at (212)741-8414. There Det. Pier-Owen confirmed that my complaints had been referred to DoJ, including two others that she found: # 2022-19474 and 2023-00275. When I asked who had signed the referral cover letter and to whom it was addressed, she put me on hold. After coming back, she said that she could not find their names. She said that complaint # 2022-15482 had been referred to 'Dept. Discipline Committee for 1st District', whose address she could not find. Then she said that it had been referred to the U.S. District Court for NY. I said that courts do not investigate; they adjudicate. She said that I had complained against a lawyer. When I asked for his/her name, she could not find it. Of course, since I did not complain against any lawyer. She put me on another hold; then I overheard a female voice say "Don't bring him here!" She hung up on me and did not call me back although I had given her my phone number.
14. I called the Assessment Unit at (212)741-8444. I explained to Det. Jones what had just happened and gave her the numbers of the complaints and my phone number. I asked to speak with her supervisor, whom she identified as Sgt. Dario, and was stating the purpose...she hung up on me.
15. I called back the Assessment Unit, but landed in the Command Center. Sgt. Priola answered and said that my complaints had been sent to the FBI and circuit judges. I protested and asked who had referred them there. He did not know. He asked me whether I wanted to open a complaint against the NYPD. I said yes and he transferred me to Det. Stone. She opened complaint # 2023-3930.
16. I called the Records Unit. PAA Burkett transferred me to supervisor Lt. Davy Dob. He said that my complaint had been sent to the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. I had independently filed a complaint with it, docketed under # 2022/N-1084 as of September 23. Senior Administrative Assistant Lee Kiklier wrote me on November 23 "that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to NYS judges, which does not appear to apply to your complaint". Was this flagrant misstatement the result of an IAB cover letter pretending that I had complained against federal judges?
17. All these officers have in fact or in effect coordinated their dereliction of duty and cover-up to the detriment of the defendants in this case; those similarly situated, whose lives have been devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record; and me. It is your duty to investigate this case.

Dear Mr. Gibson and Ms. Hart,

1. Thank you for calling me today concerning my complaint about wrongdoing coordinated among prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges. I gained first-hand knowledge of their wrongdoing while in an official capacity.
2. The NY Criminal Procedure Law warns that disclosing such information, except under court order, subjects a person to serious penalties, including imprisonment. So, I wrote it down in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words, titled "Emergency Application", and dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451; tel. (718)618-3700. You requested that I send it you. As agreed, it is hereunder.
3. I sent IAB Chief David Barrere my complaint about NYPD officers and detectives on May 28. It sets forth how they testified before a grand jury in support of charges of first-degree murder against the accused in the indictment. When the prosecutor presenting the indictment asked whether any grand juror had any questions, I asked for photos or videos of the scene of the crime; the alleged victim shot dead in the middle of the street; the autopsy report; any relation whatsoever to the crime of one photo of a pair of jeans and another of a pair of sneakers; the probative value of the videos presented although they did not show that any crime had happened at all!
4. The following day, the prosecutor had his supervising prosecutor come to the grand jury. She asked whether I was a lawyer and I said that I was. I complained about the grand jury warden, who had challenged me because of my questions, although the Grand Juror's Handbook, which is prefaced by Chief Judge Janet DiFiore, page 16, cites the Judiciary Law, Article 190, §190.20.2), which provides that "Neither the grand jury panel nor any individual grand juror may be challenged" by even the judge impaneling the grand jury.
5. On what turned out to be a pretense, I was brought before the judge who had impaneled the grand jury, Judge Laurence E. Busching. While four courtroom police officers flanked me within arm's length in the most intimidating way, Judge Busching said that prosecutors and grand jurors had accused me of "being disruptive and making them uncomfortable"...and he peremptorily discharged me from the grand jury.
6. In my absence, he had allowed them to accuse me, thus disregarding the constitutional right of every person to confront his accusers. In defiance of all semblance of fairness and impartiality, Judge Busching believed the accusations of the prosecutors and jurors, but denied my request that the transcript of the presentation of the indictment in question be brought in and examined. He also denied my request to have a copy of the transcript of the record made before him by the court reporter. Then he deprived me of my civil right to be a member of a grand jury.
7. Such secrecy, arbitrariness, and oppression are the characteristics of a star-chamber. They are resorted to by the powerful to cover up their wrongdoing.
8. Although they knew that I was a lawyer, that is how they treated me: with gross contempt for the provisions of Article 190 and the Constitution. How do you think that they treat Joe Schmuck and Jane Widget, who have no clue about their rights or the strictures of due process?

9. If you were the accused, would you trust NYPD officers to disclose exculpatory evidence after having given testimony about irrelevant ‘evidence’ that they could not connect to the alleged murder? Would you have probable cause to believe that they had supported an indictment fabricated as leverage to extort your acceptance of the plea bargain offered or the basis for prosecuting you on false charges? Would you trust Judge Busching not to let those officers mislead a grand jury too disinterested and lacking the critical judgment needed to analyze the evidence presented and realize that you could not possibly have committed a crime that had not even occurred?
10. I addressed my complaint against the NYPD officers and detectives that had appeared before the grand jury to IAB Chief David Barrere in my letter of May 28, 2022. Since then, I have sent many emails to IAB@nypd.org and IABCmdCntr@nypd.org and made numerous calls to (212)741-8401. The IAB officers with whom I have spoken have told me that they do not know where my complaint is or that I have to “give it more time”. Among them are Lt. Atala; Sgt. Cortes and Dario; Detectives Kifaieh, Arata, Pier-Owens, Peattie, Perez; Officers Atway, Duran, Kim, et al.
11. Is it reasonable to think that they would know the whereabouts and status of my complaint if I had not called IAB during the past two months? Would they know if only I had not shown any interest in my complaint at all? Rather, it is in spite of my letters, emails, and phone calls that they do not know, regardless of whether their lack of knowledge is due to concealment of their actual knowledge or to willful ignorance or blindness.
12. Yet, it is their duty to know the whereabouts and status of my complaint because they are imputed with knowledge of what happens to people who land in Rikers: They are subjected to all kinds of threats, degradation, and abuse, including rape. Given the gravity and clear and present danger to those sent to Rikers or put through the ordeal of raising bail and going to trial, IAB had to proceed with due diligence. But it has intentionally failed to do so despite having the means to do it.
13. If IAB officers do not know the whereabouts and status of my complaint after two months since my filing it, it is certainly not going to investigate it. In fact, the assertion of ignorance by so many of its officers for such a long time shows a pattern of conduct born of coordination. They have provided probable cause to believe that IAB has engaged in a cover-up.
14. Hence, the onus to investigate IAB and the NYPD officers referred to in my complaint falls on you and the IG for the NYPD. You must with due diligence investigate the complaint to avoid the charge that may be brought against you as it can against IAB, namely, dereliction of duty.
15. With that charge the public is very aware since the House committee investigating the January 6 Capitol attack at its public hearing on July 21, 2022, detailed the 187 minutes of President Trump’s dereliction of duty during the attack. For comparison, months have gone by since I filed my complaint. For being derelict in its duty, IAB deserves as much public criticism as former President Trump has received for his own dereliction.
16. Just as seven Capitol Police officers have sued Trump and the organizers of the rally that preceded the attack, those who have allowed people to remain or become victims of fabricated indictments can be sued. Such a suit will find strong support in the precedent set by the Court of Appeals for the 4th Circuit in Strickland v. U.S., where it held that the Federal Judiciary itself and its officers in their official and individual capacities can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable.
17. By promptly undertaking a decisive and effective investigation, you avoid becoming a defendant, and instead earn the recognition of a grateful We the People as their Champions of Justice. Thus, I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Commissioner Keechant L. Sewell[‡]
New York City Police Department
One Police Plaza
New York, NY 10259-0001

Dear Commissioner Sewell,

This is to inform you of my efforts to bring to the attention of Internal Affairs Bureau Chief David Barrere by email to IAB@NYPD.org and IABCmdCntr@NYPD.org, and letter, as shown by those attached, and in phone conversations with, among others, the NYPD officers and detectives listed below, since May 28, 2022, the information that I acquired while in an official capacity concerning police officers and detectives as well as prosecutors and judges involved in indicting people of a murder that they could not possibly have committed because that crime never occurred.

The NY Criminal Procedure Law warns that disclosing such information, except under court order, subjects a person to serious penalties, including imprisonment. So, I wrote it down in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words, titled “Emergency Application”, and dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451, where the information originated. I asked that Chief Barrere request a copy from Judge Yearwood.

If he obtained it, then he knows the gravity of this information: NYPD officers and detectives participated in abusing the known indifference and uncritical judgment of grand jurors to obtain an indictment that lacked any evidentiary basis. Such an indictment and similar ones could be used to force the accused to accept a plea bargain or to prosecute them on fabricated charges.

If Chief Barrere met with Judge Yearwood’s refusal to send him a copy, he had the duty to question why the Judge did not want to cooperate with an IAB’s investigation of police wrongdoing that is corrupting judicial process. He could have subpoenaed or otherwise ordered the “Emergency Application” from me, as I suggested that he do and promised compliance. Given the abuse of power that I witnessed firsthand and the retaliation that I have already been subjected to, I want to be protected by an order so that I do not end up where those falsely accused did: in Rikers Island.

Since then, I have phoned IAB at (212)741-8401 and been given the runaround by officers who answered the call there or at the Records or Assessment Units to which I was transferred. They have alleged that they could not either find my emailed or mailed information or determine the status of complaints 2022-13831 of June 9; complaint 2022-15482 of June 30, or complaint 2022-15601 of July 1. Yet, some officers had copied the link <http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/IAB/ChiefDBarrere.pdf>, which I gave them on the phone and they acknowledged having downloaded the file. Among those NYPD officers and detectives are the following:

1.	Names of NYPD Officers and Detectives at IAB Each time before calling, I resent my email to Chief Barrere	Date of call
2.	Officer Washington, badge 8281	6June22
3.	Officer Washington	7June22
4.	Detective Atway	7June22
5.	Det. Arata	9June22
6.	Officer Duran, who said that he would send the link, supra, to Records	9June22

7.	Det. Arata	9June22
8.	Det. Arata transferred me to Records; and I recorded a message there	23June22
9.	Det. Kifaieh	24June22
10.	Re 2022-13831	27June22
11.	Det. Arata transferred me to Records; and I recorded yet another message	29June22
12.	Sargent Cortes	30June22
13.	Det. Atway	30June22
14.	Det. Ms. Pier-Owen found the link and transferred me to Cmd Center to:	30June22
15.	Lt. Atala, who said that he would send the complaint to the Assessment Unit	30June22
16.	Det. Peattie opened complaint 2022-15482 after I complained about my complaint being scheduled to be sent, as officers told me it was, to "First District", although nobody knew what that was or even its address!	30June22
17.	Sgt. Dario, Assessment Unit, downloaded & attached the file to the complaint	1July22
18.	Det. Ms. Perez at the In-Take was instructed to open complaint 2022-15601	1July22
19.	Det. Atway asked me to be patient and 'give it more time'	14July22
20.	Det. Kifaieh said that that he would give my telephone number to somebody and have him or her call me; but nobody did	18July22
21.	Officer Kim could not determine the status of any of the three complaints; he said the he would have somebody call me, but nobody did	25July22
22.	Det. Kifaieh agreed to have his CO call me, but nobody did	9August22
23.	Det. Sunu transferred me to Records, where I could only record a message	9August22
24.	Det. Sunu said his CO was not there and again transferred me to Records, where I could only record another message; nobody called me back	9August22
25.	Det. Arata transferred me to Lt. Hoe. He checked and when he came back asked me whether my complaint was against a lawyer!, if so, IAB could not do anything. 2+ months after being filed, IAB ignored what it was all about!	9August22
26.	Det. Kifaieh agreed to print my complaints and give them to Captain Keon, his CO, and ask that he call me, but nobody called me.	9August22

The above generates probable cause to believe that IAB has engaged in a cover-up. Its officers have coordinated its implementation. Let it be their dereliction of duty[†], not yours, that allows thousands of falsely accused people to remain or be incarcerated. They are potential members of a class action. Failure to discharge your duty should offend against your oath to Protect and Respect.

If not, you will be shocked by the money consequences, other than those related to the call to defund the police: 90 gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over \$1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI's cover-up of their inaction. The Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals held in Strickland v. U.S. that the Federal Judiciary and its officers in their official and individual capacities can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable. Abusive state judges were ordered to pay \$200+ million to their victims. Instead, do right and be recognized nationally as a Champion of Justice.

So, let's meet.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Detective Arata
Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB)
New York Police Department (NYPD); tel.: (212)741-8401
IAB@NYPD.org, IABCMDCNTR@nypd.org

Dear Detective Arata,

Thank you for calling me early this morning. Kindly find hereunder the complaint that I emailed and mailed so many times to IAB Chief David Barrere, you, and your colleagues last year. Indeed, my letter to NYPD Commissioner Keechant Sewell has a list of all the officers to whom I emailed my complaint and with whom I spoke on the phone. You may retrieve it using this link[‡].

The runaround that I have been given for over half a year justifies my assertion that there is a cover-up to protect NYPD officers and detectives that testify at grand juries in support of false accusations and deceive grand jurors, so as to protect the NYPD itself. The following brief description of what happened is intended as an introduction to the original letters that I emailed to the NYPD and others; it is not intended to serve as an excuse for not reading the letters below:

1. While serving as a grand juror, I witnessed how prosecutors and NYPD officers, including detectives, charged people with a murder that those people could not have committed because no evidence of a crime was presented: No footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident or autopsy report. The indictment was sought for plea bargain leverage in reliance on grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment.
2. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising prosecutors referred me to the grand jury judge, J. Laurence Busching of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term. He summarily discharged me without affording me even the opportunity to confront my accusers.
3. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge, J. Alvin Yearwood of the same Bronx Criminal Court. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury Judge Busching, who with no discussion dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired.
 - a. The NY Criminal Procedure Law warns that disclosing grand jury information, except under court order, subjects a person to serious penalties, including imprisonment. Therefore, I respectfully request that IAB Chief Barrere or you contact Judge Yearwood and ask that he release to you a copy of my 8-page sworn statement so that you may promptly start your investigation of this complaint.
 - b. As lawyer, I have a legal and ethical duty to bring this information to your attention. It flows from the NY Rules of Professional Conduct (22 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 1200), which provides:

Rule. 8.3. REPORTING PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT(a). A lawyer who knows that another lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a substantial question as to that lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer [such as the prosecutors who presented a false indictment before the grand jury] shall report such knowledge to a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation. [emphasis added].
 - c. If the NYPD, as "other authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation", issues me an order to submit to it my 8-page sworn statement, I will readily comply with it.

Your legal department must ensure that my compliance with such order will not expose me to criminal penalties, never mind imprisonment. Notice that the above-mentioned judges have already retaliated against me or condoned the retaliation against me by summarily discharging me from the grand jury in violation under color of law of my civil right to serve on it and my constitutional rights to due process.

4. I filed a complaint with the NY State Chief Judge, the NYS and NYC administrative judges, the NYPD IAB chief and the Commissioner, the Bronx council members, public advocates, et al., who have not replied.
5. They form the defendant in the class action that I am preparing against all of them for, among other causes of action, abuse of power; actual or constructive complicity in a cover-up of official abuse of power; dereliction of duty; filing false accusations; and false imprisonment, in addition to violation of civil and constitutional rights.
 - a. There is strong precedent for suing them:
 - 1) In the civil suit Strickland v. U.S., the Judicial Conference of the U.S., the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, et al., that Appeals Court held on April 26, 2022, that the Federal Judiciary and its judges in their official and individual capacities can on due process and equal protection grounds be sued and held liable. The plaintiff's exposure of 4th Circuit appellate judges' complicit coordination forced all the judges of that Court to recuse themselves! Judges from other circuits were seated by designation on the three-judge appellate panel. Their decision was unanimous.
 - 2) Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over \$1 billion last June 8 for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI's cover-up of their dereliction of duty. This is in addition to the \$380 million that USA Gymnastics and the U.S. Olympic Committee had to pay to Nassar sexual abuse victims.
 - 3) A Pennsylvania state court ordered judges who sent juveniles to government paid/private run detention facilities in exchange for kickbacks to pay \$206 million in compensatory and punitive damages.
 - b. The officers in the class action, including the NYPD, do not investigate judges to avoid judges' retaliation, thus engaging in dereliction of duty for their own benefit.
 - c. They pursue a pecuniary benefit, which is anything to which a monetary value can be assigned. Their dereliction of duty is a policy and a systemic cover-up based on actual or constructive complicit coordination; cf. companies that coordinate their anti-competitive practices by following the price leader, which is illegal under antitrust law and case law.
6. Acting under color of law, the defendant officers have violated the civil rights of the likely thousands of people whom they have, and allowed to be, indicted on false accusations. Thereby they have caused those people injury in fact resulting from their having to bear the cost of bail, incarceration, and a criminal record that impairs their job and housing situation and social standing. Those people are among the plaintiffs in the class action. Their attorneys can earn vast rewards, including treble damages, attorney's fees, and national recognition as Champions of Justice.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dare trigger history!...and you may enter it.

Dear Commissioner Sewell, Chief Iglesias, and fellow addressees in ¶6 and §§C, D infra,[‡]

1. This is a follow-up to my letters, reprinted below, to both of you and many other authorities, to no avail. Yet, they concern prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451. On May 23 and 24, 2022, Assistant District Attorney Burim Namani and supervising ADA Diana Jetta presented an indictment for murder allegedly committed on or around May 24, 2021, early in the evening in a Bronx street flanked by restaurants and bodegas. When they asked whether grand jurors had questions, I, a grand juror, asked critical ones because the 12 exhibits that they had presented contained:
 - a. not a single photo or video of the scene of the crime or of the victim whether taken by the police, a surveillance camera of the neighboring restaurants and bodegas, or any bystander...in the age of the ubiquitous smartphone with camera and a citizens journalist mentality!;
 - b. no police report or autopsy report by the medical examiner;
 - c. nothing but the allegations of five NYPD officers, including detectives, and an alleged friend that had been walking with the alleged victim that evening but who did not witness the murder.
2. On May 25, I was summoned to the courtroom of Grand Jury Judge Laurence E. Busching. He acted as lead counsel for those who had accused me of 'being disruptive and making other grand jurors feel uncomfortable'; presented no evidence; denied me the opportunity to confront them and present witnesses; had me surrounded by four intimidating NYPD officers; and discharged me.
3. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to his supervisor, Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, who sits in the same building. Without acknowledging receipt or taking my calls, he forwarded it to J. Busching, who as judge in his own cause biasedly dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. They condoned and aided prosecutors and NYPD officers seeking indictments on false accusations.

A. Action requested

4. There are more details, augmented by those stated next, concerning the false accusations based on irrelevant and insufficient evidence; the discharge; and the complicit dereliction of duty in aid of a cover-up by the many officers with authority to investigate this case to whose attention I have brought it, many of whom are listed in ¶6 and §§C, D infra. Thus, I respectfully request that you:
 - a. investigate this complaint, first taking cognizance of my below Statement of new facts, sworn to under 28 U.S.C. §1746, and the copies of communications below and at ♦ and ‡;
 - b. call Judge Yearwood to ask for a copy of my 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement;
 - c. issue me with an order to produce it for your review based on your authority to investigate this kind of case, which will entitle me to disclose it and with which I will comply; and
 - d. ask me to come to your office for a recorded interview of me by you about this case.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

B. Statement of facts since January 5, 2023, showing a coordinated cover-up

5. On May 28, 2022, I mailed to IAB Chief David Barrere my first written complaint against all those NYPD officers in the grand jury room and the courtroom. I had to keep calling IAB at (212)741-8401 until I was given a complaint number, i.e., # 2022-13831. I kept calling to find out its status, but neither the Command Center nor the Records or the Assessment Units could find it. As a result, a second complaint was opened, # 2022-15482, uselessly, for the same happened to it. So, a third complaint was opened: # 2022-15601. They insisted that I had to be patient and wait until they called me. I waited for months. In the meantime, I contacted other public officers and entities.
6. On January 5, 2023, Detective Arata called me unexpectedly. As shown in my August 19 letter to Commissioner Sewell, I had spoken with him several times beginning on June 9. Even so, he asked that I tell him my complaint. He claimed to know nothing about my letters to Chief Barrere or the three complaints, or did not bother to read them before calling me. What contained my name and phone number that prompted him to call me? I offered to email him my written complaint and he agreed to call me to acknowledge receipt of it. But he failed to do so although since January 5, I have sent and resent daily my summarizing and previous emails to him and these other addressees: iabcmdctr@nypd.org, iab@nypd.org, question@nycourts.gov, rhuff@advocate.nyc.gov, reception@advocate.nyc.gov, oignypdcomplaints@doj.nyc.gov, gethelp@advocate.nyc.gov, mtsciq1@bb.nyc.gov, ucs-correspondence@nycourts.gov, recordsaccess@advocate.nyc.gov, bronxjury@nycourts.gov, webmail@bronxbp.nyc.gov, agencyemail@customercare.nyc.gov, ig@nycourts.gov, jcortes@bronxbp.nyc.gov, msabio@bronxbp.nyc.gov, lwaltan@bronxbp.nyc.gov, jpeguero@bronxbp.nyc.gov, scheduling@bronxbp.nyc.gov, pressinquiry@bronxbp.nyc.gov, mivory@bronxbp.nyc.gov, amukoko@bronxbp.nyc.gov, district8@council.nyc.gov, dinowitz@council.nyc.gov, district12@council.nyc.gov, district13@council.nyc.gov, district14@council.nyc.gov, district15@council.nyc.gov, district16@council.nyc.gov, salamanca@council.nyc.gov, district18@council.nyc.gov, socratessolano2021@gmail.com, Info@bronxdefenders.org, media@bronxdefenders.org,
7. The overwhelming majority did not even acknowledge receipt. In the more than eight months since May 28, none has informed me of having investigated this case. What are the odds that those 34 email addressees plus those whom I could reach only by mail have just coincidentally decided not to answer my communications or take any action? Zero. Self-interested unaccountability 100%.
8. That provides probable cause to believe that there is either actual or constructive complicit coordination among them not to take any action that can provoke a frightening reaction: retaliation by NYS judges having closed ranks to protect the complained-against fellow judges and themselves; NYPD officers testifying as hostile witnesses to make prosecutors lose indictments and cases; and the embarrassment of, and firing by, former police captain and current NYC Mayor Eric Adams.
9. On January 30, I called IAB and spoke with the supervisor of Det. Arata, Sgt. Palermo. He claimed to know nothing about my complaints. He looked up the numbers that I gave him and said that my complaints had been referred to the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (IG) since they concerned judges rather than NYPD officers. I protested that willful misstatement given that I had complained against the five NYPD officers, including detectives, who testified in support of the false accusations presented to a grand jury and those who surrounded me in Judge Busching's courtroom, who intentionally intimidated me, while I was alone, as reminders of those who brutalized Abner Louima, Amodou Diallo, Eric Garner, and George Floyd, among others.
10. Sgt. Palermo had no explanation for such referral despite the fact that I have not complained against any federal officer. Nor could he state the authority on which that IG of the U.S. DoJ would investigate New York State prosecutors, judges, and NYPD officers. He could not tell me the names of the IAB officers who made the referral; whether there was any cover letter, much less its text; the names of the referred-to DoJ officers; their addresses; the referral dates; or whether the complaints had, if at all, been put in envelopes with only my or no return address and mailed.

11. I stated a reasonable inference: If IAB had referred any or all of my complaints to DoJ, it did so in bad faith to evade having to investigate its officers and avoid judges' retaliation. Unable to dispute that inference, the Sgt. transferred me to Det. Stone for her to open a complaint: # 2023-3787.
12. On January 31, I called and spoke with Det. Arata. He claimed that he had not received my complaint. But shortly thereafter, he said that it had been sent to that IG and to the FBI because I had complained about it. I refuted that: I had cited as precedent for suing public officers the suit brought by 90 gymnasts against the FBI for ignoring their complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar(cf. my January 5 letter to him, ¶5.a.2). How disingenuous! When I pressed him on why he and IAB had not investigated the NYPD officers that I had complained against, he claimed that my 'complaint made no sense and I had given them nothing to investigate'. I replied that if so, it was his duty to call me to ask for clarifications or additional information. He was stumped. I told him that he was arguing in bad faith to cover up for his fellow officers. He terminated the call.
13. I called IAB and Det. Melexemis could not find who had referred my complaint to the U.S. DoJ. He asked me to call the Records Unit at (212)741-8414. There Det. Pier-Owen confirmed that my complaints had been referred to DoJ, including two others that she found: # 2022-19474 and 2023-00275. When I asked who had signed the referral cover letter and to whom it was addressed, she put me on hold. After coming back, she said that she could not find their names. She said that complaint # 2022-15482 had been referred to 'Dept. Discipline Committee for 1st District', whose address she could not find. Then she said that it had been referred to the U.S. District Court for NY. I said that courts do not investigate; they adjudicate. She said that I had complained against a lawyer. When I asked for his/her name, she could not find it. Of course, since I did not complain against any lawyer. She put me on another hold; then I overheard a female voice say "Don't bring him here!" She hung up on me and did not call me back although I had given her my phone number.
14. I called the Assessment Unit at (212)741-8444. I explained to Det. Jones what had just happened and gave her the numbers of the complaints and my phone number. I asked to speak with her supervisor, whom she identified as Sgt. Dario, and was stating the purpose...she hung up on me.
15. I called back the Assessment Unit, but landed in the Command Center. Sgt. Priola answered and said that my complaints had been sent to the FBI and circuit judges. I protested and asked who had referred them there. He did not know. He asked me whether I wanted to open a complaint against the NYPD. I said yes and he transferred me to Det. Stone. She opened complaint # 2023-3930.
16. I called the Records Unit. PAA Burkett transferred me to supervisor Lt. Davy Dob. He said that my complaint had been sent to the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. I had independently filed a complaint with it, docketed under # 2022/N-1084 as of September 23. Senior Administrative Assistant Lee Kiklier wrote me on November 23 "that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to NYS judges, which does not appear to apply to your complaint". Was this flagrant misstatement the result of an IAB cover letter pretending that I had complained against federal judges?
17. All these officers have in fact or in effect coordinated their dereliction of duty and cover-up to the detriment of the defendants in this case; those similarly situated, whose lives have been devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record; and me. It is your duty to investigate this case.

Fabricated indictments based on false and insufficient evidence presented to grand juries by prosecutors, police, and judges who abuse the jurors' ignorance of the law and untrained and uncritical judgment, and reciprocally cover up their dereliction of honest service and due process duties[‡]
The proposal to expose the abusers through UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.[‡]

A. Jointly exposing the fabricators of indictments and those who cover for them

1. This is a call by a grand juror lawyer to abusees, class action lawyers, and investigative journalists, to join forces to expose those public officers in the administration of justice who have participated in the fabrication of indictments based on false and insufficient evidence and/or its cover-up, e.g.:
 - a. former NY State Chief Judge Janet DiFiore; former acting Chief Judge Anthony Cannataro; Bronx Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood & Grand Jury J. Laurence Busching; et al.;
 - b. former NY Police Department (NYPD) captain and now NY City Mayor Eric Adams;
 - c. NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Chief Miguel Iglesias & Commissioner Edward Caban;
 - d. NY City Public Advocate Jumaane Williams and his county counterparts in Bronx; et al.
2. Since 28 May 2022, some thirty public officers, whether personal or institutional, have been informed by letter, email, and telephone of the fabricated indictments. A sample of the email headings and text is collected in a [pdf file[‡]](#); the addressees' email addresses are in the bloc of addresses below. Nevertheless, the officers have failed to even reply to them.
3. Their failure betrays coordination among them consisting in harmonious conduct in furtherance of common interests. Circumstantial evidence is as sufficient to establish such coordination as it is in a criminal case where it provides the predicate for the jury to find the defendant guilty and punishable by death. They have given rise to 'a community of interests too big to be held accountable'.
 - a. The officers have an interest in avoiding retaliation from the judges, who would close ranks to protect any fellow judge implicated in admitting into evidence or covering up fabricated indictments; and strike back at the implicators. The implication may derive from judges' possessing actual knowledge of the fabrication or committing willful ignorance or blindness.
 - b. Prosecutors and police officers are interested in using fabricated indictments as leverage to coerce acceptance of even very unfavorable terms in plea bargains that they offer people in their custody: The more cases they close without, or win at, trial, the better their chances of being reelected or promoted.
4. In purpose and effect, whether implicitly or explicitly, for their gain and convenience, the coordinated public officers run a corrupt and racketeering enterprise. Thereby they violate the Enterprise Corruption Law, NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460; and the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), 18 U.S.C. §§1961 to 1968. They have committed:
 - a. abuse of the public power entrusted to them for the benefit of the sovereign source and destination of all public power in a democracy: We the People;
 - b. dereliction of duty to investigate allegations of wrongdoing and enforce the law;
 - c. denial of due process and equal protection under law, causing the injury in fact of:

- d. deprivation of liberty and property of those falsely accused of a crime, who incur expense to make bail, lose their jobs, and suffer reputational impairment by having a criminal record;
 - e. obstruction of the administration of justice;
 - f. denial of honest services to be rendered through due diligence;
 - g. a cover-up to ensure reciprocal complicit protection: 'I don't investigate you and you don't investigate me'; and
 - h. deprivation of the right to be a grand jury member, confront accusers, present evidence, etc.
5. The exposure of coordinated abuse of power, public unaccountability, and need for justice system reform can turn those issues into decisive ones of the presidential debates, the primaries, and the general election campaign.
6. An informed and outraged public can incentivize the holding of the proposed UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.
- a. The citizens hearings are to be held by journalists, media outlets, Information Technology (IT) and AI experts, and journalism, law, and IT students and professors.
 - b. Their venue will be media stations and school auditoriums.
 - c. They will be transmitted via the Internet so that wherever abusees and the audience are, they can tell and listen to the stories of the abuse that they have suffered or witnessed by those who have fabricated indictments or covered them up. See the two-phase method for writing your story in up to 500 words and in a way so that it is accurate, significant, and verifiable.
 - d. At the hearings, the abusees will shout self-assertively the rallying cry: Enough is enough! We won't take any abuse by anybody anymore.
 - e. Thus informing and outraging state and national audiences, the hearings will encourage ever more people to tell their story. A self-reinforcing process will snowball.
7. The citizens hearings can give rise to both a multidisciplinary academic and business investigation; and the development of a national, civic, Me Too!-like movement. Both will contribute to implementing a plan of action that is concrete, realistic, and feasible.
- a. The hearings and the plan are aimed to spark the formation of a powerhouse centered on the media and academe that compels politicians, lest they be voted out of, or not into, office by an informed and outraged national public to join the exposure of indictments fabricators; the collective demand for compensation for the abusees; and the pursuit of judicial reform.
 - b. That powerhouse can grow so strong as to bring about transformative change in American society and government to carry out the will of the People.
8. This is the most propitious time to respond to the call to join forces because the national public is receptive to it and resentful of public abuse of power and unaccountability:
- a. Supreme Court justices have been exposed for engaging in unethical and illegal conduct; and failing to 'disqualify themselves in proceedings where their impartiality might reasonably be questioned' (28 U.S.C. §445), e.g., due to conflict of interests arising from their decades-long beneficial personal relationship with 'Friends of the Justices', such as billionaire Harlan Crow, as revealed by ProPublica. Consequently, public trust in the justices has plummeted;
 - b. the judicial treatment of President Biden's son and former President Trump has sparked allegations of double judicial standards and the politization of the Department of Justice; and

- c. the current electoral season will allow politicians, whether principled or opportunistic, to turn judicial abuse, unaccountability, and reform into the distinguishing issues of their platform in an effort to earn public recognition as the People's Champions of Justice.

B. Thousands[‡] of emails have been, and continue to be, sent to officers and entities duty-bound to safeguard the integrity of the justice system

9. These are email addressees to whom emails[‡] have been sent since 7 June 2022:

10. I respectfully offer you and your colleagues and guests to make via video conference or, if in New York City, in person, a presentation on how to join forces to achieve the above-stated exposure, compensation, and reform; followed by a Questions & Answers session.

11. The presentation is supported by my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking. They are the skills that undergird my three-volume study*[†] of judges and their judiciaries titled:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:

Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting*[†]

12. The study discusses the axiom 'Unaccountability breeds abuse'. Its corollary is 'What judges allow themselves to do -regardless of the requirement to "avoid the even the appearance of impropriety" (§100.2), as exposed by The Wall Street Journal and Thomson Reuters-, others copy and exceed'.

- a. Former President Trump was found by NY State Judge Arthur Engoron to have committed business fraud, as stated in his decision of 26 September 2023. How much encouragement did he receive to defraud from his sister, former 3rd Circuit Judge Maryanne Trump Barry, who was going to be investigated for fraud before she simply resigned with impunity(¶16c)?

13. Some of my articles on unaccountability and abuse of power are posted to my website Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 21 October 2023, the number of visitors that had become subscribers was 49,029.

C. A similar case of coordinated abuse of power and cover-up, involving Medicare and related medical services and equipment providers

14. Similar emails have been sent since 4 October 2022 to the top officers of Medicare and related entities named infra. They have not replied or produced discovery, disclosure, or the overdue decision of the Medicare Appeals Council. Such failure to reply, produce, or decide results from, or works in effect, a coordinated cover-up to obstruct justice. Those officers have abused their power. They need to be exposed through the proposed UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS(¶6↑) on:

A call to Medicare Appeals Council to decide appeal M-23-386, filed on 28 October 2022 and still pending; and
to people who have been denied their rights by Medicare and related entities, to class action law firms, and to investigative journalists, to join forces to expose the abuse of power and cover-up affecting so many people who assert their rights as single party to their stand-alone case and even do so without a lawyer (pro se), and as a result, have barely any chance against coordinated hospitals, medical practitioners, equipment and laboratory services providers, health insurance companies and health management organizations (HMOs) and their networks of services and equipment providers, medical decisions reviewers, administrative law judges,
Medicare, Medicaid, and the Medicare Appeals Council...with their lawyers, all of whom coordinate their pursuit of their common interest in enlarging their network; denying claims of people to save money; and/or billing them for the balance of bills in excess of what the tables of medical costs allow by law and contract, which constitutes balance billing and is illegal because it defeats the purpose of medical costs limited by health insurance*; (OL3:1611)

Letters to
NYC Mayor Eric Adams & the Public Advocate

Blank

June 24, 2022

Mayor Eric Adams
City Hall
New York, NY 10007

<https://www1.nyc.gov/office-of-the-mayor/index.page>; tel. (212) 639-9675

Bronx districts leaders Vanessa L Gibson, Diana Ayala, Eric Dinowitz, Kevin C. Riley, Marjorie Velázquez, Pierina Ana Sanchez, Oswald Feliz, Althea Stevens, Rafael Salamanca, Jr., Amanda Farías; Advocate Socrates Solano; and NYC Public Advocate Jumaane Williams

Dear Mayor Adams, Mr. Williams, and Bronx district leaders,[‡]

1. I entered an official position upon swearing to discharge my duties “faithfully”. While so discharging them, I acquired information of substantial importance that you too should without delay acquire and investigate as part of your official duties to protect your constituents and hold public officers accountable. I have written down that information in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words, titled “Emergency Application”, and dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451. Given its origin in a criminal court, the information concerns criminal matters and affects your constituents directly, being apt to deprive them of their property, liberty, and life. In fact, the Criminal Procedure Law provides serious penalties, including imprisonment, for the unauthorized disclosure of it. So, I proceed prudently.

2. Aware of the inherent conflict of interests in investigating one’s friends and colleagues, and thus incriminating oneself, I wrote on May 28, to the six top judicial and police officers named in the letter hereunder[‡]. I asked that they contact Judge Yearwood and request that he send them a copy of the “Application”. I have made numerous calls to each of them to find out how they have handled and intend to handle the information in it, to no avail. Yet, J. Yearwood has a duty to “cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business”. You are an “authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation” of law as described in the “Application”. Therefore, I respectfully request that you ask Judge Yearwood and those six top judicial and police officers to send you a copy of it so that you may conduct an investigation separately or jointly with other Bronx district leaders. The onus to investigate is now on you.

3. Would you expect and demand that an investigation be conducted “diligently” and “efficiently and effectively” if you were suffering the wrongdoing of public officers? Wrongdoing by police officers has eroded public trust in them so gravely as to spark the movement against their brutality and for defunding them. The involvement of top national politicians in organizing the January 6 insurrection to overturn We the People’s electoral will has shocked many. The revelation by The Wall Street Journal in a series of articles beginning with that published on September 28, 2021, and titled “131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest” has shown that judges can be risklessly corrupt in reliance on their colleagues’ cover-up: not one of them has been disciplined, let alone prosecuted. They are held unaccountable.

4. If people come to suspect that inaction is the result of a cover-up among officers of the three branches, all officers, including you, will suffer an unprecedented erosion of public trust. If such trust is of no concern to you, money should be: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over $1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. The Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals held in *Strickland v. Dear Mayor Adams, Mr. Carone, and Bronx districts and NYC leaders,[‡]

I entered an official position upon swearing to discharge my duties “faithfully”. While so discharging them, I acquired information of substantial importance that you too should without delay acquire and investigate as part of your official duties to protect your constituents and hold public officers accountable. I have written down that information in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words, titled “Emergency Application”, and dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451. Given its origin in a criminal court, the information concerns criminal matters and affects your constituents directly, being apt to deprive them of their property, liberty, and life. In fact, the Criminal Procedure Law provides serious penalties, including imprisonment, for the unauthorized disclosure of it. So, I proceed prudently.

Aware of the inherent conflict of interests in investigating one’s friends and colleagues, and thus incriminating oneself, I wrote on May 28, to the six top judicial and police officers named in the letter hereunder[‡]. I asked that they contact Judge Yearwood and request that he send them a copy of the “Application”. I have made numerous calls to each of them to find out how they have handled and intend to handle the information in it, to no avail. Yet, J. Yearwood has a duty to “cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business”. You are an “authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation” of law as described in the “Application”. Therefore, I respectfully request that you ask Judge Yearwood and those six top judicial and police officers to send you a copy of it so that you may conduct an investigation separately or jointly with other Bronx district leaders. The onus to investigate is now on you.

Would you expect and demand that an investigation be conducted “diligently” and “efficiently and effectively” if you were suffering the wrongdoing of public officers? Wrongdoing by police officers has eroded public trust in them so gravely as to spark the movement against their brutality and for defunding them. The involvement of top national politicians in organizing the January 6 insurrection to overturn We the People’s electoral will has shocked many. The revelation by The Wall Street Journal in a series of articles beginning with that published on September 28, 2021, and titled “131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest” has shown that judges can be risklessly corrupt in reliance on their colleagues’ cover-up: not one of them has been disciplined, let alone prosecuted. They are held unaccountable.

If people come to suspect that inaction is the result of a cover-up among officers of the three branches, all officers, including you, will suffer an unprecedented erosion of public trust. If such trust is of no concern to you, money should be: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over $1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. Dear Chief Judge DiFiore, Judges Marks and Kaplan, Chief Barrere, and IGs Spatz and Hamm,[‡]

I entered an official position upon swearing to discharge my duties “faithfully”. While so discharging them, I acquired information of substantial importance that you too should without delay acquire and investigate as part of your official duties. I have written down that information in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words, titled “Emergency Application”, and dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451; tel. (718)618-3700.*

The NY Criminal Procedure Law warns that disclosing such information, except under court order, subjects a person to serious penalties, including imprisonment. Therefore, I respectfully request that you contact Judge Yearwood and ask that he release to you a copy of my Application so that you may promptly start your joint and several investigation of it given that each of you is an “authority empowered to investigate or act upon” such information.

Indeed, I have a legal and ethical duty to bring this information to your attention. That duty flows from NY Rules Of Professional Conduct (22 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 1200), which provides thus:

Rule. 8.3. REPORTING PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT(a). A lawyer who knows that another lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a substantial question as to that lawyer’s honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer shall report such knowledge to a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation.

Conversely, Judge Yearwood has a duty under the Rules of the Chief Administrative Judge PART 100. Judicial Conduct, (C) Administrative Responsibilities.(1) to “diligently discharge the judge's administrative responsibilities without bias or prejudice” to protect fellow judges, staff, and others, and “cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business.”

I also have a civic duty to report this information to you. That duty has been repeatedly declared and instilled in the citizenry in the guiding principle of civic conduct, “If you see something, say something”. I did see something...and then some...so I am saying it to you.

After you request from Judge Yearwood my Application and I receive from you an order to discuss it with you in person in NYC or by video conference, I will comply. I look forward to your acknowledgment of receipt of this letter and your statement of what you intend to do about it.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Mayor Adams and Mr. Carone,[‡]

This is a follow-up to my letter of last June 24, reproduced on the back hereof, where I informed you that after entering an official position, I acquired substantially important information involving judicial, prosecutorial, and police officers that you should investigate as part of your duties. I stated that information in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn “Emergency Application” of May 26. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, where the information originated, and requested that you ask him for a copy.

I have not heard from you. That is disappointing and telling, for I brought to your attention probable cause to believe that there is organized wrongdoing by public officers duty-bound to enforce the law and administer justice, which implies that innocent people are being victimized. If you were the target of an unfounded accusation, never mind if as a result you were committed to Rikers, you would want and expect public officers with authority to help you to proceed with a sense of urgency and personal responsibility. This should be quite understandable since you too must know the outrageous amount of abuse, violence, and humiliation that fester in Rikers.

Judge Yearwood has not answered my “Emergency Application” either. Instead, he referred it to Judge Laurence Busching, who enabled and covered up the organized wrongdoing. The text of his letter and my comment on it are in my letter attached hereto. I am complaining against both.

It follows that regardless of what you may have been or may yet be told, the “Emergency Application” has not been disposed of or dismissed...far from it. Indeed, it is not realistic to expect that I will drop the “Application” despite my duty to carry it on as the holder that I was of an official position, the lawyer that I am, and the responsible citizen that I intend to continue to be.

Therefore, I respectfully reiterate my request that you call Judge Yearwood at (718)618-3700 to ask that he forward to you a copy of the “Emergency Application” together with the related “evidence” and transcripts mentioned therein so that you may promptly begin your investigation. If you issue an order for me to release the “Application” to you, I will comply with it.

The information in the “Application” can cause an unprecedented erosion of trust in public officers if people come to suspect that inaction is the result of a cover-up among officers of those branches of government protecting themselves rather than the people that they are sworn to protect.

If public trust is of no concern to you, money should be: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over \$1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. The Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held in Strickland v. U.S. that the Federal Judiciary and its officers in their official and individual capacities can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable.

Motivated by either principles or opportunism, you can use the “Application” information to become nationally recognized by a grateful People as one of their Champions of Justice.

Sincerely,
Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Mr. Andrews and Addressees in the TO: box of this email¹,

On June 24, 2022, I sent my first letter[‡] to former police officer and now NYC Mayor Eric Adams, his Chief of Staff Frank Carone, Public Advocate Jumaane Williams, and before and after that date also to the Bronx council members, commissioners, judges, et al., to inform them, and request an investigation, of the evidence that I had collected first-hand of the public corruption in criminal cases described hereunder, which involves prosecutors and NYPD officers, including detectives, seeking indictments based on false accusations, and a cover-up by judges, the NYPD, and others.

On July 21, you sent me the following email:

From: agencyemail (agencyemail@customercare.nyc.gov)

Thank you for contacting the City of New York. Your message has been forwarded to the appropriate agency for review and handling.

For future reference, your correspondence number is 1-1-2213769.

Sincerely,

The City of New York

No public officer of the City of New York whom I have contacted by phone or email knows what to do with that "correspondence number". Do you?

Whatever that "agency" is that sent me that email, it intended to commit a pretense of a reply calculated to lead nowhere, and as such meaningless and useless. Here applies a tenet of the law of torts that provides: "people are deemed to intend the foreseeable consequences of their actions".

I respectfully request that you take the following actions:

- a. read the statement below to grasp the gravity of the complaint affecting countless people indicted, prosecuted, imprisoned, and tainted by a criminal record based on false accusations presented to a grand jury by prosecutors and NYPD officers;
- b. bring this matter to the attention of the Mayor's chief of staff for the appointment of independent investigators that do not have a conflict of interests about investigating the NYPD because they, unlike Mayor Adams, never were police officers, or for that matter, prosecutors or judges; and
- c. ask me in for an interview with you and the chief of staff via video conference or in person.

Meantime, I continue with the preparation of the class action, as described infra.

Every day in which the inaction persists of the public officers that know from me or others of this complaint will cause the outrage of those directly affected and the rest of the state and national public to be exponentially more intense and vocal when they learn how recklessly and with what callous indifference those officers in self-interest disregarded their individual and collective duty to investigate or cause the investigation of, and stop, the public abuse of power and corruption underlying the complaint and the explicit or implicit complicit coordination of its cover-up.

Those likely to number in the thousands who on false criminal accusations have been sent to, and kept jailed in, that place festering with violence, humiliation, and depravity, namely, the Rikers Island Prison, or who have lost their jobs or been evicted due to having been indicted, or been financially devastated to raise bail, will demand from those responsible therefor in their official and individual capacities correspondingly devastating compensation in line with the cited precedent.

What would you do in their place?

Juries have awarded $1.4 billion to the parents and relatives of the Sandy Hook victims for the defamatory words of Alex Jones and their practical injurious consequences.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF JUDGE

Thank you for being here today to participate ¹ in the work of the New York State courts. As grand jurors, you now are a part of our criminal justice system.

All across our great state, in courthouses from ² Riverhead on Long Island to Buffalo on the shores of Lake Erie, grand juries uphold the laws of the land by indicting those individuals believed to have committed crimes and protecting the rights of others against unfounded accusations. ³

We are keenly aware that New Yorkers have busy lives and we ³ recognize that you have many demands on your time. Knowing that, over the past decade, we have transformed the jury system by increasing the jury pool and reducing frequency of jury service, in order to make service more convenient.

Grand jury presentations range from more than 5,000 a year in the ⁴ most populated boroughs of New York City to just a handful in our least populous counties. To keep our vast justice system moving swiftly, fairly, and efficiently requires a dedicated corps of judges, attorneys, court administrators and grand jurors just like you.

Your mission is two-fold: on the one hand, to use your power as ⁵ grand jurors to investigate crimes and hand up an indictment when sufficient evidence exists to do so; on the other, when the evidence is insufficient, to protect people from unfounded criminal accusations by not handing up an indictment. ⁶

Like voting, grand jury service gives you the opportunity to participate ⁶ – in a very direct and personal way – in our democracy. For this brief period of time, you will be performing an important, essential public service. ⁷

As Chief Judge, and on behalf of all the members of the judiciary, ⁷ thank you for your participation in the pursuit of justice.

Janet DiFiore

Carol M. Hamm, Esq.
Deputy Inspector General

Dear Chief Judge DiFiore, Judges Marks and Kaplan, Chief Barrere, and IGs Spatz and Hamm,[‡]

This is a follow-up to my letter to you dated May 28, where I informed you that after I had entered an official position, I acquired information of substantial importance that you should with out delay investigate as part of your official duties. I wrote down that information in an eight-page sworn “Emergency Application” consisting of 4,743 words, dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, where the information originated, and requested that you ask him for a copy.

I have received no letter acknowledging your receipt of mine. Yet, that information concerns criminal matters. It is so sensitive that the Criminal Procedure Law provides serious penalties and even imprisonment for the unauthorized disclosure of it. That should have alerted you to the need to act “efficiently and effectively” because you have a duty to “[diligently discharge \[your\] responsibilities](#)” and Judge Yearwood has a duty to “cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business”. Moreover, you have the means of calling him and meeting virtually with him and others in a teleconference, as follows from Chief Administrative Judge Lawrence K. Marks’ 2021 Annual Report on the NYS UCS. There he highlights that “we adopted and then mastered virtual technology to...ensure access to justice in the broadest range of cases”.

Chief DiFiore’s Excellence Initiative can only succeed if it promotes people’s trust in officers with the integrity needed to deliver the “level of justice services people have a right to expect and deserve”. That trust has been so battered as to spark the movement against police brutality and for defunding the police. The information at stake can so outrage people as to cause them to extend their distrust to prosecutors and judges. The suspicion that inaction is the result of a cover-up among the three branches will exacerbate such outrage. If public trust is of no concern to you, money should be: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI for over \$1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. The Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held in Strickland v. U.S. that the Federal Judiciary and its officers in their individual and official capacities can be sued and held liable.

Thus, I respectfully request that you inform me of the action that you have taken and intend to take concerning the information at stake. Conversely, I inform you that I am asking political leaders to do likewise by contacting you. Motivated by either principles or opportunism, whether to protect their constituents, in general, and those already, and yet to be, victimized, in particular, or to further their own careers, they may cause you to “diligently discharge [your] responsibilities”.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Director Olderman and Bronx districts and NYC leaders,[‡]

I entered an official position upon swearing to discharge my duties “faithfully”. While so discharging them, I acquired information involving judicial, prosecutorial, and police officers of substantial importance that you too should without delay acquire and investigate as part of your criminal defense practice. I have written down that information in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn statement titled “Emergency Application” and dated May 26, 2022. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451; tel. (718)618-3700.* Given its origin in a criminal court, the information concerns criminal matters and affects your constituents directly, being apt to deprive them of their property, liberty, and life. In fact, the Criminal Procedure Law provides serious penalties, including imprisonment, for the unauthorized disclosure of it. So, I proceed prudently.

Aware of the inherent conflict of interests in people investigating their colleagues and friends, and thus incriminating themselves, I wrote on May 28, to the six top judicial and police officers named in the letter hereunder[‡]. I asked that they contact Judge Yearwood and request that he send them a copy of the “Application”. I have made numerous calls to each of them to find out how they have handled and intend to handle the information in it, to no avail. Yet, Judge Yearwood has a duty to “cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business”. Others are an “authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation” of law as described in the “Application”. Hence, I respectfully request that you ask Judge Yearwood and those six top judicial and police officers to send you a copy of it so that you may conduct an investigation separately or jointly with Bronx districts and NYC leaders for your own and your constituents’ sake.

Would you expect and demand that an investigation be conducted “diligently” and “efficiently and effectively” if you were suffering the wrongdoing of public officers? Wrongdoing by police officers has eroded public trust in them so gravely as to spark the movement against their brutality and for defunding them. The involvement of national politicians in organizing the January 6 insurrection to overturn We the People’s electoral will has shocked many. The revelation by The Wall Street Journal in a series of articles beginning with that of September 28, 2021, titled “131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest” has shown that judges can be risklessly corrupt in reliance on their colleagues’ cover-up: not one of them has been disciplined, let alone prosecuted. They are held by themselves and friends unaccountable.

If people come to suspect that inaction is the result of a cover-up among officers of the three branches, all those officers will suffer an unprecedented erosion of public trust. If such trust is of no concern to them, money should be to you: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over \$1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar filed with FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held in Strickland v. U.S. that the Federal Judiciary itself and its officers in their official and individual capacities can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable. You can whether motivated by principles or opportunism use the “Application” information to become nationally recognized by a grateful People as one of their Champions of Justice. So, let’s talk.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Mr. Rothermel, Commissioner of Jurors, and Ms. Strauber,[‡]

The image hereunder depicts the NYS check that I received as a grand juror in Bronx. I object to both the amount paid for my service and the circumstances that caused it to last only four days, although the term of service was 20 days and I had made arrangements, and was able and willing, to serve it. Those circumstances are inextricably intertwined with the substantially important information involving judicial, prosecutorial, and police officers that I acquired as a grand juror. The Criminal Procedure Law provides serious penalties, including imprisonment, for the unauthorized disclosure of such information. Prudently, I stated those circumstances and information in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn "Emergency Application" of May 26, 2022. I submitted it to, and it was received on May 31* by, Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood, Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 East 161st Street, Bronx, NY 10451; tel. (718)618-3700...to no avail.

I respectfully request that you ask Judge Yearwood and the six judicial and police officers addressed below to send you a copy of my "Emergency Application" so that you may conduct an investigation separately or jointly with them and the Bronx districts and NYC leaders named infra.

You should conduct that investigation not only on my behalf and that of third parties, but also for your own sake: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over \$1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar filed with FBI agents and the FBI's cover-up of their inaction. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held in Strickland v. U.S. that the Federal Judiciary itself and its officers in their official and individual capacities can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable. Those are precedents.

The below image of the check indicates that it must be cashed within 180 days. To mitigate damages, I will cash it, and will do so without prejudice, and reserving all my rights, to demand the payment of the full term of service and further compensatory damages on my behalf and that of third parties. Meantime, I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Judge Yearwood[‡]

1. I mailed you with date of May 26, 2022, and you received on May 30, a writing thus titled:

Emergency Application of Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq., for his reinstalment in Panel A of the current grand jury, which is seated for the period May 23-June 17, 2022, after the peremptory discharge of him by Grand Jury Judge Laurence E. Busching upon the statements to him of ADAs and grand jurors accusing Dr. Cordero in his absence; for preservation of evidence; and other relief action

2. Since then, I have had to make numerous calls to your chambers at (718)618-3700 to request from your assistants Ms. Dana and Ms. Stephanie to speak with you and ask for an answer from you to the “Emergency Application”; to no avail. To the same end, I had to call at (718)618-3000 Chief Clerk Michelle Foggie; Mr. Greg Johnson, Acting Bureau Chief Document Liaison; and Mr. Lamar Decassures, Bureau Chief Trial Support. They too were unable to induce you to contact me.
3. However, now, a month later and without even recognizing my writing as an “Emergency Application”, Judge Busching mailed me a letter whose full text is the following:

Dear Dr. Cordero:

Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood has referred your letter dated May 26, 2022, to me for response.

Please be advised that the A Panel, Sixth Term expired on June 17, 2022. Your application to be reinstated to the grand jury is therefore moot.

4. My “Emergency Application” consists of 8 pages and 4,743 words. It states in its very title that it deals, in addition with my request for reinstatement in the grand jury, with the substantive issues of genuine material and legal importance of “the peremptory discharge of [me] by Grand Jury Judge Busching upon the statements to him of ADAs and grand jurors accusing Dr. Cordero in his absence; for preservation of evidence; and other relief action”.
5. More importantly, the “Emergency Application” deals with the accusation of murder against two people and their probable incarceration. The ADA who presented the indictment to Panel A of the grand jury on May 23 and 24, 2022, failed to connect to the alleged murder the only two pieces of “evidence”, i.e., a pair of sneakers and of jeans shown on photos, so that they were irrelevant as they lacked any probative value. None of the 12 videos and pictures showed the scene of the alleged crime, the alleged victim lying on the street, or the autopsy report; and the NYPD police officers and detectives who testified before the grand jury did not even allege to have seen any of that. No bystander, nearby storeowner, or relative of the alleged victim was brought to testify. The alleged victim was seen on a video walking on the sidewalk with a friend, who was the only civilian to testify although he could not identify the alleged murderers or provide a composite of them. No murder weapon was recovered and no motive for the murder was alleged. The “evidence” and the testimony could only permit of one conclusion: no murder had occurred! Once more, an ADA had abused uncritical and indifferent grand jurors ‘to indict a sandwich’...and how many people?

6. A person guided by “common sense and good judgment” (Grand Juror’s Handbook, p.10), and especially officers of the court charged with administering justice, would have realized the emergency situation at hand: They would have promptly undertaken a determination of whether there was probable cause to free those two accused people immediately as well as people who like them had been accused and even incarcerated for crimes that they could not possibly have committed because the alleged crimes had not even occurred or the alleged “evidence” was totally irrelevant.
7. Judge Busching’s letter to me was non-responsive. Justice Thurgood Marshall put it this way in his dissent in Greenholtz v. Inmates of the Nebraska Penal & Correctional Complex, 442 U.S. 1, 40 (1979): “[A]n inability to provide any reasons suggests that the decision is, in fact, arbitrary”.
8. You had the duty to investigate the “Emergency Application” and do so with due diligence. You and J. Busching waited until Panel A’s term had expired to make my request for grand jury reinstatement moot and pretend that was the only issue. You committed bad faith and dereliction of duty.
9. You referred the “Emergency Application” to Judge Busching although he had every interest in not incriminating himself or causing ADAs, NYPD officers and detectives, and grand jurors to incriminate him if he faulted any of them. Self-servingly and inexcusably, you disregarded the millennial principle of judicial process “nobody can be a fair and impartial judge in his own cause”.
10. If you investigated the “evidence” and the transcripts of the proceedings before the grand jury and Judge Busching referred to in the “Application”, you knew how incriminating they were. That knowledge should have prevented you from referring it to him. If you failed to perform that investigation, you engaged in willful blindness and ignorance. Applying the principle, “People are deemed to intend the foreseeable consequences of their acts”, you complicitly intended a cover-up.
11. You, ADAs, witnesses, jurors, and Judge Busching have inflicted injury in fact on the two people referred to in ¶5 above; others similarly accused and incarcerated before and since then; and me. There is precedent that you have made applicable to you: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over $1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar filed with FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held in Strickland v. U.S.[‡] that the Federal Judiciary itself and its officers in their official and individual capacities can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable.
12. Hence, I respectfully request that you disqualify them and recuse yourself from any involvement in the “Emergency Application” and refer it, the “evidence”, and the transcripts to Chief Judge Janet DiFiori; Chief Administrative Judge Lawrence Marks; NYC Administrative Judge Deborah Kaplan; NYPD IAB Chief David Barrere; and Inspectors General Sherrill Spatz and Carol Hamm.

Dear Chief Judge DiFiore, Judges Marks and Kaplan, Chief Barrere, and IGs Spatz and Hamm,[‡]

This is a follow-up to my letters of May 28 and June 18 and numerous calls, where I informed you that after entering an official position, I acquired substantially important information involving judicial, prosecutorial, and police officers that you should investigate as part of your duties. I stated that information in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn “Emergency Application” of May 26. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, where the information originated, and requested that you ask him for a copy.

I have not heard from you. That is disappointing and telling, for I brought to your attention probable cause to believe that there is organized wrongdoing by public officers duty-bound to enforce the law and administer justice, which implies that innocent people are being victimized.

Judge Yearwood has not answered my “Emergency Application” either. Instead, he referred it to Judge Laurence Busching, who enabled and covered up the organized wrongdoing. The text of his letter and my comment on it are in my letter attached hereto. I am complaining against both.

It follows that regardless of what you may have been or may yet be told, the “Emergency Application” has not been disposed of or dismissed...far from it. Indeed, it is not realistic to expect that I will drop the “Application” despite my duty to carry it on as the holder that I was of an official position, the lawyer that I am, and the responsible citizen that I intend to continue to be.

Therefore, I respectfully reiterate my request that you call Judge Yearwood at (718)618-3700 to ask that he forward to you a copy of the “Emergency Application” together with the related “evidence” and transcripts mentioned therein so that you may investigate it without further delay. If you issue an order for me to release the “Application” to you, I will promptly comply with it.

The information in the “Application” can cause an unprecedented erosion of trust in public officers if people come to suspect that inaction is the result of a cover-up among officers of the three branches of government. If public trust is of no concern to you, money should be: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over $1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. Dear Mr. Rothermel, Commissioner of Jurors, and Ms. Strauber,[‡]

This is a follow-up to my letter of 4 instant, reproduced on the back hereof, where I informed you that after entering an official position, I acquired substantially important information involving judicial, prosecutorial, and police officers that you should investigate as part of your duties. I stated that information in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn “Emergency Application” of May 26. I submitted it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood of the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, where the information originated, and requested that you ask him for a copy.

I have not heard from you. That is disappointing and telling, for I brought to your attention probable cause to believe that there is organized wrongdoing by public officers duty-bound to enforce the law and administer justice, which implies that innocent people are being victimized. If you were the target of an unfounded accusation, never mind if as a result you were committed to Rikers, you would want and expect public officers with authority to help you to proceed with a sense of urgency and personal responsibility. This should be quite understandable since you too must know the outrageous amount of abuse, violence, and humiliation that fester in Rikers

Judge Yearwood has not answered my “Emergency Application” either. Instead, he referred it to Judge Laurence Busching, who enabled and covered up the organized wrongdoing. The text of his letter and my comment on it are in my letter attached hereto. I am complaining against both.

It follows that regardless of what you may have been or may yet be told, the “Emergency Application” has not been disposed of or dismissed...far from it. Indeed, it is not realistic to expect that I will drop the “Application” despite my duty to carry it on as the holder that I was of an official position, the lawyer that I am, and the responsible citizen that I intend to continue to be.

Therefore, I respectfully reiterate my request that you call Judge Yearwood at (718)618-3700 to ask that he forward to you a copy of the “Emergency Application” together with the related “evidence” and transcripts mentioned therein so that you may promptly begin your investigation. If you issue an order for me to release the “Application” to you, I will comply with it.

The information in the “Application” can cause an unprecedented erosion of trust in public officers if people come to suspect that inaction is the result of a cover-up among officers of those branches of government protecting themselves rather than the people that they are sworn to protect.

If public trust is of no concern to you, money should be: Ninety gymnasts sued the FBI and agents for over \$1 billion last June 8, for its failure to act on the complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar brought to FBI agents and the FBI’s cover-up of their inaction. There is more to clean.
3. You have shown that you dare take on judges and the NYPD. Thus, your conduct supports the reasonable expectation that you can openly and/or discreetly help expose this case: I, while serving as a grand juror, acquired information concerning five NYPD officers, including detectives, as well as prosecutors and judges involved in indicting people of a murder that the latter could not possibly have committed because the evidence presented by the prosecutor, the officers, and the alleged friend of the alleged victim did not show that such crime ever occurred. They relied on the grand jurors’ indifference and uncritical judgment to indict despite the non-evidence of a crime.
4. When I asked questions pointing to that conclusion, the presenting and the supervising prosecutors referred me to the judge in charge of the grand jury, who summarily discharged me. I described these circumstances in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words and submitted it to the court’s administrative judge. The latter ensured his unaccountability by referring the statement to the discharging judge, who foreseeably held himself unaccountable: Without discussing it, he dismissed it on the inconsequential fact that the grand jury term had expired.
5. I submitted this case in writing to NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Chief David Barrere on May 28 and requested that he investigate the five officers. Since then, over 12 IAB officers have given me the runaround. Alleging that they cannot find out the status of this case, they have opened three complaints, but to no avail. I brought the case to the attention of NYPD Commissioner Keechant Sewell by letter and email of August 19 and 30, respectively. A reply email only informed me of “NY City Correspondence # 1-1-2213769”. There is probable cause to believe that IAB and One Police Plaza have engaged in a cover-up: Instead of planting evidence, officers fool grand juries with non-evidence to leverage false indictments at plea bargaining. Their cover-up is not only of this case: It is the product of an institutional policy. So, the fact that this case occurred in Bronx instead of Brooklyn is irrelevant. You and your offices deal with the same NYPD. Worse yet...
6. You deal with the same NYC and NYS administrative and chief judges who have failed to investigate this case. There can be not only “nearly 400 convictions tied to dirty NYPD cops”, but rather a systemic policy. Under it, thousands have been and still are incarcerated before and after trial on indictments of grand juries fooled with non-evidence by NYPD officers, prosecutors, and judges. By contrast, your policy favors “accountability solutions over incarceration”. You with law school professors and students can prevent convictions on non-evidence and generate “faith in the justice system” by cleaning it of officers and others who are dirty and remiss in their duty and cover it up.

Let’s meet to discuss coordination.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear ACJ Cannataro, AG James, Chief Murphy, and addressees in ¶6 and §§C, D infra, ♦

1. This is a follow-up to my letters♦ to former CJ J. DiFiore, Deputy Chief Administrative Judge D. Kaplan, et al., to no avail. Yet, they concern prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 E 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451. On May 23 and 24, 2022, the first days of a grand jury term, ADA Burim Namani and supervising ADA Diana Jetta presented an indictment for murder allegedly committed on or around May 24, 2021, early in the evening in a Bronx street lined with restaurants and bodegas. When they asked whether jurors had questions, I, a grand juror, asked critical ones because the 12 exhibits that they presented contained:
 - a. not a single photo or video of the scene of the crime or of the victim whether taken by the police, a surveillance camera of the neighboring restaurants and bodegas, or any bystander ...in the age of the ubiquitous smartphone with camera and a citizens journalist mentality!;
 - b. no police incident report; medical examiner autopsy report; or death or burial certificate;
 - c. nothing but the allegations of five NYPD officers, including detectives, and an alleged friend that had been walking with the alleged victim that evening but who did not witness the murder.
2. On May 25, I was summoned to the courtroom of Grand Jury Justice Laurence E. Busching. He acted as lead counsel for those who had accused me of “being disruptive and making other grand jurors feel uncomfortable”; presented no evidence; denied me the opportunity to confront them and present witnesses; had me surrounded by four intimidating NYPD officers; and discharged me.
3. I described these events in a May 26, 8-page, 4,743-word sworn statement and submitted it to Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, who sits in the same building. Without acknowledging receipt or taking my calls, he forwarded it to J. Busching, who as judge in his own cause biasedly dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. These judges aided and condoned prosecutors and NYPD officers seeking indictments on “unfounded accusations”.

A. Action requested

4. There are more details, augmented by those stated herein, concerning the irrelevant and insufficient evidence presented to support false accusations; the discharge; and the complicit dereliction of duty in aid of a cover-up by the officers with authority and duty-bound to investigate this case to whom I submitted it, many of whom are listed in ¶6 and §§C, D infra. Thus, I respectfully request that you:
 - a. investigate this case, taking cognizance of my §B. Statement, sworn to under 28 U.S.C. §1746; the February 20 letter; and the copies of communications below and at ♦ and ‡;
 - b. call J. Yearwood to ask for a copy of my May 26 statement and the transcript of the discharge;
 - c. based on your authority to investigate this kind of case, issue me with an order to produce the May 26 statement, which will entitle me to disclose it and with which I will comply; and
 - d. ask me to discuss this case with you, on video conference if not in NYC; otherwise, in person.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

A. Action requested

4. There are more details, augmented by those stated next, concerning the false accusations based on irrelevant and insufficient evidence; the discharge; and the complicit dereliction of duty in aid of a cover-up by the many officers with authority to investigate this case to whose attention I have brought it, many of whom are listed in ¶6 and §§C, D infra. Thus, I respectfully request that you:
 - a. investigate this complaint, first taking cognizance of my below Statement of new facts, sworn to under 28 U.S.C. §1746, and the copies of communications below and at ♦ and ‡;
 - b. call J. Yearwood to ask for a copy of my May 28 statement and the transcript of the discharge;
 - c. based on your authority to investigate this kind of case, issue me with an order to produce the May 28 statement, which will entitle me to disclose it and with which I will comply; and

B. Statement of facts since January 5, 2023, showing a coordinated cover-up

5. On May 28, 2022, I mailed to IAB Chief David Barrere my first written complaint against all those NYPD officers in the grand jury room and the courtroom. I had to keep calling IAB at (212)741-8401 until I was given a complaint number, i.e., # 2022-13831. I kept calling to find out its status, but neither the Command Center nor the Records or the Assessment Units could find it. As a result, a second complaint was opened, # 2022-15482, uselessly, for the same happened to it. So, a third complaint was opened: # 2022-15601. They insisted that I had to be patient and wait until they called me. I waited for months. In the meantime, I contacted other public officers and entities.
6. On January 5, 2023, Detective Arata called me unexpectedly. As shown in my August 19 letter to Commissioner Sewell, I had spoken with him several times beginning on June 9. Even so, he asked that I tell him my complaint. He claimed to know nothing about my letters to Chief Barrere or the three complaints, or did not bother to read them before calling me. What contained my name and phone number that prompted him to call me? I offered to email him my written complaint and he agreed to call me to acknowledge receipt of it. But he failed to do so although since January 5, I have sent and resent daily my summarizing and previous emails to him and these other addressees: iabcmdctr@nypd.org, iab@nypd.org, question@nycourts.gov, rhuff@advocate.nyc.gov, reception@advocate.nyc.gov, oignypdcomplaints@doj.nyc.gov, gethelp@advocate.nyc.gov, mtsciq1@bb.nyc.gov, ucs-correspondence@nycourts.gov, recordsaccess@advocate.nyc.gov, bronxjury@nycourts.gov, webmail@bronxbp.nyc.gov, agencyemail@customercare.nyc.gov, ig@nycourts.gov, jcortes@bronxbp.nyc.gov, msabio@bronxbp.nyc.gov, lwaltan@bronxbp.nyc.gov, jpeguero@bronxbp.nyc.gov, scheduling@bronxbp.nyc.gov, pressinquiry@bronxbp.nyc.gov, mivory@bronxbp.nyc.gov, amukoko@bronxbp.nyc.gov, district8@council.nyc.gov, dinowitz@council.nyc.gov, district12@council.nyc.gov, district13@council.nyc.gov, district14@council.nyc.gov, district15@council.nyc.gov, district16@council.nyc.gov, salamanca@council.nyc.gov, district18@council.nyc.gov, socratessolano2021@gmail.com, Info@bronxdefenders.org, media@bronxdefenders.org,
7. The overwhelming majority did not even acknowledge receipt. In the more than eight months since May 28, none has informed me of having investigated this case. What are the odds that those 34 email addressees plus those whom I could reach only by mail have just coincidentally decided not to answer my communications or take any action? Zero. Self-interested unaccountability 100%.
8. That provides probable cause to believe that there is either actual or constructive complicit coordination among them not to take any action that can provoke a frightening reaction: retaliation by NYS judges having closed ranks to protect the complained-against fellow judges and themselves; NYPD officers testifying as hostile witnesses to make prosecutors lose indictments and cases; and the embarrassment of, and firing by, former police captain and current NYC Mayor Eric Adams.
9. On January 30, I called IAB and spoke with the supervisor of Det. Arata, Sgt. Palermo. He claimed to know nothing about my complaints. He looked up the numbers that I gave him and said that my complaints had been referred to the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (IG) since they concerned judges rather than NYPD officers. I protested that willful misstatement given that I had complained against the five NYPD officers, including detectives, who testified in support of the false accusations presented to a grand jury and those who surrounded me in Judge Busching's courtroom, who intentionally intimidated me, while I was alone, as reminders of those who brutalized Abner Louima, Amodou Diallo, Eric Garner, and George Floyd, among others.
10. Sgt. Palermo had no explanation for such referral despite the fact that I have not complained against any federal officer. Nor could he state the authority on which that IG of the U.S. DoJ would investigate New York State prosecutors, judges, and NYPD officers. He could not tell me the names of the IAB officers who made the referral; whether there was any cover letter, much less its text; the names of the referred-to DoJ officers; their addresses; the referral dates; or whether the complaints had, if at all, been put in envelopes with only my or no return address and mailed.

11. I stated a reasonable inference: If IAB had referred any or all of my complaints to DoJ, it did so in bad faith to evade having to investigate its officers and avoid judges' retaliation. Unable to dispute that inference, the Sgt. transferred me to Det. Stone for her to open a complaint: # 2023-3787.
12. On January 31, I called and spoke with Det. Arata. He claimed that he had not received my complaint. But shortly thereafter, he said that it had been sent to that IG and to the FBI because I had complained about it. I refuted that: I had cited as precedent for suing public officers the suit brought by 90 gymnasts against the FBI for ignoring their complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar(cf. my January 5 letter to him, ¶5.a.2). How disingenuous! When I pressed him on why he and IAB had not investigated the NYPD officers that I had complained against, he claimed that my 'complaint made no sense and I had given them nothing to investigate'. I replied that if so, it was his duty to call me to ask for clarifications or additional information. He was stumped. I told him that he was arguing in bad faith to cover up for his fellow officers. He terminated the call.
13. I called IAB and Det. Melexemis could not find who had referred my complaint to the U.S. DoJ. He asked me to call the Records Unit at (212)741-8414. There Det. Pier-Owen confirmed that my complaints had been referred to DoJ, including two others that she found: # 2022-19474 and 2023-00275. When I asked who had signed the referral cover letter and to whom it was addressed, she put me on hold. After coming back, she said that she could not find their names. She said that complaint # 2022-15482 had been referred to 'Dept. Discipline Committee for 1st District', whose address she could not find. Then she said that it had been referred to the U.S. District Court for NY. I said that courts do not investigate; they adjudicate. She said that I had complained against a lawyer. When I asked for his/her name, she could not find it. Of course, since I did not complain against any lawyer. She put me on another hold; then I overheard a female voice say "Don't bring him here!" She hung up on me and did not call me back although I had given her my phone number.
14. I called the Assessment Unit at (212)741-8444. I explained to Det. Jones what had just happened and gave her the numbers of the complaints and my phone number. I asked to speak with her supervisor, whom she identified as Sgt. Dario, and was stating the purpose...she hung up on me.
15. I called back the Assessment Unit, but landed in the Command Center. Sgt. Priola answered and said that my complaints had been sent to the FBI and circuit judges. I protested and asked who had referred them there. He did not know. He asked me whether I wanted to open a complaint against the NYPD. I said yes and he transferred me to Det. Stone. She opened complaint # 2023-3930.
16. I called the Records Unit. PAA Burkett transferred me to supervisor Lt. Davy Dob. He said that my complaint had been sent to the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. I had independently filed a complaint with it, docketed under # 2022/N-1084 as of September 23. Senior Administrative Assistant Lee Kiklier wrote me on November 23 "that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to NYS judges, which does not appear to apply to your complaint". Was this flagrant misstatement the result of an IAB cover letter pretending that I had complained against federal judges?
17. All these officers have in fact or in effect coordinated their dereliction of duty and cover-up to the detriment of the defendants in this case; those similarly situated, whose lives have been devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record; and me. It is your duty to investigate this case.

Dare cry "I accuse!" ...You may trigger history and enter it.**

26 October 2023

Chief Judge Rowan Wilson, Associate Judges, and Chief Administrative Judge Joseph Zayas, NYS Court of Appeals; tel. (518)455-7700
20 Eagle Street, Albany, NY 12207

Dear Chief Judge Wilson, Associate Judges, and Judge Zayas,¹

1. In your materials, C.J. Wilson, for your webinar at the NYS Academy of Trial Lawyers on October 24, 2023, you wrote that “the common law is meant to be grounded in principles of fundamental fairness and justice [so that] judges’ job is arriving at a just result”.
2. No “just result” can be arrived at when it begins with judges covering for indictments fabricated on false and insufficient evidence by assistant district attorneys and police officers who abuse their power to exploit the jurors’ ignorance of the law and untrained and uncritical judgment.
3. I, a lawyer with a Ph.D. in law, witnessed such fabrication as a grand juror at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 E 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451, on May 23 and 24, 2022. After the presentation of the indictment, I asked critical questions in the grand jury room. Thereupon, the presenting and the supervising assistant district attorneys, namely, ADA Burim Namani and ADA Diana Jetta, respectively, referred me to Grand Jury Justice Laurence Busching. He discharged me on May 25, without even allowing me to confront the accusers, whether those ADAs, any of the other 20 grand jurors, or the grand jury warden, denying me justice through due process.
4. I complained in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn statement of facts dated May 28, 2022, to Bronx Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood, who did not even reply or take any of my calls.
5. I filed a complaint with the Commission on Judicial Conduct, which dismissed it on the patently false allegation that it lacked jurisdiction because those judges “are not members of the NYS Unified Court System”.² To protect your colleagues, do you condone such dishonesty by CJC? To what even more preposterous falsehoods does CJC resort to dismiss laypersons’ complaints?
6. I complained in writing to you on February 23, 2023, and by phone, to your fellow CA judges, and to the NYC and NYS administrative judges repeatedly.¹ Neither you nor they replied. By so holding judges unaccountable, you all embolden them to be ever more grossly ‘unfair and unjust’.
7. Are you so committed to “fundamental fairness and justice” that you will investigate how as a result of judges’ pattern of condoning fabricated indictments likely thousands of individuals have had their lives devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record? You have the duty and authority to expose judges’ non-coincidental, explicitly or implicitly coordinated cover-up of their dereliction of duty, obstruction of justice, abuse of power, and complicit reciprocal protection.³

Action requested: Thus, I respectfully request that you investigate this matter, and to that end:

- a. call Judge Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, to ask for a copy of my May 28 sworn statement and the transcript of the court reporter’s record of Judge Busching’s May 25 discharge of me;
- b. based on your authority to investigate this kind of cases, issue me with an order to produce that statement, which will entitle me to disclose it without risking statutory penalties; and
- c. ask me to discuss this case with you, in person if in NYC; otherwise, via video conference.

Dare shout “I accuse!”...You may trigger history and enter it.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Chief Judges Zayas and Wilson, and Associate Judges,¹

In your materials, C.J. Wilson, for your webinar at the NYS Academy of Trial Lawyers on October 24, 2023, you wrote that “the common law is meant to be grounded in principles of fundamental fairness and justice [so that] judges’ job is arriving at a just result”.

No “just result” can be arrived at when judicial process begins with judges covering for indictments fabricated on false and insufficient^{1558¶1} evidence by DAs and police officers who abuse their power to exploit the jurors’ ignorance of the law and untrained and uncritical judgment.

I, a lawyer with a Ph.D. in law, witnessed such fabrication as a grand juror at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 E 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451, on May 23 and 24, 2022. Thereupon, the presenting and the supervising assistant district attorneys, namely, ADA Burim Namani and ADA Diana Jetta, respectively, referred me to Grand Jury Justice Laurence Busching. He discharged me on May 25, 2022, peremptorily without even allowing me to confront the accusers, whether those ADAs, any of the other 20 grand jurors, or the grand jury warden.

I complained in an 8-page, 4,743-word sworn statement of facts dated May 28, 2022, to Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood, who did not even reply or take any of my calls.

I filed a complaint with the Commission on Judicial Conduct, which dismissed it on the patently false allegation that it lacked jurisdiction because those judges “are not members of the NYS Unified Court System”!² To protect your colleagues, do you condone such dishonesty by CJC?

I complained in writing to each of the CA judges on February 23, 2023; and to the NYC and NYS administrative judges; I called and left messages for them repeatedly.¹ None replied.

Are you so committed to “fundamental fairness and justice” that you will investigate how as a result of judges’ pattern of condoning fabricated indictments likely thousands of individuals have had their lives devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record? B. Statement of facts since January 5, 2023, showing a coordinated cover-up

5. On May 28, 2022, I mailed to IAB Chief David Barrere my first written complaint against all those NYPD officers in the grand jury room and the courtroom. I had to keep calling IAB at (212)741-8401 until I was given a complaint number, i.e., # 2022-13831. I kept calling to find out its status, but neither the Command Center nor the Records or the Assessment Units could find it. As a result, a second complaint was opened, # 2022-15482, uselessly, for the same happened to it. So, a third complaint was opened: # 2022-15601. They insisted that I had to be patient and wait until they called me. I waited for months. In the meantime, I contacted other public officers and entities.
6. On January 5, 2023, Detective Arata called me unexpectedly. As shown in my August 19 letter to Commissioner Sewell, I had spoken with him several times beginning on June 9. Even so, he asked that I tell him my complaint. He claimed to know nothing about my letters to Chief Barrere or the three complaints, or did not bother to read them before calling me. What contained my name and phone number that prompted him to call me? I offered to email him my written complaint and he agreed to call me to acknowledge receipt of it. But he failed to do so although since January 5, I have sent and resent daily my summarizing and previous emails to him and these other addressees: iabcmdctr@nypd.org, iab@nypd.org, question@nycourts.gov, rhuff@advocate.nyc.gov, reception@advocate.nyc.gov, oignypdcomplaints@doj.nyc.gov, gethelp@advocate.nyc.gov, mtsciq1@bb.nyc.gov, ucs-correspondence@nycourts.gov, recordsaccess@advocate.nyc.gov, bronxjury@nycourts.gov, webmail@bronxbp.nyc.gov, agencyemail@customercare.nyc.gov, ig@nycourts.gov, jcortes@bronxbp.nyc.gov, msabio@bronxbp.nyc.gov, lwaltan@bronxbp.nyc.gov, jpeguero@bronxbp.nyc.gov, scheduling@bronxbp.nyc.gov, pressinquiry@bronxbp.nyc.gov, mivory@bronxbp.nyc.gov, amukoko@bronxbp.nyc.gov, district8@council.nyc.gov, dinowitz@council.nyc.gov, district12@council.nyc.gov, district13@council.nyc.gov, district14@council.nyc.gov, district15@council.nyc.gov, district16@council.nyc.gov, salamanca@council.nyc.gov, district18@council.nyc.gov, socratessolano2021@gmail.com, Info@bronxdefenders.org, media@bronxdefenders.org,
7. The overwhelming majority did not even acknowledge receipt. In the more than eight months since May 28, none has informed me of having investigated this case. What are the odds that those 34 email addressees plus those whom I could reach only by mail have just coincidentally decided not to answer my communications or take any action? Zero. Self-interested unaccountability 100%.
8. That provides probable cause to believe that there is either actual or constructive complicit coordination among them not to take any action that can provoke a frightening reaction: retaliation by NYS judges having closed ranks to protect the complained-against fellow judges and themselves; NYPD officers testifying as hostile witnesses to make prosecutors lose indictments and cases; and the embarrassment of, and firing by, former police captain and current NYC Mayor Eric Adams.
9. On January 30, I called IAB and spoke with the supervisor of Det. Arata, Sgt. Palermo. He claimed to know nothing about my complaints. He looked up the numbers that I gave him and said that my complaints had been referred to the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (IG) since they concerned judges rather than NYPD officers. I protested that willful misstatement given that I had complained against the five NYPD officers, including detectives, who testified in support of the false accusations presented to a grand jury and those who surrounded me in Judge Busching's courtroom, who intentionally intimidated me, while I was alone, as reminders of those who brutalized Abner Louima, Amodou Diallo, Eric Garner, and George Floyd, among others.
10. Sgt. Palermo had no explanation for such referral despite the fact that I have not complained against any federal officer. Nor could he state the authority on which that IG of the U.S. DoJ would investigate New York State prosecutors, judges, and NYPD officers. He could not tell me the names of the IAB officers who made the referral; whether there was any cover letter, much less its text; the names of the referred-to DoJ officers; their addresses; the referral dates; or whether the complaints had, if at all, been put in envelopes with only my or no return address and mailed.

11. I stated a reasonable inference: If IAB had referred any or all of my complaints to DoJ, it did so in bad faith to evade having to investigate its officers and avoid judges' retaliation. Unable to dispute that inference, the Sgt. transferred me to Det. Stone for her to open a complaint: # 2023-3787.
12. On January 31, I called and spoke with Det. Arata. He claimed that he had not received my complaint. But shortly thereafter, he said that it had been sent to that IG and to the FBI because I had complained about it. I refuted that: I had cited as precedent for suing public officers the suit brought by 90 gymnasts against the FBI for ignoring their complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar(cf. my January 5 letter to him, ¶5.a.2). How disingenuous! When I pressed him on why he and IAB had not investigated the NYPD officers that I had complained against, he claimed that my 'complaint made no sense and I had given them nothing to investigate'. I replied that if so, it was his duty to call me to ask for clarifications or additional information. He was stumped. I told him that he was arguing in bad faith to cover up for his fellow officers. He terminated the call.
13. I called IAB and Det. Melexemis could not find who had referred my complaint to the U.S. DoJ. He asked me to call the Records Unit at (212)741-8414. There Det. Pier-Owen confirmed that my complaints had been referred to DoJ, including two others that she found: # 2022-19474 and 2023-00275. When I asked who had signed the referral cover letter and to whom it was addressed, she put me on hold. After coming back, she said that she could not find their names. She said that complaint # 2022-15482 had been referred to 'Dept. Discipline Committee for 1st District', whose address she could not find. Then she said that it had been referred to the U.S. District Court for NY. I said that courts do not investigate; they adjudicate. She said that I had complained against a lawyer. When I asked for his/her name, she could not find it. Of course, since I did not complain against any lawyer. She put me on another hold; then I overheard a female voice say "Don't bring him here!" She hung up on me and did not call me back although I had given her my phone number.
14. I called the Assessment Unit at (212)741-8444. I explained to Det. Jones what had just happened and gave her the numbers of the complaints and my phone number. I asked to speak with her supervisor, whom she identified as Sgt. Dario, and was stating the purpose...she hung up on me.
15. I called back the Assessment Unit, but landed in the Command Center. Sgt. Priola answered and said that my complaints had been sent to the FBI and circuit judges. I protested and asked who had referred them there. He did not know. He asked me whether I wanted to open a complaint against the NYPD. I said yes and he transferred me to Det. Stone. She opened complaint # 2023-3930.
16. I called the Records Unit. PAA Burkett transferred me to supervisor Lt. Davy Dob. He said that my complaint had been sent to the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. I had independently filed a complaint with it, docketed under # 2022/N-1084 as of September 23. Senior Administrative Assistant Lee Kiklier wrote me on November 23 "that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to NYS judges, which does not appear to apply to your complaint". Was this flagrant misstatement the result of an IAB cover letter pretending that I had complained against federal judges?
17. All these officers have in fact or in effect coordinated their dereliction of duty and cover-up to the detriment of the defendants in this case; those similarly situated, whose lives have been devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record; and me. It is your duty to investigate this case.

Hon. Rowan D. Wilson, Chief Judge
Each of the other judges of the
NYS Court of Appeals
20 Eagle Street
Albany, NY 12207; tel. (518)455-7700

Dear Chief Judge Wilson,[‡]

1. Starting with my complaint of May 28, 2022 infra, I have informed the successive chief judges, the associate judges, clerks in their offices and in that of the clerk of court of the NY State Court of Appeals (CA) of my having witnessed as a grand juror in the Bronx County Supreme Court Criminal Term in NY City the fabrication of indictments on false and insufficient evidence(§A).
2. After I asked in the grand jury room critical questions pointing to such fabrication, I was discharged on the spot by Grand Jury Justice Laurence Busching with the subsequent approval of Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood. Thereby I suffered injury in fact by deprivation of my right to be a member of a grand jury; and of my constitutional rights to confront my accusers and to be afforded due process to defend myself. The defendants who were charged with murder in the fabricated indictment and others who have been victimized by such indictments have suffered and will continue to suffer even more grievous injury in fact as a result of the base motives and complicit cover-up of those to whom I have complained, some of whom are identified hereunder(§B).
3. There is no denying such cover-up: Till this day, I have not received from any CA member even written acknowledgment of receipt of my letters, let alone a statement of how they will proceed. On the contrary, when I have called, clerks Heather Davis, Ann Byer, and Ms. Taylor have acknowledged that my letters were received; and stated that the respective judge would be informed of my call; and my call would be referred for action to “the Counsel”, meaning most likely Chief Clerk and Legal Counsel Lisa LeCours. Nobody has contacted me. The consistency of their refusal to engage me in any discussion allows the reasonable inference -which jurors are allowed to draw even in capital cases- that their way of dealing with me had been coordinated: Public servants intentionally misled me with a false expectation despite knowing that nobody would contact me.
4. The cover-up has taken a self-incriminating form: I filed my complaint about Justices Yearwood and Busching with the Commission on Judicial Conduct. The latter dismissed it alleging that the Commission lacked jurisdiction to process it because those justices were not members of the NYS Unified Court System (UCS)! I filed with Acting C.J. Cannataro, C.J. Wilson, and the other CA judges the letters between the Commission and me; and UCS webpages showing that those justices are UCS members. The CA judges knew that and received notice thereof through those webpages.
5. The CA judges and their clerks had actual knowledge of fabricated indictments and of the Commission’s mendacity; and had duties of supervision of the UCS and the Commission; ‘the end does not justify the means’; “people are deemed to intend the foreseeable consequences of their actions”; ‘power corrupts and unaccountably wielded is absolute and corrupts absolutely’; and ‘I was following orders’ affords no defense. Thus, since knowing about fabricated indictments and condoning them, the judges and clerks have constructively intended to fabricate them and coordinate their cover-up. They have sent the ‘fabricated’ inditees to, and kept them in, those hellish places of terrifying depravity and wanton violence that are the Rikers Island and the other NYS prisons.
6. The action requested is that you a. take notice of the statement of facts next; b. have CA issue me with a written order to disclose to it my 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement of facts(¶7d infra); and c. investigate this complaint, summoning me to discuss it with you and the investigators.

Dare shout “I accuse!”...You may trigger history and enter it. Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

I, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq. declare pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746 and under penalty of perjury that I am submitting on 8 March 2024, as true and correct to the best of my knowledge the following:

Statement of facts about indictments fabricated on false and insufficient evidence by Bronx prosecutors and NYPD officers, and covered up by judges, including those of the New York State Court of Appeals

A. How the fabrication of indictments and its cover-up were revealed

7. I am a lawyer and hold a Ph.D. in law. I was a member of a grand jury in Bronx, New York City. I had the knowledge¹ and was in a position to realize that the prosecutors and police officers had charged people with murder despite their lack of any evidence that any crime had been committed:
 - a. They presented no footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident or autopsy report. The footage of the restaurants flanking the street showed no crowd of onlookers or vehicles of the police, the medical examiner, or crime scene investigators.
 - b. One footage showed only a Chinese female customer talking to the bearded white male clerk of a bodega over the counter and it had no sound! This footage had no probative value. But it proved the saying “a prosecutor can manipulate a grand jury into indicting a ham sandwich” by exploiting grand jurors’ known indifference and uncritical judgment. So, it was presented in bad faith to mislead the grand jury into thinking that it justified the indictment.
 - c. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising prosecutors referred me to the grand jury judge. He discharged me in his courtroom with a court reporter although neither those prosecutors nor anybody else showed up to make any accusation against me.
 - d. I stated these facts in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury judge, who with no oral argument dismissed it by letter on the disingenuous allegation that the grand jury term had expired.
8. Rogue prosecutors present to a grand jury charges whose supporting evidence is lacking, false, or insufficient to warrant their degree of gravity, i.e., they are baseless or overcharges. If the jury votes them true, the prosecutors have successfully fabricated an indictment. With it, they seek to coerce the indictee into agreeing to a power abusive plea or prosecute him/her on fabricated charges.

¹ This complaint is supported by my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking. They are the skills that have already produced my three-volume study^{*†♣} of judges and their judiciaries, titled thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:

Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting^{*†♣}

The study discusses evidence supporting the axiom ‘Unaccountability breeds abuse’. Its corollary is ‘What judges allow themselves to do -exposed by top national news networks, e.g., The Wall Street Journal, Thomson Reuters, and The Boston Globe, others copy and exceed’. How many judges and the individuals and entities, such as government departments and private companies, with whom they coordinate their abuse have found comfort and encouragement in the unethical and illegal acts that justices of the U.S. Supreme Court and the ‘Friends of the Justices’ have committed for decades, as revealed by ProPublica?

Some of my [articles[♦]](#) on unaccountability and abuse of power are posted to my website Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 8 March 2024, those who had become subscribers numbered 49,755. They read what was in front of them and asked for more. They can reasonably be expected to be educated, intellectually curious, influential, affluent, and ready to seek compensation in a class action against public servants who fabricate indictments and judges who in self-interest condone such fabrication and coordinate its cover-up.

9. The fabricators reciprocally cover up so leveraging fabricated indictments because through them they secure higher conviction rates; greater chances of reelection and promotion; and IOUs to be cashed in when needed. They gain a benefit while inflicting injury in fact on the fabricated inditees, such as sending them to jail; causing them financial hardship by requiring bail; and stigmatizing them with a criminal record. Thereby their family and friends are also injured. Everybody who learns about fabricated indictments is injured by the fear of becoming a fabricated inditee, thus suffering the loss of trust in the justice system. The public at large is injured by deprivation of the honest services that the fabricators are duty-bound to render it as public servants. The fabricators join in committing abuse of power, honest services fraud, racketeering, and enterprise corruption.

12. The informed public officers have failed to even reply -but see ¶4 supra- despite their duty to investigate with due diligence a credible complaint of public corruption based on verifiable facts. Any looking the other way, willful ignorance, or willful blindness on their part constitutes dereliction of duty. What are the odds of none of them replying but for coordination established before this case? Their conduct is non-coincidental, the product of a tacit or expressed complicit agreement on cover-up and reciprocal protection; cf. agreements in restraint of competition by following the price leader. Their failure to investigate results from their common interest in avoiding judges' retaliation and ensuring their protection if needed, the rights of inditees and the public notwithstanding.

Re: 2022/N-1084

Dear Mr. Cordero:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your complaint received
September 23, 2022.

Although the law requires the Commission to review all complaints, please note that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to judges in the New York State Unified Court System, which does not appear to apply to your complaint.

By law the Commission cannot offer legal advice and cannot represent litigants.

For your information, we have enclosed some background material about the Commission, its jurisdiction and its limitations.

Very truly yours,

Lee Kiklier

Dear Chair Belluck, Vice Chair Grays, and Administrator Tembeckjian,[‡]

1. I filed a complaint, described hereunder, against Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood and Grand Jury Justice Laurence E. Busching, both of the Supreme Court Bronx County Criminal Term, tel. (718)618-3700, 265 E. 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451. They are indisputably NYS judges.
2. Defying that fact, your assistant Lee Kiklier has sent me a letter “Re: 2022/N-1084”, dated November 3 and attached hereto, dismissing the complaint on the following counterfactual pretense:

Although the law requires the Commission to review all complaints, please note that the Commission’s jurisdiction is limited to judges in the New York State Unified Court System, which does not appear to apply to your complaint.

3. Did assistant Kiklier even gloss over the complaint, let alone “review” it or is that pretense for dismissal the Commission’s means of covering up the wrongdoing of judges to evade a scandal?
4. The gist of the complaint is this: I, while serving as a grand juror, acquired information concerning prosecutors, five NYPD officers, including detectives, and judges involved in indicting people of a murder that the latter could not have committed because the evidence presented by the prosecutor, the officers, and the alleged friend of the alleged victim did not show that any crime had occurred at all: No photos of the victim or the street crime scene or incident or autopsy report. They relied on the grand jurors’ indifference and uncritical judgment to indict despite the non-evidence of a crime. When I asked questions pointing to that conclusion, the presenting and the supervising prosecutors referred me to J. Busching, who summarily discharged me. I described these circumstances in an eight-page sworn statement consisting of 4,743 words -available upon the Commission’s order- and submitted it to J. Yearwood. The latter was remiss in his supervisory duty by referring the statement to J. Busching, who foreseeably held himself unaccountable: Without discussing the statement, he dismissed it on the inconsequential fact that the grand jury term had expired.
5. I submitted a complaint in writing to the Chief Judge and the NYS and NYC administrative judges on May 28, to no avail. I also submitted it to NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Chief David Barrere and requested that he investigate the five officers. Since then, over 12 IAB officers have given me the runaround. Alleging that they cannot find out the status of the complaint, they have opened three of them, but still no feedback. I brought the complaint to the attention of NYPD Commissioner Keechant Sewell by letter and email of August 19 and 30, respectively. A reply email only informed me of “NY City Correspondence # 1-1-2213769”. There is probable cause to believe that judges, IAB, and One Police Plaza have engaged in a cover-up. The latter does not concern this complaint only: The cover-up is the product of complicit systemic coordination. Under it, thousands of people have been and still are incarcerated before and after trial on indictments of grand juries fooled with non-evidence by prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges.
6. This complaint is ripe for expanding the applicability of Strickland v. U.S., the Judicial Conference of the U.S., the Office of the Public Defender, et al. That is a civil case from the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals that held that the Federal Judiciary as well as judges and others can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable in their official and individual capacities. Will you be on the side of the defendants or of the Champions of Justice? See also the suit against the FBI for $1+ billion.

I look forward to hearing from you shortly.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

5. I submitted a complaint in writing to the Chief Judge and the NYS and NYC administrative judges on May 28, to no avail. I also submitted it to NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Chief David Barrere and requested that he investigate the five officers. Since then, over 12 IAB officers have given me the runaround. Alleging that they cannot find out the status of the complaint, they have opened three of them, but still no feedback. I brought the complaint to the attention of NYPD Commissioner Keechant Sewell by letter and email of August 19 and 30, respectively. A reply email only informed me of “NY City Correspondence # 1-1-2213769”. There is probable cause to believe that judges, IAB, and One Police Plaza have engaged in a cover-up. The latter does not concern this complaint only: The cover-up is the product of complicit systemic coordination. Under it, thousands of people have been and still are incarcerated before and after trial on indictments of grand juries fooled with non-evidence by prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges.
6. This complaint is ripe for expanding the applicability of Strickland v. U.S., the Judicial Conference of the U.S., the Office of the Public Defender, et al. That is a civil case from the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals that held that the Federal Judiciary as well as judges and others can on constitutional grounds be sued and held liable in their official and individual capacities. Will you be on the side of the defendants or of the Champions of Justice? See also the suit against the FBI for $1+ billion.

I look forward to hearing from you shortly.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Dear Vice Chair Grays, AG James, Chief Murphy, and addressees in ¶6 and §§C, D infra, ♦

1. This is a follow-up to my letters to you, Dep. Chief Administrative Judge D. Kaplan, NYPD Comm. K. Sewell, et al., to no avail. Yet, they concern prosecutors, NYPD officers, and judges at the Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, 265 E 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451. ♦ On May 23 and 24, 2022, the first days of a grand jury term, ADA Burim Namani and supervising ADA Diana Jetta presented an indictment for murder allegedly committed on or around May 24, 2021, early in the evening in a Bronx street lined with restaurants and bodegas. When they asked whether jurors had questions, I, a grand juror, asked critical ones because the 12 exhibits that they presented contained:
 - a. not a single photo or video of the scene of the crime or of the victim whether taken by the police, a surveillance camera of the neighboring restaurants and bodegas, or any bystander ...in the age of the ubiquitous smartphone with camera and a citizens journalist mentality!;
 - b. no police incident report; medical examiner autopsy report; or death or burial certificate;
 - c. nothing but the allegations of five NYPD officers, including detectives, and an alleged friend that had been walking with the alleged victim that evening but who did not witness the murder.
2. On May 25, I was summoned to the courtroom of Grand Jury Justice Laurence E. Busching. He acted as lead counsel for those who had accused me of “being disruptive and making other grand jurors feel uncomfortable”; presented no evidence; denied me the opportunity to confront them and present witnesses; had me surrounded by four intimidating NYPD officers; and discharged me.
3. I described these events in a May 28, 8-page, 4,743-word sworn statement and submitted it to Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood, tel. (718)618-3700, who sits in the same building. Without acknowledging receipt or taking my calls, he forwarded it to J. Busching, who as judge in his own cause biasedly dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired. These judges condoned and aided prosecutors and NYPD officers seeking indictments on false accusations.

A. Action requested

4. There are more details, augmented by those stated next, concerning the false accusations based on irrelevant and insufficient evidence; the discharge; and the complicit dereliction of duty in aid of a cover-up by the many officers with authority to investigate this case to whose attention I have brought it, many of whom are listed in ¶6 and §§C, D infra. Thus, I respectfully request that you:
 - a. investigate this complaint, first taking cognizance of my below Statement of new facts, sworn to under 28 U.S.C. §1746, and the copies of communications below and at ♦ and ‡;
 - b. call J. Yearwood to ask for a copy of my May 28 statement and the transcript of the discharge;
 - c. based on your authority to investigate this kind of case, issue me with an order to produce the May 28 statement, which will entitle me to disclose it and with which I will comply; and
 - d. ask me to come to your office for a recorded interview by you of me about this case.

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

February 20, 2023

Mr. Joseph Belluck, Chair, and fellow Commission members
New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct (CJC)
61 Broadway, Ste 1200, NY, NY 10006; tel. (646)386-4800; fax (518)299-1757; www.cjc.ny.gov

Dear Chair Belluck and fellow Commission members,

1. I filed a complaint, acknowledged by CJC as received on September 23, 2022, against two justices of the NYS Supreme Court, Bronx County Criminal Term, tel. (718)618-3700, 265 E. 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451: Administrative J. Alvin Yearwood and Grand Jury J. Laurence Busching. That description sufficed for you to know that they are members of the NYS Unified Court System, which you could have confirmed by checking its website; cf. printouts of their webbionotes infra.[♦]
2. Knowledge of it is imputed to you, all the other members of the Commission, and your assistants, e.g., Lee Kiklier, who on November 3 sent me letter “Re: 2022/N-1084”[‡] dismissing the complaint on the following grounds: “Although the law requires the Commission to review all complaints, please note that the Commission’s jurisdiction is limited to judges in the New York State Unified Court System (UCS), which does not appear to apply to your complaint”. In my letter to you of November 7[♦], I protested that knowingly and thus intentionally false grounds for dismissal.
3. On December 6, Executive Assistant to the Deputy Administrator Laura A. Soto wrote in “Re: File No. 2022/N-1259-60” that “Your complaint will be presented to the Commission, which will decide whether or not to inquire into it”[‡]. The Commission includes three fellow UCS judges and lawyers.
4. On January 10, 2023, Clerk of the Commission Celia A. Zahner wrote in “Re: File No. 2022/N-1084”, thus: “The commission has asked me to advise you that it has dismissed the complaint. [Its] jurisdiction is limited to misconduct of judges of the New York State unified court system”.
5. You, as a principal, have stated through the letters of your assistants that my complaint would be and was presented to the Commission. The dismissal decision is a Commission decision. The Commission predicated it on “false statements” pretending that the judges that I complained about are not UCS members. Its dismissal furthers a cover-up on behalf of officers, including fellow Bronx judges, prosecutors, and members of the NYPD, who sought an indictment from a grand jury based on false evidence and accusations, and complicitly coordinated the discharge of a grand juror, i.e., me on May 25, 2022, who questioned the irrelevance and insufficiency of the evidence presented.
6. These officers and the Commission are not the proverbial angels that during their life dedicated to “the legitimate needs of law enforcement” woke up one day, engaged in “perjury and contempt”, “tampering”, and “a scheme to defraud” defendants and jurors, but resumed their life of rectitude. Rather, the complaint and the statements infra reveal the “pattern of criminal activity of a criminal enterprise of a group of persons sharing a common purpose”, a felony under the Enterprise Corruption Law, NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460, NY’s version of the federal RICO Act.

A. Action requested

7. Therefore, I respectfully request that the Commission:
 - a. investigate this complaint[♦], which is updated by the letter of February 23; §B; et seq.[‡]
 - b. issue me with an order to produce the 4,743-word, 8-page, sworn statement dated May 26, 2022, that I submitted to J. Yearwood describing the events that prompted this complaint; and
 - c. ask me to come to your office for a recorded interview of me by you about this case.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

B. Statement of facts since January 5, 2023, showing a coordinated cover-up

5. On May 28, 2022, I mailed to IAB Chief David Barrere my first written complaint against all those NYPD officers in the grand jury room and the courtroom. I had to keep calling IAB at (212)741-8401 until I was given a complaint number, i.e., # 2022-13831. I kept calling to find out its status, but neither the Command Center nor the Records or the Assessment Units could find it. As a result, a second complaint was opened, # 2022-15482, uselessly, for the same happened to it. So, a third complaint was opened: # 2022-15601. They insisted that I had to be patient and wait until they called me. I waited for months. In the meantime, I contacted other public officers and entities.
6. On January 5, 2023, Detective Arata called me unexpectedly. As shown in my August 19 letter to Commissioner Sewell, I had spoken with him several times beginning on June 9. Even so, he asked that I tell him my complaint. He claimed to know nothing about my letters to Chief Barrere or the three complaints, or did not bother to read them before calling me. What contained my name and phone number that prompted him to call me? I offered to email him my written complaint and he agreed to call me to acknowledge receipt of it. But he failed to do so although since January 5, I have sent and resent daily my summarizing and previous emails to him and these other addressees: iabcmdctr@nypd.org, iab@nypd.org, question@nycourts.gov, rhuff@advocate.nyc.gov, reception@advocate.nyc.gov, oignypdcomplaints@doj.nyc.gov, gethelp@advocate.nyc.gov, mtsciq1@bb.nyc.gov, ucs-correspondence@nycourts.gov, recordsaccess@advocate.nyc.gov, bronxjury@nycourts.gov, webmail@bronxbp.nyc.gov, agencyemail@customercare.nyc.gov, ig@nycourts.gov, jcortes@bronxbp.nyc.gov, msabio@bronxbp.nyc.gov, lwaltan@bronxbp.nyc.gov, jpeguero@bronxbp.nyc.gov, scheduling@bronxbp.nyc.gov, pressinquiry@bronxbp.nyc.gov, mivory@bronxbp.nyc.gov, amukoko@bronxbp.nyc.gov, district8@council.nyc.gov, dinowitz@council.nyc.gov, district12@council.nyc.gov, district13@council.nyc.gov, district14@council.nyc.gov, district15@council.nyc.gov, district16@council.nyc.gov, salamanca@council.nyc.gov, district18@council.nyc.gov, socratessolano2021@gmail.com, Info@bronxdefenders.org, media@bronxdefenders.org,
7. The overwhelming majority did not even acknowledge receipt. In the more than eight months since May 28, none has informed me of having investigated this case. What are the odds that those 34 email addressees plus those whom I could reach only by mail have just coincidentally decided not to answer my communications or take any action? Zero. Self-interested unaccountability 100%.
8. That provides probable cause to believe that there is either actual or constructive complicit coordination among them not to take any action that can provoke a frightening reaction: retaliation by NYS judges having closed ranks to protect the complained-against fellow judges and themselves; NYPD officers testifying as hostile witnesses to make prosecutors lose indictments and cases; and the embarrassment of, and firing by, former police captain and current NYC Mayor Eric Adams.
9. On January 30, I called IAB and spoke with the supervisor of Det. Arata, Sgt. Palermo. He claimed to know nothing about my complaints. He looked up the numbers that I gave him and said that my complaints had been referred to the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (IG) since they concerned judges rather than NYPD officers. I protested that willful misstatement given that I had complained against the five NYPD officers, including detectives, who testified in support of the false accusations presented to a grand jury and those who surrounded me in Judge Busching's courtroom, who intentionally intimidated me, while I was alone, as reminders of those who brutalized Abner Louima, Amodou Diallo, Eric Garner, and George Floyd, among others.
10. Sgt. Palermo had no explanation for such referral despite the fact that I have not complained against any federal officer. Nor could he state the authority on which that IG of the U.S. DoJ would investigate New York State prosecutors, judges, and NYPD officers. He could not tell me the names of the IAB officers who made the referral; whether there was any cover letter, much less its text; the names of the referred-to DoJ officers; their addresses; the referral dates; or whether the complaints had, if at all, been put in envelopes with only my or no return address and mailed.

11. I stated a reasonable inference: If IAB had referred any or all of my complaints to DoJ, it did so in bad faith to evade having to investigate its officers and avoid judges' retaliation. Unable to dispute that inference, the Sgt. transferred me to Det. Stone for her to open a complaint: # 2023-3787.
12. On January 31, I called and spoke with Det. Arata. He claimed that he had not received my complaint. But shortly thereafter, he said that it had been sent to that IG and to the FBI because I had complained about it. I refuted that: I had cited as precedent for suing public officers the suit brought by 90 gymnasts against the FBI for ignoring their complaints against sexual predator Dr. Larry Nassar(cf. my January 5 letter to him, ¶5.a.2). How disingenuous! When I pressed him on why he and IAB had not investigated the NYPD officers that I had complained against, he claimed that my 'complaint made no sense and I had given them nothing to investigate'. I replied that if so, it was his duty to call me to ask for clarifications or additional information. He was stumped. I told him that he was arguing in bad faith to cover up for his fellow officers. He terminated the call.
13. I called IAB and Det. Melexemis could not find who had referred my complaint to the U.S. DoJ. He asked me to call the Records Unit at (212)741-8414. There Det. Pier-Owen confirmed that my complaints had been referred to DoJ, including two others that she found: # 2022-19474 and 2023-00275. When I asked who had signed the referral cover letter and to whom it was addressed, she put me on hold. After coming back, she said that she could not find their names. She said that complaint # 2022-15482 had been referred to 'Dept. Discipline Committee for 1st District', whose address she could not find. Then she said that it had been referred to the U.S. District Court for NY. I said that courts do not investigate; they adjudicate. She said that I had complained against a lawyer. When I asked for his/her name, she could not find it. Of course, since I did not complain against any lawyer. She put me on another hold; then I overheard a female voice say "Don't bring him here!" She hung up on me and did not call me back although I had given her my phone number.
14. I called the Assessment Unit at (212)741-8444. I explained to Det. Jones what had just happened and gave her the numbers of the complaints and my phone number. I asked to speak with her supervisor, whom she identified as Sgt. Dario, and was stating the purpose...she hung up on me.
15. I called back the Assessment Unit, but landed in the Command Center. Sgt. Priola answered and said that my complaints had been sent to the FBI and circuit judges. I protested and asked who had referred them there. He did not know. He asked me whether I wanted to open a complaint against the NYPD. I said yes and he transferred me to Det. Stone. She opened complaint # 2023-3930.
16. I called the Records Unit. PAA Burkett transferred me to supervisor Lt. Davy Dob. He said that my complaint had been sent to the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. I had independently filed a complaint with it, docketed under # 2022/N-1084 as of September 23. Senior Administrative Assistant Lee Kiklier wrote me on November 23 "that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to NYS judges, which does not appear to apply to your complaint". Was this flagrant misstatement the result of an IAB cover letter pretending that I had complained against federal judges?
17. All these officers have in fact or in effect coordinated their dereliction of duty and cover-up to the detriment of the defendants in this case; those similarly situated, whose lives have been devastated by being jailed; forced to incur burdensome debt to make bail; and tainted or ruined domestically, socially, and professionally by a criminal record; and me. It is your duty to investigate this case.

Dear Mr. Belluck,

Re: File No. 2024/N-0197-99

1. Thank you for your acknowledgment of receipt of February 26, 2024 -reprinted on page OL3:1656 next- of my complaint dated January 24, 2024, and bearing the above-stated reference number.
2. I would like to know the status of your review of my complaint concerning two judges of the Bronx County Supreme Court Criminal Term, tel. (718)618-3700, namely, Grand Jury Justice Laurence Busching and Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood. Both justices are members of the NYS Unified Court System (UCS), as shown by the pages of the UCS website printed and attached hereto.
3. In brief, the complaint concerns the condonation and cover-up by those justices of indictments fabricated on false and insufficient evidence by prosecutors and police officers; and their unlawful discharge of me from the grand jury of which I was a member because when the prosecutors asked whether the jurors had questions about the evidence that they had presented, I asked critical ones.
4. Indeed, the prosecutors had charged people with shooting dead a youngster in the middle of a street in Bronx early in the evening despite their lack of any evidence that any crime had been committed:
 - a. They presented no footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident or autopsy report. The footage of the restaurants flanking the street showed no crowd of onlookers or vehicles of the police, the medical examiner, or crime scene investigators.
 - b. One footage showed only a Chinese female customer talking over the counter with the bearded white male clerk of a bodega allegedly near the crime site and it had no sound! This footage had no probative value whatsoever. But it proved the saying “a prosecutor can manipulate a grand jury into indicting a ham sandwich” by exploiting grand jurors’ known indifference and uncritical judgment. The 12 pieces of evidence were presented in bad faith to mislead the grand jury into thinking that they justified the indictment on murder charges.
5. Judges have connived with public officers to allow them to indict even for murder on false and insufficient evidence. Imagine that you were so indicted and sent to Rikers Island Prison or any of the other hellish state prisons, which fester with horrifying depravity and wanton violence; or devastated financially by posting bail; or stigmatized with a criminal record that caused even the loss of your job and housing. How many years would you deem reasonable for the Commission to keep you suffering while it leisurely “reviewed the matter and rendered its disposition” -next-? Would you hold it liable for compensation for dereliction of duty and complicit deprivation of civil rights?
6. The Commission can learn the details of this complaint by asking either of those justices for a copy of my 4,743-word, 8-page contemporaneous sworn statement of fact of May 26, 2022, which was accompanied by a cover letter of May 28, 2022, or by it, as an investigative authority, requesting me in writing to disclose to it a copy of that statement and cover letter. I respectfully request that you let me know with due haste the status of the Commission’s “review”...or is it a cover-up?

Dare shout “I accuse!”...You may trigger history and enter it.

Sincerely, Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

Hi Richard,

Recently, LinkedIn reached a new milestone: 200 million members. But this isn't just our achievement to celebrate — it's also yours.

I want to personally thank you for being part of our community. Your journey is part of our journey, and we're delighted and humbled when we hear stories of how our members are using LinkedIn to connect, learn, and find opportunity.

All of us come to work each day focused on our shared mission of connecting the world's professionals to make them more productive and successful. We're excited to show you what's next.

With sincere thanks,

BAR MEMBERSHIP AND SPECIAL SKILLS: • U.S. citizen; member of the NYS Bar; specialized in field and library research and writing of legal briefs and business and IT studies

- I would like to work for you as a lawyer and researcher-writer strategist in a position where I can contribute to your business or legal problem solution a talent that gives me a competitive advantage: I can gather seemingly unconnected pieces of information, select those relevant to the prioritized objectives to be pursued, and imaginatively integrate them into a coherent new structure -expressed clearly and concisely both orally and in writing- that renders those pieces meaningful and useful, like a mosaic that depicts a realistic and decorative scene of the ancient Romans, yet originates in insignificant stone fragments expertly sifted from dirt and artfully set together to appeal to the spirit and the mind while serving the practical purpose of making money.

ADVANCED KNOWLEDGE OF: • computers and their use for word processing, graphics composition, presentations, and research; and for developing IT products to audit cases through statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of opinions to give lawyers an informational advantage

LANGUAGES: • I speak English, Spanish, and French; and converse in German and Italian.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

FOUNDER OF JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE REFORM, 2008-to date New York City

- A non-partisan and non-denominational organization that advocates the study of the judiciary and the adoption of legislation to replace the inherently biased and ineffective judges-judging-judges system of judicial self-discipline with a system based on independent boards of citizens unrelated to the judges and empowered to publicly receive, investigate, and resolve complaints

RESEARCHER AND WRITER ATTORNEY, 1995-to date New York City

- Prosecution of cases from bankruptcy, district, and circuit courts to the SCt; practice in NY courts
- Developed the Euro Project, a 3-prong business package consisting of the Euro Conference, the Euro Consulting Services, and the Euro Newsletter; aimed at enabling firms to capitalize on their expertise in the euro by providing services for the adaptation of business practices and IT systems to the European Union's new common currency that replaced its national currencies

WAYNE COUNTY EXECUTIVE OFFICE, 1994 Detroit, MI

- Developed economic and marketing features of the master plan for the intermodal transportation and industrial complex of Willow Run Tradeport in Detroit
- Drafted and implemented proposals for increasing office productivity using IT and equipment

LAWYERS COOPERATIVE PUBLISHING, 1991-1993 Rochester, NY

- Member of the editorial staff of LCP, the foremost publisher of analytical legal commentaries.
- Researched and wrote articles on securities regulations, antitrust, and banking under U.S. law

COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES, 1984-1985 Brussels, Belgium

- Devised proposals for harmonizing supervisory regulations on mortgage credit and on reporting large loan exposures by one and all members of a banking system to one and related borrowers
- My proposals were adopted by the EEC Banking Division and negotiated with the national experts in the supervision of financial institutions of the Member States
- Drafted replies to financial questions put by the European Parliament to the Commission

EDUCATION

THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE, Faculty of Law, Ph.D., 1988 Cambridge, England

- Doctoral dissertation analyzed the existing European legal and political environment and proposed a new system for harmonizing the regulation and supervision of financial institutions

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, Business School, MBA, 1995 Ann Arbor, Michigan

- Emphasis on corporate strategies to maximize profitability and competitiveness through the optimal use of IT expert systems using artificial intelligence, and telecommunications networks

LA SORBONNE, Faculty of Law and Economics, French law degree, 1982 Paris, France

- Was awarded a French Government scholarship
- Concentrated on the operation of a currency basket to achieve monetary stability and on the application of harmonized regulations & antitrust rules on companies with dominant positions

A. The study and articles available for review and publication

1. The study and its volumes

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting* † ♣

* Volume I: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL/DrRCordero-Honest_Jud_Advocates.pdf >all prefixes:page# up to prefix OL:page393

OL2:394-1143

♣ Volume III: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-Honest_Jud_Advocates3.pdf >from OL3:1144-1716+

1. Downloading and navigating the volumes:

- a. Download the volume files using MS Edge, Firefox, or Chrome.
- b. Open the downloaded files using Adobe Acrobat Reader, which is available for free at <https://acrobat.adobe.com/us/en/acrobat/pdf-reader.html>.
- c. In each downloaded file, go to the Menu bar >View >Navigation Panels >Bookmarks panel and use its bookmarks, which make navigating to the contents' numerous(* † ♣ >blue footnote-like references) very easy.

2. Downloading articles

- 2. The three-volume study* † ♣ of judges and their judiciaries contain many articles that can be downloaded as individual and much smaller files by clicking on the corresponding link in each entry hereunder:

† http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL2/DrRCordero_individual_files_links.pdf

♣ http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero_Appendixes1-7.pdf

3. To search for articles on a given topic, go up to this file's menu bar, click the binocular icon, and in the search page that opens type in its search box one keyword at a time. In the return list, click on the phrase that contains the keyword to go to the full entry containing it.
4. If a link in an entry hereunder does not download the corresponding individual file, download the volume whose range of page numbers contains the number of the file's first page indicated in the entry; e.g. If in entry 222. the link http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-FBI_SDNY.pdf fails to download its corresponding individual file, download Volume III, whose page range OL3:1144-1733+ contains OL3:1712, and scroll down to page 1712.
5. A similar search can be done by downloading each of the volumes and searching in each one at a time. Begin your search in Volume III, then II, and finally I because every downloaded file contains references to previous related files.

3. The website

6. Many of the articles described in the entries hereunder have been posted to the website of Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>.
7. Visit the website and join its 52,134+ subscribers to its articles. Go to:
 - a. Judicial Discipline Reform <left panel ↓Register; or
 - b. + New or Users >Add New; or
 - c. fill out the New User form at <https://www.judicial-discipline-reform.org/wp-admin/user-new.php>.

OL3:1722; proposal to the investigative journalists of THE CITY to jointly investigate the evidence of fabricated indictments (see supra) and of pervasive corruption in the NYS system of justice, where abuse of power has become the institutionalized modus operandi; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-THE_CITY.pdf
225. OL3:1725; proposal to the non-for-profit investigative news organization The Intercept to investigate two stories of abuse of power that affects practically everybody, namely, fabricated indictments (see supra) and the interception of people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those critical of judges, and thereby instill in everybody the feeling that it is investigating their own story and that everybody's donation will make such investigation possible; http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-The_Intercept.pdf
226. OL3:28; proposal to National Catholic Reporter Executive Editor James V. Grimaldi, formerly a reporter at The Wall Street Journal and three time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for investigative journalism, to publish some articles already written that can inform the national public of corruption in the federal and state judiciaries so outrageous as to have the effect of 'an October surprise scoop' whereby the public pressures politicians into taking a stand on it, thus impacting the last days of the presidential campaign and the outcome of the election; <http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-NCRExecEdJGrimaldi.pdf>

B. Subjects for commissioning one or a series of articles

231. judges' unaccountability(>OL:265) and their riskless abuse of power(>jur:5§3; OL:154§3);
232. statistical analysis for the public(†>OL2:455§§B-E, 608§A) and for researchers(jur:131§b);
233. significance of federal circuit judges disposing of 93% of appeals in decisions "on procedural grounds [i.e., the pretext of "lack of jurisdiction"]", unsigned, unpublished, by consolidation, without comment", which are unresearched, reasonless, ad-hoc, arbitrary, fiat-like orders, in practice unappealable(OL2:453);
234. to receive 'justice services'(OL2:607) parties pay courts filing fees, which constitute consideration, whereby a contract arises between them to be performed by the judges, who know that they will in most cases not even read their briefs(OL2:608§A), so that courts engage in false advertisement, fraud in the inducement, and breach of contract(OL2:609§2);
235. Justiceship Nominee Judge Neil Gorsuch said, "An attack on one of our brothers and sisters of the robe is an attack on all of us": judges' gang mentality and abusive hitting back(OL2:546);
236. fair criticism of judges who fail to "avoid even the appearance of impropriety"(jur:68^{123a});
237. abuse-enabling clerks(OL2:687), who fear arbitrary removal without recourse(jur:30§1);
238. law clerks' vision is fixated on the end of their clerkship, when they must ask the judge for whom they clerked for a glowing letter of recommendation (OL2:645§B) to a potential employer, which can bring in a signing-up bonus of hundreds of thousands of dollars; clerks are beholden to judges' power to write or not to write that letter, which morally blinds clerks to their being used by judges as executioners of their abuse;
239. judges dismiss 99.82% of complaints against them(jur:10-14; OL2:548), thus arrogating to themselves impunity by abusing their self-disciplining authority(jur:21§a);
240. escaping the futility of suing judges(OL2:713, 609§1): the out-of-court inform and outrage strategy to stir up the public into holding them accountable and liable to compensation(OL2:581);
241. how law professors and lawyers act in self-interest to cover up for judges so as to spare themselves and their schools, cases, and firms retaliation(jur:81§1; Lsch:17§C): their system of harmonious interests against the interests of the parties and the public(OL2:635, 593¶15);
242. turning insiders into Deep Throats(jur:106§C); outsiders into informants(OL2:468); and judges into criers of 'Me Too! Abusers'(OL2:682¶¶7, 8) that issue an I accuse!(jur:98§2) denunciation of judges' abuse: thinking and acting strategically(OL2:635, 593¶15) to expose judges' abuse by developing allies who want to become Workers of Justice(OL2:687), as opposed to being enforcers of abuse or enablers by endorsement or willful ignorance or blindness;
243. two unique national stories, not to replace a rogue judge, but to topple an abusive judiciary:
 - a. Follow the money! as judges grab(OL2:614), conceal(jur:65^{107a,c}), and launder(105²¹³) it;
 - b. The Silence of the Judges: their warrantless, 1st Amendment freedom of speech, press, and assembly-violative interception of people's emails and mail to detect and suppress those of their critics(OL2:440; OL2:582 § C; OL2:395, 929, 1081; OL3:1228);
 - 1) made all the more credible by former CBS reporter Sharyl Attkisson's $35 million suit against the U.S. Department of Justice for its illegal intrusion into her computers to spy on her ground-breaking investigation and embarrassing reporting(OL2:612§b);
 - 2) by using Information Technology examination and statistical analysis, such interception and contents-based suppression can be exposed, which will provoke a scandal graver than that resulting from Edward Snowden's revelations of NSA's massive illegal collection of only non-personally identifiable metadata(OL2:583§3);

- 3) the exposure can be bankrolled as discreetly as Peter Thiel, co-founder of PayPal, bankrolled the suit of Hulk Hogan against the tabloid Gawker for invasion of privacy and thereby made it possible to prosecute and win a judgment for more than $140 million(OL2:528);
- 4) principles can be asserted and money made by exposing judges' interception of people's emails and mail;

244. launching a Harvey Weinstein-like(jur:4¶¶10-14) generalized media investigation into judges' abuse of power as their institutionalized modus operandi; conducted also by journalists and me with the benefit of the numerous leads(OL:194§E) that I have gathered;
245. Black Robed Predators(OL:85) or the making of a documentary as an original video content by a media company or an investigative TV show, with the testimony of judges' victims, clerks, lawyers, faculty, and students; and crowd funding to attract to its making and viewing the crowd that advocate honest judiciaries and the victims of judges' abuse of power;
246. promoting the unprecedented to turn judges' abuse of power into a key mid-term elections issue and thereafter insert it in the national debate:
 - a. the holding by journalists, newsanchors, media outlets, and law, journalism, business, and IT schools in their own commercial, professional, and public interest as We the People's loudspeakers of nationally and statewide televised citizens hearings(OL2:675§2, 580§2) on judges' unaccountability and consequent riskless abuse;
 - b. a forensic investigation by Information Technology experts to determine whether judges intercept the communications of their critics(OL3:1228; OL2:633§D, OL2:582§C);
 - c. suits by individual parties and class actions to recover from judges, courts, and judiciaries filing fees paid by parties as consideration for 'justice services'(OL2:607) offered by the judges although the latter knew that it was mathematically(OL2:608§A; 457§D) impossible for them to deliver those services to all filed cases; so the judges committed false advertisement and fraud in the inducement to the formation of service contracts, and thereafter breach of contract by having their court and law clerks perfunctorily dispose of cases by filling out "dumping forms"(OL2:608¶5);
 - d. suits by clients to recover from their lawyers attorneys' fees charged for prosecuting cases that the lawyers knew or should have known(jur:90§§b, c) the judges did not have the manpower to deliver, or the need or the incentive to deal with personally, whereby the lawyers committed fraud by entering with their clients into illusory contracts that could not obtain the sought-for 'justice services'; and
 - e. suits in the public interest to recover the public funds paid to judges who have failed to earn their salaries by routinely not putting in an honest day's work, e.g., closing their courts before 5:00 p.m., thus committing fraud on the public and inflicting injury in fact on the parties who have been denied justice through its delay(cf. OL2:571 ¶ 24a);
247. how parties can join forces to combine and search their documents for communality points (OL:274-280; 304-307) that permit the detection of patterns of abuse by one or more judges, which patterns the parties can use to persuade journalists to investigate their claims of abuse;
248. the development of my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>, which as of 7 October 2024, had 52,134+ subscribers, into:

- a. a clearinghouse for complaints against judges uploaded by the public;
- b. a research center for professionals and parties(OL2:575) to search documents for the most persuasive evidence of abuse: patterns of abuse by the same judge presiding over their cases, the judges of the same court, and the judges of a judiciary; and
- c. the showroom and shopping portal of a multidisciplinary academic and business venture (jur:119 § § 1-4). It can be the precursor of the institute of judicial unaccountability reporting and reform advocacy attached to a top university or established by a consortium of media outlets and academic institutions(jur:130 § 5);

249. a tour of presentations(OL:197§G) by me sponsored by you on:

- a. judges' abuse(jur:5§3; OL:154 ¶ 3);
- b. development of software to conduct fraud and forensic accounting(OL:42, 60); and to perform thanks to artificial intelligence a novel type of statistical, linguistic, and literary analysis of judges' decisions and other writings(jur:131§b) to detect bias and disregard of the requirements of due process and equal protection of the law;
- c. promoting the participation of the audience in the investigation(OL:115) into judges' abuse; and their development of local chapters of investigators/researchers that coalesce into a Tea Party-like single issue, civic movement(jur:164§9) for holding judges accountable and liable to their victims: the People's Sunrise(OL:201§J);
- d. announcement of a Continuing Legal Education course, a webinar, a seminar, and a writing contest(*>ddc:1), which can turn the audience into clients and followers;

250. a multimedia, multidisciplinary public conference(jur:97§1; *>dcc:13§C) on judges' abuses held at a top university(OL2:452) to pioneer the reporting thereon in our country and abroad;

the call of the constitutional convention(OL:136§3) that 34 states have petitioned Congress to convene since April 2, 2014, satisfying the amending provisions of the Constitution, Article V.

431. When a court issues a decision, it is first published in ‘slip form’ or ‘advanced sheets’, that is, separate from any other decision, hence, neither in a book nor a pamphlet.

- a. Thereafter the decisions issued during a period of months are published in a pamphlet.
- b. Finally, the pamphlets are bound in a hardcover volume. A set of such volumes containing the decisions for a number of years is normally referred to as a ‘reporter’ or ‘reports’. One set can cost tens of thousands of dollars.
 - 1) Normally, reporters are enhanced editorially by the publisher, rather than the writing judge or their courts, with a summary; headnotes summarizing the key point of law of a section of the decision; key numbers identifying the same point everywhere in any law book published by the same publisher; historical notes; and references to other cases, pertinent laws and regulations; etc. Those enhancements are practically indispensable to conduct cost-efficient law research. They save an enormous amount of research and reading time.
 - 2) Reporters -or reports- may be available online on a subscription basis. They may also be accessible, whether online or physically, in the library of a court, a law school, a bar association, a law firm, a public library, or a law institute or service, e.g., Legal Information

Institute of Cornell Law School (LII), <https://www.law.cornell.edu/>, and Findlaw, <https://www.findlaw.com/>, provided you are a member; have been granted or have purchased a temporary pass; or there is some measure of public access.

- 3) The decisions for a given court may be published together in their own reporter, such as the U.S. Supreme Court, e.g., <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/search?r=13001&s=KEYWORDSEARCH&q=Supreme+Court+reporter>; or
- 4) the highest state court, such as the New York State Court of Appeals, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Case-Law/New-York-Court-of-Appeals-Reports-2d-and-3d/p/100001560>; or
- 5) the courts of a state, e.g., New York Supplement, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Reporters/New-York-Supplement-2d-and-3d/p/100030135>; search for your state here: <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/search?r=13001&s=KEYWORDSEARCH&q=reporters>; or
- 6) the courts of a region comprising several states, e.g., <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Reporters/Atlantic-Reporterreg-3d/p/100024131>.
- 7) The decisions on a particular area of the law may be published in a reporter; e.g.; commercial law, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Forms/Commercial-Litigation-in-New-York-State-Courts-5th-Vols-2-4H-New-York-Practice-Series/p/106667772>; or bankruptcy, <https://store.legal.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Case-Law/Westsreg-Bankruptcy-Reporter-National-Reporter-Systemreg/p/100002692>
- 8) The decisions of the federal courts are normally published in volumes separate from the state court decisions. However, there are online subscription plans that provide access to the federal and state decisions concerning a state or a federal circuit; e.g., call Thomson Reuters Customer Service at (800)328-4880 and ask about its plans.

Dear Mr. Grimaldi,[‡]

1. I am so glad that you contacted me!

A. My enormous effort to contact you and your colleagues

2. Indeed, since you wrote your serial article that began with the one titled “131 Federal Judges Broke the Law by Hearing Cases Where They Had a Financial Interest” on 28 September 2021 -see my article thereon-, I have sent hundreds of emails to you and your coauthors Mr. Coulter Jones and Joe Palazzolo, and your other colleagues at:

James.Grimaldi@wsj.com, Coulter.Jones@wsj.com, Joe.Palazzolo@wsj.com, Jess.Bravin@wsj.com, Mariah.timms@wsj.com, damian.paletta@wsj.com, jude.marfil@wsj.com, sadie.gurman@wsj.com, edit.features@wsj.com, onlinejournal@wsj.com, support@wsj.com, clare.ansberry@wsj.com, reprints@dowjones.com, Corinne.Ramey@wsj.com, henninger@wsj.com, intelligentinvestor@wsj.com, kim.strassel@wsj.com, lindsay.wise@wsj.com, louise.radnofsky@wsj.com, Mark.Anderson@wsj.com, patricia.kowsmann@wsj.com, kim@wsj.com, access@interactive.wsj.com, Christopher.Weaver@wsj.com, Tom.McGinty@wsj.com,

Anna.W.Mathews@wsj.com, Anna.Wilde.Mathews@wsj.com, edit.features@wsj.com, wsjcontact@wsj.com, wsj.ltrs@wsj.com

3. More recently, after WSJ published on 9 July 2024, “Insurers Pocketed $50 Billion From Medicare for Diseases No Doctor Treated”, I mailed individualized hardcopies proposing a joint investigation of my Medicare case, which is ripe for class action, to:

4. To no avail: I did not receive even an acknowledgment of receipt of my email or mail. Your reply is the first one that reaches me. Is the reason for that my use for several weeks now of my account at the University of Cambridge in the UK, namely, Dr. Richard.Cordero.Esq @ Cantab . net, as opposed to my accounts at Verizon, Yahoo, and Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org (my website) in the U.S.?

B. Interception of our communications

5. There is probable cause to believe, set forth in my statistical analysis, that emails and mail to and from you and so many other members of the media, schools of journalism and law, lawyers, etc., have been intercepted by those who have the most to lose due to their critics like me, to wit, judges?
6. In fact, I am constantly sending emails to those on my 20,000+ emailing list.
