PRESS RELEASE

September 2006

TO: Entities and individuals complaining about biased judges that abuse their power

RE: Evidence of federal judges' coordinated wrongdoing and support of a bankruptcy fraud scheme

I would like to bring to your attention evidence posted at <http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org> showing that a federal judgeship has become a safe haven for wrongdoing due to the lack of an effective mechanism of judicial conduct control; and that the justices of the Supreme Court of the U.S. have known for decades of such wrongdoing, but tolerate it. Because institutionalized abuse of power within the Third Branch of Government affects everybody's life, liberty, and property daily and substantially, this matter warrants your and your audience's consideration, particularly since there is something concrete that both can do about it that can redound to your significant benefit and everybody else's.

One mechanism of judicial conduct control is impeachment in the U.S. House of Representatives, so rarely used that it lacks any deterrent value; the other is judicial self-discipline, which is triggered by anybody lodging against any federal judge a complaint, which in turn judges systematically dismiss without investigation. Thus, federal judges wield their vast judicial power free from any control. Since those who can do anything and get away with it will do everything, the judges have allowed their uncontrolled power to follow its course toward absolutely corruptive power.

Federal judges' motive for coordinating the wrongful exercise of their judicial power is only strengthened by the lure of another most insidious corruptor: money. Lots of money enters the federal judicial system through bankruptcy cases. Evidence of this is found in 11 cases that have been prosecuted for more than 5 years, starting in bankruptcy court and moving on to the district court, to the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, to the Circuit's Judicial Council, to the Supreme Court and the Judicial Conference of the U.S., whose presiding member is the chief justice. The justices and judges in all these federal entities and their staffs together with trustees, bankrupts, and lawyers have engaged in a series of acts so consistently in disregard of law and facts while in favor of or against certain parties and outcomes as to form a pattern of non-coincidental, intentional, and coordinated wrongdoing in support of a bankruptcy fraud scheme and its cover up.

The evidence of federal judges' coordinated wrongdoing and support of a bankruptcy fraud scheme is contained in public documents and summarized in the "Statement of Facts", both posted at <http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. The purpose of their posting is to provide a solid basis from which concerned people, including investigative journalists, bloggers, and lawyers, can launch a Watergate-like Follow the money! investigation into the schemers' and their supporters' web of personal and financial relationships in order to substantiate counts under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO). They will be asserted in a class action on behalf of those that have been injured by the judges' abuse of power and systematic dismissal of conduct complaints against them. In the class' representative case arising from those 11 cases the principal defendants will be top federal circuit judges and other judicial officers.

Once in a lifetime, the opportunity presents itself for a person to take a stand in support of a risky, but noble mission that can change government for the public good, as this mission is: To ensure the integrity and accountability of those entrusted with "WE THE PEOPLE"'s judicial system and force them to administer "Equal Justice Under Law". This is such an opportunity. Will you examine the evidence to determine whether to participate in that investigation and thereby render a public service that can be nationally recognized as being of significant practical and moral value to your audience and everybody else in our country? Kindly let me know.
